CAR, TRUCK COLLIDE - A car and a truck were in collision at the corner of Spring and Notre Dame Streets in Summerside about one o'clock yesterday morning. One car was proceeding on Spring Street when it was struck by the truck which was coming across Notre Dame. The car suffered serious damage and the truck some slight damage. There were no injuries.

FUNERAL AT TIGNISH - The funeral of Mrs. Douglas McIntyre took place yesterday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Harper, to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish, where Requiem High Mass was sung at nine o'clock by her pastor, Rev. J. A. McDonald, who also conducted the service at the grave. Surviving besides her daughter, Mrs. Harper, is a son, Albert McIntyre of New York City. Pallbearers were Messrs. Everett Broderick, Hubert Gaudet, Terrence Gavin, John M. Handrahan, Timothy Ahearn, and John Leclair.

FUNERAL MONDAY - The funeral of the late J. Richard MacCormack was held Monday from his residence in North St. Eleanor's to St. John's Church in St. Eleanor's and was largely attended. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor Ven. Archdeacon Harrison. There are left to mourn one daughter, Mavis, two sons Frank and David, and two step-daughters, Mrs. Lloyd Burns and Mrs. Burton Burling, also a brother and a sister. His wife, Daisy F. Mills, predeceased him nine years ago.

HONOURED AT RECEPTION - Mrs. J. C. Profit entertained in honor of Cpl. and Mrs. Hagen prior to their departure for Charlottetown. A delicious lobster supper was served to some twenty-five guests, an address was read by Mr. Merritt Callaghan and the presentation of an end table was made by Mrs. Profit. Cpl. Hagen on behalf of his wife, expressed appreciation to their friends and also voiced their regret at leaving Alberton. Much enjoyment was derived from an evening of music furnished by Mrs. Hagen, Mrs. E. E. Larler, Mr. Cyril Leard and Mr. Alfred Gillis.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT - A fairly large docket was dealt with yesterday before Magistrate R. S. Hinton. Two parties charged with having liquor in a place other than their residence were fined $20.00 and costs. A party found guilty of being intoxicated in a public place was fined $30.00 and costs. (The minimum penalty for a second offence). A party found guilty of being in charge of a motor vehicle while impaired by alcohol was fined $100.00 and costs. A party was fined $10.00 and costs for permitting an unlicensed driver to drive his car. One unlicensed driver was fined $5.00 and costs.

CHILD LOSES EYE - A distressing accident occurred in Summerside on Saturday morning to three-year-old Kathleen Harris which necessitated the removal of an eye. The child was playing on her kiddie car near the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose McNnis, Milton Avenue. When the kiddie car upset and she fell off and when she fell the handle of the little vehicle struck her in the eye. She was rushed to the Charlottetown Hospital where she is still a patient but the eye had been seriously injured and could not be saved. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Harris of Lloydminster, Alta. and her mother is the former Florence MacInnis. They have been vacationing in Summerside and were planning on returning home the latter part of this week.

German Ship Loads Pulp Wood At S' side - The S. S. Claus Boge docked at the railway wharf, Summerside, yesterday morning and work will commence this morning loading a cargo of pulp wood. As the ship was docking she struck one corner of the wharf and sliced through a section about 25 feet wide and ten feet deep. The damage made it impossible to drive trucks around the wharf and yesterday afternoon a section was cut out of the side of the wharf to enable the trucking of the pulp wood to commence. The ship was under the command of the harbour pilot when the accident occurred. A similar mishap took place over a year ago when a ship cut into the side of the wharf but this was repaired. However such incidents will make the new wharf for which tenders have been called very necessary and this was called very necessary and this was called very necessary and this was called very necessary.

GRIPPING SUSPENSE IN 'UNION STATION' NEW MYSTERY DRAMA - William Holden, Nancy Olson and Barry Fitzgerald starred in Paramount's "Union Station" which arrives today at the Capitol Theatre. Lyle Bettger and Jan Sterling lead the featured cast of the picture which has been acclaimed as the year's top suspense thriller. The excitement-packed story of "Union Station" deals with the efforts of the police to track down a vicious kidnapper who has abducted the young, blind daughter of a rich industrialist. Set against the unusual background of a metropolitan city's huge railroad depot, the film is said to be pulse-quickenng entertainment from start to finish.

Twickenham, England - (CP) - C. Mallart-Rogerson has founded a club called the "Forty-Plus Association," which plans to provide business training courses for men and women aged between 35 and 55.

Local Teachers Convention At Summerside

The annual convention of the East Prince Teacher's Federation was held yesterday in the Summerside High School. Officers elected were as follows: President, Mary MacLure; vice president, Alvin Hardy; secretary, Norman Ford. Mr. Donald MacLean the retiring president presided at both morning and afternoon sessions and addressed the convention. A report on the year's activities of the P. E. I. Teachers' Federation was given by Mr. J. R. Murphy. Mr. C. B. Jelly, Inspector of Schools, spoke to the convention briefly and stressed the importance of teachers sending in their reports in time. An arithmetic discussion was conducted by Mr. J. W. Murphy, and Miss Marie Bonness, director of Junior Red Cross gave a short address. At the beginning of the afternoon session the convention was addressed by Mr. L. W. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Education who told the teachers that whether they believe it or not they are important people in the community. He advised them to keep closely in touch with the parents and to learn how children under their charge behave at home as it will help the teacher to develop proper attitudes in the child which may be important to them in later life. A discussion was held on literature and language conducted by Mrs. Leone Ross, Mr. Malcolm MacKenzie, supervisor of curricula spoke on the course of studies and answered questions put by the teachers. The convention was attended by approximately 160 teachers. Eight members of the East Prince Federation were appointed to the Board of Governors of the P. E. I. Teachers' Federation as follows: J. R. Murphy, Mrs. Oscar MacNeil, John Leuty, Miss Mary Reid, J. W. Murphy, Miss Estelle Bonness, Murray Shanks, and Miss Dorothy McGin.

University Men Receive Wings At Summerside - A second university training course of navigators has been graduated by No. 1 Air Navigation School at R. C. A. F. Station Summerside. These courses are composed of university students who spend their summers training in the air force. At the conclusion of their wings they are granted their wings and commissions the same as regular basic navigation students. On graduation from college they become members of either the active or reserve air force. No. 1 course was graduated early in August, the first course of university students ever to be graduated as navigators. The second course was rushed to completion this Fall just in time for the course members to return to their respective colleges. There was no ceremony in connection with the presentation of wings and commissions. Each of the cadets who passed the course was presented with his wings just before he left for college. Most of them departed over the past week-end.

GRIPPING SUSPENSE IN 'UNION STATION' NEW MYSTERY DRAMA - William Holden, Nancy Olson and Barry Fitzgerald starred in Paramount's "Union Station" which arrives today at the Capitol Theatre. Honoured At Farewell Party

Rev. L. B. Dooley, curate of the St. Simon and St. Jude Catholic Church of Tignish for the last three years was recently honored by a farewell entertainment in his behalf with a well-filled purse donated by the people he had so faithfully served in his priestly duties. Father Dooley, as he is affectionately called, will assume the duties as Administrator for the parish at Bras starting the early part of September. The befitting program for the occasion had Hon. J. A. Bernard as Master of Ceremonies, and the Tignish orchestra under the leadership of Adrian Richard. The opening feature was the splendid address made by Hon. J. A. Bernard, who pointed out that beside the remarkable work accomplished by Father Dooley, as a priest, he had been instrumental in fostering youth activities in different kinds of sports to develop the moral and physical development of the young people of the entire parish. Following this address the rendition of "O Canada" was played by the orchestra. Father Dooley, then Frasier at the piano. This was followed by several duets by Mrs. Ralph Arsenault and Mrs. Fred Fitzgerald which were loudly applauded. At this point an appropriate purse presentation address was read by Charles J. McInnis, and the purse itself was presented to Father Dooley by Albert Bernard. In accepting the gift Father Dooley thanked all those who had contributed and expressed his regrets in leaving Tignish parish where he had first come three years ago after being newly ordained as a priest. The program was continued with addresses made by Rev. John A. McDonald, Fr. F. Morrissey, W. D. Sumner, Claude Kinch, Prosper Arsenault, Justin Gavin and Mrs. J. F. Skerry, president of the Catholic Women's League. The entertainment was concluded with the singing of the "National Anthem" by the audience.
