WARREN LELAND,

whom everybody knows as the successful manager of the Largest Hotel Enterprises

of America, says that while a passenger from New York on board a ship going around Cape Horn, in the early days of emigration to California, he learned that one of the officers of the vessel had cured himself, during the voyage, of an obstinate disease by the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended AYER'S SARSAPARILLA in many similar cases, and he has never yet heard of its failure to effect a radical cure. Some years ago one of Mr. LELAND's farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the swelling of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Horrible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enormously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by the direction of Mr. LELAND, was supplied with AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use. Mr. LELAND has personally used for Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high Living, Salt Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases.

We have Mr. LELAND'S permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to see him personally either at his manumoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York. Mr. LELAND'S extensive knowledge of the good done by this unequalled eradicator of blood poisons enables him to give inquirers most valuable information.

H. BRADSHAW, M. D. New Glasgow, Aug 29—wy tf

Public Meeting at Red Point.

Pursuant to public notice, a large and influential meeting of the electors of Red Point, Lot 45, and adjacent settlements was held in the school-house on the evening of the 7th inst., for the purpose of taking into consideration the local requirements of the district, and other matters connected with the general interests. Mr. Wm. McLean was appointed Chairman, and undersigned Secretary; Dr. McIntyre for the County; and Messrs. John and Jas. R. McLean, our local representatives, were present.

The questions submitted to the meeting were, first, the project of a breakwater at Red Point Cove; and, secondly, the abrogation of the fishing clauses of the Treaty of Washington.

The breakwater scheme is not new, action having been taken, and a petition sent in two years ago; but nothing having been done beyond a questionable survey on the eve of the Dominion Election, of which no report appears to have gone before the Department of Public Works, it was resolved to petition the Dominion Government again during the approaching session for a grant in connection with the work.

About the course to be pursued when the fishery clauses of the Treaty of Washington cease to take effect, the meeting gave no uncertain sound; the sentiments of all present being the necessity of a strict enforcement of the three-mile limit against all foreign poachers, trespassers and intruders; notwithstanding their frantic appeals for indemnity when caught helping themselves on their neighbor's property. Nevertheless, they all professed a loyal acquiescence in any arrangements which may be entered into leading to reciprocal free trade.

The subjects of winter road-breaking, and the little benefit we here derive from the Stock Farm, were also brought to the notice of our representatives.

A summary of the speeches is needless, the above being their substance. The speakers were our representatives, Messrs. John McLellan, H. W. Bruce, T. S. Robertson, Isaac Stewart, and the undersigned. At the close the following resolutions were put to the meeting and unanimously carried. Moved by Isaac Stewart, seconded by John McLellan:

Whereas, The people of this District and adjacent settlements are greatly inconvenienced for want of proper shipping facilities, and as we believe that a harbor of refuge could be formed here at a moderate outlay.

Therefore Resolved, That through our representatives, we urge upon the Dominion Government the necessity of such work, and the propriety of granting a sum of money for its construction.

Moved by T. S. Robertson, seconded by A. Robertson.

Whereas, The Fishery clauses of the Treaty of Washington will soon expire.

Whereas, From practical knowledge and otherwise, we believe that the great bulk of mackerel is taken within three miles of the shore, that seining will eventually destroy the mackerel, and has already injured the cod, lobster, and herring fisheries.

Whereas, United States fishermen in former years have persistently violated the stipulations of the convention of 1878, between the United States and Great Britain by fishing within the three mile limit.

Therefore Resolved, That in case no new relations with the United States be negotiated, we urge upon the Dominion and Imperial authorities the necessity of protecting our rights, and rigidly enforcing the provisions of the said Convention of 1878.

After the usual vote of thanks, responses and motion for publication, the meeting quietly dispersed.

ALEX. ROBERTSON, Secretary.

Red Point, January 9, 1885.

Priest Pond Notes.

The weather is lovely and fine, but owing to there being no snow the roads are very unpleasant.

Everything was exceedingly dull for the last few months, but they are on the look out now, as there is a long list of weddings coming off in a few weeks, and the young men in the vicinity are jovial over the coming events.

There was quite a sensation here on the 9th inst. As Peter McIntyre was wending his way to the woods, his attention was suddenly attracted by bear tracks on the road. He at once returned to Alex. McEachern's and gave the alarm. Mr. McIntyre, accompanied by three of the McEacherns, started in pursuit, and captured Bruin in his den. He was quite a large size, as he weighed about three hundred pounds. To these gentlemen thanks are due, as his bearship would certainly have done some harm the coming season. About twenty years ago these same four men killed a bear which weighed five hundred pounds. Where are our young men? Bruin could come, if he so desired, and take them out of their beds, and they would not try to resist, but go quietly off with him.

Miss M. A.

A CORRESPONDENT in the Soudan writes: In spite of what has been said on the subject, I cannot think that there is any great cause for anxiety at the prospect of a summer campaign. From my own experience, I can assure that the British troops in Belochistan and Afghanistan kept the field without serious consequences in a climate distinctly more trying than that of the Soudan.
