IN MEMORIAM

MR. ABNER MYERS

We would tell of the passing away of one who was much regarded in the community in which he lived. We refer to the death of the late Abner Myers of Mount Albion which took place in Charlottetown on March 14th, 1936. He was a son of the late Wesley Myers and Mary Jane Jenkins. Besides his mother he is also survived by a brother Robert Gordon Myers of Mt. Albion. Mrs. Myers' mother was left a widow by the death of her husband some years ago, and her boys became known among the farmers of the neighborhood where they often laboured. During this time Abner was noted for his faithfulness and honesty. He was also a good moral fellow full of faith and kindness. In recent years his health broke down and he went to Charlottetown for treatment. He was almost recovered when a serious symptom appeared and his death followed in a short time. He died at the age of thirty-one years. On Monday the 16th, of March his remains were brought by train to Mount Albion station, from there they were taken to Birch Hill Church of Scotland where a solemn service was held by the pastor Rev. Ewen MacDougall in the presence of many relatives and friends who made their way through roads that were almost impassable to pay a last tribute of respect to a dear friend. After the service the remains were borne to the adjoining cemetery by six of his former school-mates, Henry Jen-

Reception Tendered Mr., Mrs. D. Roberts

On the evening of Friday, April 24th a goodly number of the citizens of Kelly's Cross and vicinity gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Roberts lately removed from Kinkora to Kelly's Cross, to extend to them good wishes and a hearty welcome to the community.

About nine o'clock the melodious sounds of the violin began to resound through the hills and dales of the immediate vicinity, and the patter of dancing feet soon beat in unison with the excellent music. And so the time was passed very pleasantly. About eleven o'clock a dainty lunch was served by the ladies, after which the house was called to order and the following address was read by the Pastor, Rev. F. C. Pitre, accompanied by a well filled purse, presented by Mr. Pius Smith.

To Mr. and Mrs. David Roberts, Kelly's Cross. Dear Friends, We, your neighbors and friends are assembled here this evening for a twofold purpose. First, on behalf of the parishioners of St. Joseph's and myself, we bid you a most hearty welcome to our community and parish.

It is now some two months since your advent to our community, and during that time you have, we believe, made the acquaintance of many of us, and it is our sincere wish that this acquaintance may be welded into a true bond of friendship as the years roll by. The second purpose of our visit here this evening is to ask you to accept this token of our good-will and friendship, and we assure you that in your immediate neighborhood, and in the parish of Kelly's Cross, as a whole, you will find a sociable and a hospitable people, a people who will rejoice with you in your joys and good fortunes, and who will be kind and sympathetic, if any shadow of sorrow should fall across your path.

Again, kind friends, we bid you welcome, and may health, prosperity, and happiness be yours in abundance, in the years to come. Signed on behalf of The Parish of Kelly's Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, although taken completely by surprise, each in a few well chosen words thanked those present for their thoughtfulness and generosity and extended a hearty invitation to all to visit them at any time. These lusty cheers were then raised for Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, then all stood around them and sang with much volume—if not rhythm—"For they are Jolly Good Fellows."

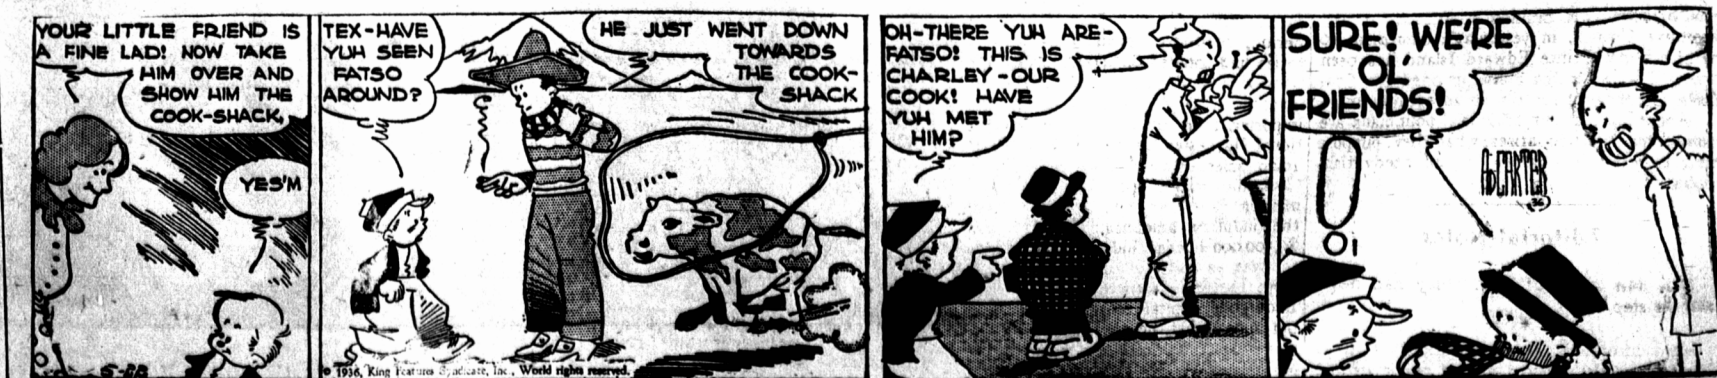

After this the music and dance was continued until the 'wee sma' hours, when all returned to their homes after a very pleasant evening spent. (Patriot Please Copy)

Presentation at Grand View

A happy event of more than passing importance took place at Grand View on the evening of May 14th when a large number of relatives and friends gathered at the comfortable farm home of Mr. Robert McPhee to do honor to Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. McPherson on the 25th anniversary of their marriage.

Mr. Roddie McDonald was appointed chairman and after a few pleasant opening remarks called on Capt. J. E. Purchase to read the following address:

Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. McPherson. Dear Friends—We are gathered here tonight to congratulate you on having completed twenty-five years of happily married life.

In you, Donald, we have always found a kind and true friend, one always ready to extend a helping hand to assist us over the rough places of life's highway, a living example of the words of the poet, "A man that's just and fair, the sort of man that will and can in all things do his share." In your house because of your cheery manner and kind hospitality the friend was always welcome and the stranger was at home.

To you, Mary, we can say that by your loving kindness you have endeared yourself to our hearts.

In your capacity as family nurse you have brought comfort and solace to us on many occasions and we are glad that in spite of the many burdens that we have laid on your capable shoulders, matronhood has sat lightly on your brow and that you appear to us tonight as youthful and charming as some of us remember you to have been as a blushing bride twenty five years ago.

To you both we offer our sincere congratulations on this notable occasion and very best wishes for a bright and happy future and may you continue to enjoy good health, happiness, peace and contentment. We now tender you these gifts, not for their intrinsic value but as a small token of the esteem in which you are held by the members of your family and friends.

The gifts were then presented by Mrs. John M. McPherson. A valuable parour mantle clock from members of the McPherson family. A glittering pyrex pie-plate with silver stand from Mr. and Mrs. Roddie McDonald and a beautiful water pitcher from Mrs. Thomas McPherson and family.

Mr. McPherson, although taken completely by surprise, with a few well chosen remarks thanked the donors for himself and Mrs. McPherson.

The call to the dining-room was sounded and all sat down to an abundant supper at which the best efforts of our finest cooks was greatly enjoyed. The wedding cake which was a wonderful work of art was prepared by Mrs. Hughie Martin. The evening was then passed with games, song and friendly discussion of the current events of the day. At a late hour after joy-

Lobster Fisheries Carnival Week

PICTOU, May 21.—Plans which will make the third annual Lobster Fisheries Carnival Week the most successful are being forwarded by the Carnival Association. The week of Celebration at Pictou will open on Tuesday, July 7, when an open golf tournament will be held at the Pictou Golf and Country Club.

The "Eg" day of the week will be the Carnival itself, on Wednesday. This event, unique on the North American continent, brought 20,000 to Pictou last year, to watch the show opening with the lobster fishermen's parade in the morning; to see King Lobster crowned; to see the fast motor-boat races in the afternoon; and after the evening stage programme, some of which was broadcast over the national network of the Canadian Radio Commission, to remain for the street dance and fireworks display which concluded the Carnival.

On July 9 and 10, some 35 to 40 yachts from all over Northumberland Strait will take part in a regatta, under the rules of the newly formed Northumberland Strait Yacht Racing Association.

On Thursday evening, July 9, the Lobster Dinner Dance will be held at Pictou Lodge, and once again it promises to be one of the outstanding social events of the summer season in Nova Scotia.

Pictou is the world center of the lobster fishing industry, and near the town are the largest live lobster floats, the largest lobster cannery, and the most modern lobster canning plants in the world, and it is in recognition of the town's largest industry that the Lobster Fisheries Carnival "is held. Lobster Fishermen from all parts of Northumberland Strait gather for celebration, engage in contests which only a fisherman could hope to win, and race their fast fishing boats for valuable prizes.

Live lobsters are on display in the Lobster Garden, and here one may select a live, blue-green shelled lobster, and have it served steaming hot, in its now red shell a few minutes later. The largest lobsters caught during the season will be kept in special tanks until the Carnival, when they will be weighed in, and the heaviest will be crowned King Lobster.

Four first-rank bands will supply music for the Carnival, and take part in a parade with soldiers, sailors, pedestrians in Mardi Gras costumes, marching between elaborate floats. H. M. C. S. Champlain and H. M. C. S. Saguenay will be in Pictou during the Carnival, adding a touch of smartness to an already colorful show, and providing a background for the fishermen's races and water sports. Following a brilliant fireworks display, two street dances, modern and old-time, will commence, with excellent dance orchestras.

An exhibit of medal boats is being held in connection with the Carnival. Yachts from Charlottetown, Summerside, Borden and other Island ports will take part in the Regatta on July 9 and 10th.

STUMPED! The fair motorist was speeding through the sleepy village when a policeman stepped out on the road in front of her and forced her to stop.

You were travelling at 40 miles an hour, replied the limb of the law, taking out his notebook. Forty miles an hour! echoed the fair motorist. Why, I haven't been out an hour.

The policeman scratched his head with his pencil before replying. Carry on, then. That's a new one on me.
