

THE DAILY EXAMINER.
AUGUST 5, 1884.

Points at Issue.

The Patriot continues to pursue its insane course; and will certainly bring confusion, defeat and shame upon the head of the Opposition's "Independent Candidate." There is no more sense in its persistent misrepresentation of THE EXAMINER than there is in the attempt to elect a hybrid (Opposition-Independent) representative at this juncture. Neither from a party point of view nor from a public point of view, is there, at the present time, anything whatever to be gained by misquoting THE EXAMINER, or by electing Mr. Welsh. Or if there be anything whatever to be gained, it has not yet been set forth. Blind and impotent with insensate prejudice and party rage, the Grits are unable either to invent or to submit for the consideration of an intelligent people, any clear and well defined issue to be decided at the polls.

But, on the other hand, there are many reasons, why the Liberal-Conservative candidate should be elected. Let us, first, consider those which are lowest and most obvious. The Government is in power, with a strong Leader at its head and a very powerful majority at its back. The result of this election will not affect it in any way. The result can only affect ourselves. How and will it affect us if we elect a half-breed politician, brought out and backed up by the unanimous voice and support of a little land of fire-eating Grits? Not disastrously, perhaps, for the present Government is a just Government. But, the election of Mr. Welsh cannot affect us favorably. It will not, indeed, further our interests in the slightest degree. All hopes of promoting the commonweal of Queen's County and Prince Edward Island lie in the election of a supporter and friend of the Government; and, therefore, on this lower ground the Liberal-Conservative Candidate should be elected.

If the interests of Queen's County and the Island conflicted with those of the County at large, there might be some doubt about the matter. But they do not. The good of the whole country is dependent to a large extent upon the maintenance of the Government led by Sir John Macdonald. Mr. Blake has no platform—no policy; and he cannot even on the most important questions, control his own followers. Moreover he has shown, by his parliamentary utterances, that he is against Prince Edward Island. Here is an extract from one of his speeches—a statement of his that should never be forgotten:

"For P. E. Island the Receipts were $1,596,000, the Expenditure, $2,624,000—the Deficit, (that is the loss to Canada) $1,027,000."

This statement is untrue in fact and inimical in motive. It shows that, even if he were in power, P. E. Island has nothing to hope from him; and for that reason it is our duty to prevent him from gaining one more follower.

But the Government of Sir John Macdonald have, from the beginning, shown a warm friendship for the Island Province. They gave us the Cape Traverse Railway in spite of the protest of the Hon. Alexander McKenzie—

"I think we have done very well for the Island, and we have carried out the Terms of Union to the utmost possible extent."

The Cape Traverse Railway will undoubtedly prove of great and lasting advantage to the public; and, on its account, the Government is entitled to our thanks and our continued support.

But what has been the result of their policy? Let the tree be judged by its fruits. Under their benignant sway, the country has prospered as it never prospered before. Apply any test you like: The Post Office Savings Bank's deposits, in 1878, $2,754,484.03; in 1884, $13,245,552.64! The aggregate trade of the country, in 1879, $67,288,848; in 1884, $99,197,684! The credit of the country, higher than ever it was! The honor of the country, maintained by the success of their Canadian Pacific Railway Policy without adding a dollar to the burden of debt imposed upon the taxpayers! The prices of tea, sugar, and almost every other commodity unprecedentedly low! Peace, prosperity and contentment everywhere prevalent—from Cape Breton to Vancouver Island!! These are the results produced under the Government of Sir John Macdonald; and these results furnish the best reason in the world why Queen's County should now give Sir John a strong supporter—why Queen's County should not now send to Parliament, as its representative, a hybrid Independent-Oppositionist.

Then let us rally, and stand shoulder to shoulder, for the good of our common country, in support of the Liberal-Conservative candidate. There is no personal issue in this contest; but only the broad question "Do we or do we not approve of the general policy and administration of our great leader and friend, Sir John Macdonald?" Dr. Jenkins has been duly selected the candidate by a representative Liberal-Conservative Convention; and to this question those who will vote for him will say "Aye," while those who will vote for Mr. Welsh will say "No." So, let us, forgetting all minor differences, and thinking only of the main question, give an unmistakable answer in the affirmative by an united endeavor to give Dr. Jenkins a great majority.

"The reason the Liberals did not win Belfast in last local contest was that they ran McMillan, a played-out Tory."

—This is Welsh's estimate of Mr. McMillan, stated publicly in Charlotte-town. In the face of this declaration, will Mr. McMillan and his friends support the two-faced politician, Mr. Welsh? Welsh compared himself to Parnell, at Mount Stewart, and he will no doubt liken himself to Forster, at Eldon. He is a Conservative, a Grit, and an Independent, by turns and when it will suit. Queen's County does not want any Chameleon politician; but it does want a strong Liberal-Conservative, who will energetically maintain the rights and claims of the Province at Ottawa.

Great Meeting at Mill View.

SPLENDID SUCCESS OF THE LIBERAL-CONSERVATIVES—THE OPPOSITION'S INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE "FLABBERGASTED."

The meeting at Mill View was an auspicious beginning of the contest in the great district of Belfast. It was held in the stilly evening air, with the moon shedding her mild radiance from an unclouded sky. James Burke, Esq., presided.

Dr. Jenkins was well received, and delivered a forcible speech, in which he expressed his views on all the great questions of the day.

He was followed by Mr. Welsh, Dr. McNeill, Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P., Hon. Donald Ferguson, Mr. Smith, Mr. P. Blake, M. P., Mr. Edward Grant, and others.

The tone of the meeting was very strongly Liberal-Conservative; and the Liberal-Conservative speakers had so much the best of the argument that the Opposition-Independent candidate was, we are informed, compelled to admit that he was worsted.

Federation of the Colonies.

The New York Sun's despatch says a conference on the federation of the Australian colonies is the most genuinely important and remarkable political event of the week. It marks the definite overthrow of one omnipotent school of political thought, which had Goldwin Smith as the most eminent literary apostle, and was supposed to be quietly approved by John Bright and other leaders of the Manchester school. This school contemplated, and even longed for the separation of the colonies from the mother country and disintegration of the empire. A violent reaction has now set in. England and her daughters, sobbing on each other's shoulders, vow never to separate. Lord Rosebery proposed that the colonies shall have a representative in the House of Lords. Wm. E. Forster, with characteristic promptitude in catching a good popular cry, hustled some Conservative rivals out of the leadership of the movement; and so general was the approval of the press that the Daily News, which used to out-Manchester the Manchester school, prays for a poet who will teach the common confederation of the English race, as Arndt taught the unity of all speakers of the German tongue.

What Sir Charles is Doing.

The High Commissioner, Sir Charles Tupper, is taking advantage of every opportunity to lay the vast resources of the Dominion before agriculturists and other classes required in the Dominion. Acting under his instructions, Mr. Dyke, the agent of the Canadian government in Liverpool, made a very interesting exhibit at the Royal Agricultural Show which has just been held at Shrewsbury, and which is usually attended by several hundred thousand farmers and others. The Shrewsbury Chronicle, the leading newspaper in the district, has the following reference to the display made:—"This is one of the most interesting and attractive stands on the ground. It has a handsome decorated front, and specimens of Canadian farm and agricultural produce from all the provinces in the Dominion are here shown. There are special departments for the productions of Manitoba, Nova Scotia, British Columbia, Prince Edward Island and Ontario, and visitors to this stand will be certain to obtain a large amount of information and instruction with reference to the products and prospects of the enterprising and wealthy colony of Canada. The principal features on the stand are samples of Canadian-grown timber, but perhaps what is worthy of special notice is a magnificent collection of grain in the ear. There are fifty varieties shown, and no better evidence could be given as to the agricultural capacity of the country. The straw is long and bright, and the ears full formed as to the grain that is shown in glass-covered cases, and a sample of two roed barley in one case is superior to anything ever seen. There are also specimens of Canadian minerals, including an anthracite coal from the Rocky Mountains, which has now been reached by the Canadian Pacific Railway. There are also several specimens of Canadian soil taken from beds four feet deep at intervals of twenty miles between Winnipeg and the Rocky Mountains. This shows how rich are the alluvial deposits over a district of 2,000 miles long, and how inexhaustible must be the growing capacity of this virgin land."

It is reported from Shanghai that China and France have signed a treaty of peace, China paying a war indemnity.

English Politics.

The New York Tribune's cable letter of the 3rd says there has been a continued agitation during the week for and against the reform bill, both parties holding meetings of the highest importance. The Manchester meeting last Saturday, sufficiently showed the practicability of conducting the agitation on two parallel lines, Lord Hartington, while insisting upon the absolute necessity of the franchise bill, counselling moderation toward the House of Lords, and Mr. Bright demanding that the country should curb the arrogant oligarchy. An assembly 20,000 strong resolved, amid wild cheers, that the existence of the House of Lords was an intolerable anomaly. There has been no day since when a similar meeting has not been held somewhere, the most important being the conference at St. James' Hall, London, composed of delegates from 500 Liberal associations, including representatives throughout the country. John Morley presided and opened the proceedings in a speech of vigorous eloquence. He summed up the situation in the sentence: "No power on earth can henceforth separate the question of mending the House of Commons, or ending the House of Lords. This brought the immense audience to its feet with stunning cheers. Sir John Lubbock spoke for the Whigs, and moved a resolution condemning the action of the Lords. Every wing of the party was represented, and every resolution was carried unanimously, including one declaring it to be necessary to destroy the power of the Lords to thwart the will of the people. The increasing gravity and peril of the situation have sobered even Lord Salisbury, who addressed, on Monday, in the city, an influential meeting of a thousand delegates of the Tory Association of London and its vicinity, arguing against trusting the Liberal ministry with the redistribution. The whole speech was permeated with suspicion of Mr. Gladstone's deep designs. Northcote, Cross and other leading Tories have been speaking at various places on the line, but the most striking evidence of the alarm of the Tories is found in the fresh reconciliation of Lord Salisbury and Lord Randolph Churchill's quarrels touching Tory organization. All these are healed for the moment, Lord Randolph Churchill winning a substantial victory in the unanimous election of the Right Hon. M. Hicks-Beach as chairman of the National Union, Lord Salisbury ratifying the bargain at a dinner of the whole council, at his own house, and smoking the pipe of peace with Churchill. Lord Randolph Churchill's party none the less openly avowed that the Carleton Conservatives have been beaten out of the field. Lord Randolph, in Sir Stafford Northcote's absence on Friday, assumed the Conservative leadership in the House of Commons, where business is making slow progress. Nobody expects that the House will adjourn before the 12th. The present Tory programme is to fight the Franchise Bill during the autumn session, line by line, in the Commons, and not allow it to reach the Lords before Christmas.
