TO SUBSCRIBERS.—We respectfully request all our subscribers who take McClure's Magazine to pay up subscriptions promptly, otherwise both paper and magazine will be discontinued.

FISHING ABOUT NEWFOUNDLAND.—The latest fishery reports from Newfoundland are that codfish are very scarce. No fishing have been taken lately in Placentia or Fortune Bay. A few halibut have been taken at Channel.

ISLAND EGGS.—THE SUEZ: Among the eggs now offered on the S. John market are a lot of P. E. Island winter stock intended for the English trade, but returned here from Halifax because of a break in the market on the other side.

MAMMOTH TURKEY.—A turkey which tipped the scales at 25 lbs. was sold in the market to-day, and bought by Mr. William Seller for shipment to New Glasgow. Market Clerk Dillon says the turkey is the largest he has seen in the market since he entered upon the discharge of his duties.

STODDARD'S AND THE MAGIC CITY.—Part I of Stoddard's Photographs and Parts III and IV of the Magic City are going rapidly. These photographs may be obtained at this office, or at R. H. Mason's news stand. Send in your coupons now, as the next parts will be offered in a few days.

THE "BIKE."—I regard the use of the bicycle, as a means of physical culture superior to any other means in use at the present time. The mental exhilaration which accompanies the exercise is, perhaps, equivalent to half the benefit derived, and the two means combined should, in my opinion, bring about physical strength and vigorous mind.—William S. Stewart, M. D., Prof. Emeritus, Medical-Chirurgical College, Philadelphia.

BURNED TO DEATH.—A man named David Scollie, 67 years of age, was burned to death at Peterboro, Ont., on Thursday morning by the burning of Thomas Gray's residence, in the township of Otonabee, a few miles from Peterboro. The Gray family, composed of six persons, narrowly escaped by jumping from an upper window. In the excitement Scollie was overlooked, and his body was burned to crisp.

WAS MORE THAN PLEASED.—An old Highlander, rather fond of his glass, was ordered spirits by the doctor during a temporary ailment, not to exceed one ounce a day. The old man was a little dubious about the amount, and asked his boy, who was at school, how much an ounce was. "An ounce? 16 drams 1 oz." "Sixteen drams?" exclaimed the delighted Highlander. "Gaw! I not so bad. 16 drams! Hun and tell Tom MacTavish and Big John to come down the night."

A DISASTROUS ENDING.—Three years ago the romantic marriage of Miss Corna Fellows, the Boston school teacher, to a Sioux Indian named Chaska was the newspaper sensation of the time. The bride reigned as a heroine in print, and her act was regarded in some quarters as an instance of feminine devotion inspired by a noble zeal to lift her swarthy lover to the plane of civilization. A few short years have stripped the glamor from the romance, revealing the sad reality of a deserted wife and half-tamed children, while her worthless husband is living with a squaw with whom he had eloped.

NEWS NOTES.

Entries for Maritime Provinces, both stakes close March 15.

Mrs. Sophie Beresford, of San Francisco, has just died from glanders, which she contracted from a horse.

Several days ago Joseph Selezniek, a Cleveland Pole, after probating the will of his wife, turned to another clerk and applied for a marriage license.

The family of the late Mayor Harrison have removed from their old homestead at Ashland boulevard, Chicago, where the tragedy occurred and leased the property.

A Harvard student has died from the effects of injuries received in a friendly sparring bout. To survive American football and die in this way shows a decline of Harvard's physique.

Bulgaria, with her one hundred or less miles of coast line on a small island, has caught the naval fever, and the government has voted a sum equal to about $5,000,000 for the establishment of a navy.

The coast guard crew at Inverness, Scotland, in endeavoring to rescue the crew of a vessel in distress near there met with a mishap. Their boat was swamped and three officers and three men were drowned.

A despatch from Bethune, France, says that a bomb having a half-burned fuse attached to it was recently found in the doorway of the house inhabited by the chief judge of Bethune. The bomb was made of tin and filled with mining powder.

A novel toboggan slide has been built across the frozen River Neva at St. Petersburg, greatly for pleasure and mainly for convenience in crossing the river. High towers have been erected on either bank, and from these a steeply sloping scuffling carries a track to the opposite bank.

The court before which the twelve archbishops, accused of conspiracy against the life of Emperor Francis Joseph, have been on trial, has sentenced the prisoners.

Franz Hangel was given ten years rigorous imprisonment, and Halmel, the second leader, got eight years. Others were sentenced from two to four years.

On trial in Lagosport, Ind., is a suit in which an elderly spinster, Mary Memley, charges that she was done out of an $1800 lot and a $2,000 bank account by Mrs. Heenan, who, she alleges, disguised as a gypsy queen, told her fortune several times and so played on her feelings that she was induced by her to part with her possessions. Ten prominent attorneys are interested in the suit, so that whichever way it terminates the winner will have much of the property to carry out court.

A special from Chicago says: Salvage of the World's Fair is bringing more money than any of the financiers expected to get for it. The report just issued by Acting Auditor Barrington says there was an increase of $46,000 in the sales of last month over the amount that had been counted on. After striking out all the liabilities against the Exposition, Mr. Barrington says there will be left for the stockholders $1,424,841.84. That would mean a dividend on all stock of 13 1/2 per cent. The total expenditures of the fair for February 11 have been $26,925,689.50.

Soon Jerusalem will be connected with the coast by two railways, and oriental Jews regard these as the forerunner of the return of Judah to his inheritance. Speaking of this Mr. Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, in an article on Jerusalem in McClure's Magazine, says the foundation for the opinion appears to be the last chapter of Isaiah, where the prophet describes the return of the exiles. "They shall bring in all your remnant out of all the nations for offering unto the Lord, upon horses and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain, Jerusalem, saith the Lord." Mr. Dana points out on the authority of Dr. Mendes, that the Hebrew word which is translated "swift beasts" in the English version, is kikkoroth, meaning "only this once in the Bible, means a swiftness of movement. For the English rendering there is no justification whatever in the sense of the Hebrew word in the text, the translators of King James' time having no word to express the Hebrew in the passage; but what more accurate term could the prophet use to describe what he had seen in his vision of the return of the Jews by all kinds of conveyances, among them one which he had never beheld in all his experience, but which "swayed" and carried fire? What a picturesque word, Mr. Dana concludes, to describe a train of locomotives in rapid motion!

A SURE CURE. The merchant was rather blue, and his wife, noticing it, asked what the matter was.

"Matter enough," he sighed, "I've been looking over my books and I find I've lost money every month for the last year."

"How did you lose it?" she inquired.

"Oh, I don't know," he said wearily, shaking his head.

"Nor where?"

"No."

Then she thought a minute and remembered what she did when she lost her pocket-book, and her face brightened.

"Why don't you advertise for it?" she asked innocently.

"By George," he exclaimed, "I never thought of that," and the next day he had a big display ad in the papers, and the next and the next, and in three months time he was in clover up to his chin.—Detroit Free Press.

"If J. & J. make it, it's good."

The "J. & J." Preparations

have gained for themselves such a good name that it is a common thing to hear people say, "If J. & J. make it, it's good." We have added another to the list, the J. & J. Sarsaparilla. We believe it to be in every way equal to the imported Sarsaparilla, and is 25 per cent. cheaper. The formula is open to the inspection of any physician who is interested enough to call and examine it.
