Liver & Kidney Trouble COMBINED WITH PALPITATION OF THE HEART CURED!

STEPHEN H. WARREN OF ISLESBORO, ME., IS WELL KNOWN IN HIS NATIVE TOWN, AND THE GREATEST CREDENCE CAN BE GIVEN TO HIS STATEMENT. TO A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE SKODA DISCOVERY CO., HE RECENTLY SAID:

"For more than two years I have suffered great misery from what Physicians called Liver and Kidney Troubles. Nearly all the time I would have severe pains in my back and side, with a constant dull pain in the region of my liver. My bowels were constipated. Food distressed me badly, and my HEART would palpitate greatly at times, in fact I was well broken up.

BETTER THAN GOLD

For two months I have been taking SKODA'S DISCOVERY and SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS, and I AM A NEW MAN. Appetite good. Bowels in good condition. Heart palpitation all gone. No trouble with Liver or Kidneys now. I AM WELL. You certainly have a wonderful remedy in SKODA'S DISCOVERY as I have taken many of the Sarsaparillas, and have been cheated by different Physicians without any permanent benefit."

BY THE THUMBS

A Soldier Punished and Disgraced.

Gladstone Loses a Supporter—Oil Tanks on Fire—Christian Endeavors.

[SPECIAL TO THE GUARDIAN.]

PITTSBURG, July 28.—An immense petition has been presented to Governor Patterson, asking him to have Col. Streeter who had a private held up by the thumbs and otherwise ill-treated for sideing with the Homestead strikers, tried for breach of peace.

The following explains the above dispatch.

HOMESTEAD, July 24.—Private Williams of the Tenth regiment, who was strung up for hurrahing for the man who shot Frick, was today disgraced, disfranchised, discharged under military law, and with his head and beard half shaved and uniform taken off, he was marched in the front of 1600 men surrounded by an armed guard of 20, instructed to shoot if he disobeyed.

Thus he was solemnly drummed and marched out of camp. His conduct is styled treasonable.

The millitiaman Jams, who cheered for the assassin Bergmann, was rather severely treated by his colonel. After being called to the front when the brigade was drawn, the colonel said:

"Corporal of company K," called the colonel. The corporal advanced and saluted. "Take a guard and take this man to the guard tent, ask the surgeons to stand by, and string this man up by his thumbs until he can stand it no longer."

Jams, who, up to this point had stood flushed, but entirely self possessed, turned the color of chalk and trembled, but he never flinched. With another salute to his colonel, he turned and followed the corporal to the guard tent. Three regimental surgeons followed Jams to the guard tent. The young man soon regained his self-possession and held out his thumbs for one of his fellow soldiers to tie.

A stout piece of twine was tied tightly to each thumb, and Jams raised his arms while the corporal drew the line over the tent pole. The cord was pulled by three men until Jams stood on tip toe and then it was made fast. The surgeons took turns in counting his pulse beats. They had to stand on a chair to do so. The young man's face was deathly white, but his eyes were brilliant with determination. His arms were rigid with his weight and the muscles stood out stiffly. The twine was cutting into his flesh, but he pressed his lips firmly together and did not allow a moan to escape him.

The surgeons, watch in hand, kept their fingers on his pulse. The beats came faster and faster and slowly the man's head fell forward on his breast and his eyes closed. He could no longer press the ground with his toes; his dead weight hung heavy on the twine.

Minute after minute passed, and his pulse beats were constantly increasing. At last one surgeon said: "One hundred and twenty beats—let him down."

He had hung for 19 minutes. A surgeon held him firmly while the soldiers cut the cord, the body fell into his arms, and he laid it gently on the ground. The eyes opened and Jams said: "Let me lie here I feel sick."

They covered him with a blanket and withdrew, and Jams lay there in the guard tent all night.

Col. Streator made his report to Col. Hawkins, who indorsed it and sent it by an orderly across the river to Gen. Snowden. Gen. Snowden read it over carefully, and then endorsed it: "Dismiss this man in disgrace from your regiment and drum him out of camp tomorrow morning."

These were written orders, but to the orderly he added: "Tell Col. Hawkins to have the man's head shaved on one side before he is dismissed."

Later advices from Mr. Frick's residence, tonight, are that his condition is more serious. He has nine distinct wounds, seven stabs and two gun wounds.

Assassin Bergmann continues stubborn, not talking much and closely watched. His hearing is set for August 1.

The general labor situation is unchanged.

Christian Endeavor Convention.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 28.—The Maritime Union Christian Endeavor Convention opened this afternoon in Centenary church. Fully three hundred delegates are present from all the provinces. Rev. G. O. Gates, of St John, was elected president.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa, July 28—Tank No. 17 of Southwest Pennsylvania was struck by lightning and took fire. The tank contains 27,000 barrels of oil. The fire spread to twenty surrounding tanks, all of which are now in flames.

To Prevent Cholera.

OTTAWA, July 28.—Dr. Bergen, M P, is urging the government to institute a rigid system of quarentine to prevent the introduction of cholera.

Germantown Cricketers Win.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 28th.—The Germantown Club won the cricket match today. The Garrison Club made but 64 in the second innings. The victors won with loss of only one wicket.

Gladstone Loses a Supporter.

LONDON, July 28—A recount has given the seat in Greenock, Scotland, first awarded to Bruce, liberal, to Sir Thos Sutherland, unionist. It is said that Joseph Cowen, a popular man, will oppose Morley if the latter seeks re-election as minister.

Maritime Men Coming Home.

WINNIPEG, July 27.—The delegates from the lower provinces have returned to this city. They are greatly pleased with all they saw on their way.

Mr. Laurier will not Retire.

MONTREAL, July 27.—Hon. Mr. Laurier is in the city, looking in the best of health. He denies emphatically any truth in the rumor that he has been asked to retire from the leadership, and declares there is not the slightest dissension in the Liberal ranks; but, if anything, they are in a more solid and compact body than they have been for some time.

Farrar Steps Down and Out.

TORONTO, July 27—The following appears in the editorial columns of today's Globe: "We are sorry to have to announce that Mr. Farrar, who for the past two years has been principal editorial writer of the Globe, has decided to retire from active journalism for a time, and will sever his connection with the Globe on August 1st. The Globe has found Mr Farrer to be a man of unusual ability and of the strictest integrity, a master of his profession, conducting public discussion upon a high level and scrupulously avoiding the meaner and coarser habits of political controversy; and the Globe parts from him with regret."

A Haligonian gets $25,000, for Stopping a Runaway.

FITCHBURG, July 24.—C. C. Clough, now of Boston and formerly of this city, has come into £5000 by the will of Hereford Drummond, of Drummond Chambers, 10 John St., Adelphi, London. The executors, after a long search, succeeded in locating Clough in Boston yesterday. About a year and a half ago when in Halifax, Mr. Clough one day, at the risk of his life, stopped a pair of runaway horses attached to a carriage in which were Mr. Drummond and his only daughter. The gentleman wanted to show his gratitude in some substantial way, but Mr. Clough declined. Mr. Drummond immediately incorporated a clause in his will in favor of Mr. Clough, who inherits the money by the death of his beneficiary.
