Three-Team City School Hockey League To Open

A three-team City Interscholastic Hockey League will get underway here at the Forum tomorrow night when West Kent and Prince Street Schools meet in the schedule opener there at seven o'clock.

The announcement was made last night by local officials who released the schedule of games for the month of January, which will be all Saturday night contests, followed by a skating session.

The third team in the loop is Queen Square School, last year's City and Provincial champions.

Made up of the best of minor league hockeyists in the City, the league is expected to produce the same keen calibre of competition that has been witnessed between these same three school teams in past years, and upsets can be expected before the season is over.

The West Kent School, coached by George MacRae, former defenceman for both Prince of Wales College and Saint Dunstan's University, have an aggressive band of youngsters this year, and although they have been out of the picture as far as City titles are concerned during the past couple of years, are considered a leading contender for top honors this season.

Meeting the present champions, Queen Square School, in an exhibition tilt last Saturday, the West Kent crew showed early season power when they downed the Q.-S.S. boys by a 7-4 count.

Many local fans, who take an interest in following the youngsters during the season's activities, are expected to be on hand to see the league opener.

The following is the January schedule: —

Jan. 6th. — P.S.S. vs. W.K.S.
Jan. 13th. — Q.S.S. vs. P.S.S.
Jan. 20th. — W.K.S. vs. Q.S.S.
Jan. 27th. — P.S.S. vs. W.K.S.

Frank Boucher Night Planned

NEW YORK, Jan. 4. (AP)—Frank Boucher, popular general manager of New York Rangers of the National Hockey League, will be honored with a "Frank Boucher Night" at Madison Square Garden Feb. 14, it was announced today.

Boucher, one of hockey's all-time greats, is serving his 25th year with the Ranger organization. The night will mark the 25th home game of the Rangers' 25th season.

An automobile from the fans is expected to be one of the numerous gifts presented to Boucher.

Boucher was a star centre two decades ago and his famous line-mates, Bill and Bun Cook, are expected to be on hand for the celebration. Boucher has served the Rangers as a player, coach and manager.

Phillies' Players Get Pay Boosts

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4. (AP)—Seventy-five per cent of the Philadelphia Phillies received salary increases in contracts mailed out today.

The Phillies announced contracts were mailed to 40 players.

They did not, however, disclose the names of the players, who'll get more for playing in 1951 than they did last year when the club won its first National League pennant in 35 years.

Millionaires Score 3-1 Win Over Victorias

NORTH SYDNEY, N. S., Jan. 4. (CP)—Sydney Millionaires rode to a 3-1 victory over North Sydney Victorias on two goals by Don Berry tonight before a fair crowd of 1,100 Cape Breton Senior Hockey League fans.

Vics took a 1-0 lead in the second period but Berry combined with Alex Birukow and Eddie Marchant at 10:11 to net the equalizer. Don (Red) McRae took up the torch three minutes later and tallied Sydney's winning goal with the help of Fred Hildebrand and defenceman Tom Rockey. Berry added the insurance at 17:55 in the third, Rockey assisting. Clem Beatty scored Victorias' lone goal.

Title Fight In Pittsburgh Is Possibility

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 4. (AP)—The possibility of a heavyweight championship fight here next summer was raised today with an announcement that a $125,000 guarantee has been offered Ezzard Charles, the Cincinnati titleholder.

Jake Mintz, co-manager of Charles, said the offer was made by Jack McGinley, matchmaker of the Ronney-McGinley Boxing Club. Charles' opponent, under the offer, would be Joe Maxim, the light heavyweight champion from Cleveland.

"We haven't made up our minds whether to accept the offer but it's a very good one," Mintz said.

St. Mary's Defeat Undermanned Saint John Beavers 6-3

HALIFAX, Jan. 4. (CP)—Halifax St. Mary's scored two goals in each period tonight to defeat undermanned Saint John Beavers 6-3 in the Maritime Senior Hockey League.

Jack Hollett notched a pair for Saints, while Bill Ford, George McGregor, Cy Thomas and Trent Anderson netted singles. For Saint John, Nick Nicolle, Eddie Bolan and Roger Jodoin were the scorers. Bolan spoiled an otherwise good game by his penalties — he was in the box during three of Halifax's goals.

Beavers, outplayed in the first and third periods, made a strong bid for victory in the middle frame. Mild weather caused heavy ice and the game was spotty except in the opening chapter and the late minutes of the third.

Trailing 2-0 going into the second, Beavers put on the pressure and kept the play in the Halifax end. They tied the score but then a penalty to Bolan gave the Irish an advantage and before the beleaguered defenceman returned Halifax shot two more goals.

Saint John registered its final tally after the Saints made it 5-2 in the third but in the last five minutes Halifax kept the door closed.

Tommy Brennan and Manny McIntyre were missing from the Saint John lineup. Brennan, it was reported, is being used as trade bait by Beavers. McIntyre is on the injured list.

Mykety Returns

Johnny Mykety, powerful Irish defenceman, played for the first time since he was injured in the first game of the season. He belted Beavers plenty in the first but his lack of condition told in later stages of the night, although he maintained an effective game. Pat Powers, reported to have a broken rib, was on the ice for Saints.

Jodoin played a driving game for Beavers, going strong both ways and scoring threat at all times. Both goalies turned in top performances. Denny Brodeur had no chance on any of the Halifax goals — he stopped 30 shots, compared to Eddie D'Aoust's 24.

Halifax — Goal, D'Aoust; defence, Blackburn, Heon; centre, Whitlock; wings, Nicolle, T. Watson; subs, Bolan, Mudie, Thaler, Jackson, Jodoin, Platz.

Curling Tam Of MacLeod Tartan

Mr. J. Finlay MacLeod, well known Charlottetown curler, is justly proud of his handsome new Balmoral Curling Tam, made out of the dress tartan of the MacLeod Clan by his wife from material obtained in Scotland. The tartan is of a striking and attractive design, with black and red strips crossed on a light orange ground. It is adorned with a beautifully worked Scotch thistle, and with several curling mementos. A crest of the same tartan material has been made by Mrs. MacLeod for her husband's curling sweater.

Ike Williams Meets Jose Gatica In Bout Tonight

NEW YORK, Jan. 4. (AP)—How far has Ike Williams slipped? How much fighter is Jose Gatica? You get the answers tomorrow night when Ike, the lightweight boxing champion, meets Jose, the latest Argentine import, in a non-title 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

South America is steamed up over Gatica's big chance to make a name for himself. The chunky little fellow probably will get a shot at the championship if he wins or comes close.

Gatica comes to the U. S. with the official blessing of Gen. Juan Peron, President of Argentina, and during his stay here is attached to the consulate staff in New York, making him more than any other fighter to invade the U. S.—a sports ambassador from the Argentine.

Williams, losing three of 11 fights in 1950, has not defended his crown since Dec. 5, 1949. He's long overdue with both the U. S. National Boxing Association and New York State Commissions.

Contracts call for Williams to make 140 pounds, give or take a pound. He has been under 140 only once in the last year and scaled 144 for his last scrap, Dec. 18.

Despite his inconsistent performances in recent months, Williams is a 9-to-5 favorite to whip the South American.

Gatica in his U. S. debut, Dec. 1, knocked out Terry Young in the fourth round. He has looked good in training at Summit, N. J.

Richard Scores His 270th Goal

FORUM, Montreal, Jan. 4. (OP)—Maurice Richard tonight scored the 270th goal of his National Hockey League career and tied the second-place high mark held by Aurel Jollat and the late Howie Morenz, both of Canadiens.

Morenz also saw service with Chicago and New York at times. Richard's goal came in the third period of the game with Boston Bruins while the Bostonians were leading 3-0, and was scored on a pass from Bert Olmstead directly in front of the Boston net.

The high mark of modern hockey was set by Nels Stewart of the old Montreal Maroons of the N. H. L. He scored 323 goals.
