HALIFAX, CP — Halifax Atlantics held their three-point lead in the Maritime Major Hockey League here Saturday night, whipping Sydney Moneymen 6-3 while the second-place Charlottetown Islanders took a victory from Glace Bay Miners.

A four-goal scoring spree in the second period gave the Atlantics their margin after the Mills had gone ahead 2-1 in the opener. Doug McPhee scored a brace for the winners.

Johnny Horeck and Alex Birukow sent Sydney out in front before Kenny Lauffman scored Atlantics' first goal. Frank King and coach Dugger McNeil added to McPhee's pair in the middle frame while Ronnie Rowe beat Roy McMeekin for the Dollarmen's last marker.

Billy Gooch wound it up for Halifax with less than two minutes remaining in the game.

Referee Charlie Good Resigns Following Riot In Glace Bay Sat. Night

NEW GLASGOW, (CP) — Referee Charlie Good resigned from the Maritime Major Hockey League at an emergency meeting Sunday which heard reports of growing rough-and-tumble tactics involving players and fans in the stormy four-team circuit.

Good's resignation, in which he said he could no longer stand the physical exhaustion of pressure and frequent travelling, ended a Maritime hockey career which culminated in a "small riot" at Glace Bay Saturday night.

Good said fans swarmed onto the ice and clashed with players of the Charlottetown Islanders. Efforts of Forum police, plus playing of the national anthem, restored order.

Good ordered both clubs to their dressing rooms. Charlottetown coach Murph Chamberlain claimed two pairs of gloves and five sticks were missing and said he would not permit his club to return to the ice.

He changed his mind after a league official told him the refusal would mean a year's suspension.

Good said the fans started the melee when a Charlottetown player whom he was unable to identify slammed his stick against the boards.

Charlottetown delegates said they would not play again in Glace Bay unless adequate police protection was assured. League president J. Elliott Hudson said he will ask the Glace Bay club for the same guarantee of police protection that had been given by the Charlottetown Forum following a fracas last month during a visit by Halifax Atlantics.

Good took the same decision made after the Charlottetown affair by Ross Morrow, who gave "poor health" as his reason for withdrawing from the refereeing staff.

The league promptly decided to abandon the referee-linesmen system and reinstate game-handling by two referees.

Sunday's meeting was called at the request of Halifax and Glace Bay. Atlantics' protest of Good's officiating, particularly a report which brought a six-game suspension to forward Hugh Campbell, was tossed out.

Hudson said he was tagging a $50 fine and a three-game suspension on Sydney forward Ronnie Rowe for swinging his stick on a goal judge in a clash with Glace Bay last week.

Saints Wallop U. N. B. 95-43 In Cage Opener; Reardon Scores 35 Points

The Saint Dunstan's University basketball team, playing almost perfect ball, walloped the University of New Brunswick 95-43 Saturday night at the S.D.U. Gymnasium. The game was the first for the Saints in the N.B.-P.E.I. Intercollegiate schedule.

Led by playing coach Jack Reardon the Saints gave a terrific demonstration of court magic as they raced to victory in the visiting Collegians in a wide open contest.

Reardon scored 35 points on a combination of hook shots, lay-ups, two handed set shots and free throws. He scored from well out with two men guarding him or from under the basket on hook shots. At other times he would steal the ball from opponents and race in for lay-ups as he found the U. N. B. defenses much to his liking.

Even at that Reardon's percentage shooting was not as high as that of team-mates Joe Mullally or Earl MacKinnon. The latter bank three baskets in three shots for a shooting average of 100. Mullally, who scored 13 points, had a shooting average of 60 and Reardon topped out the big three as he clicked on 40 per cent.

Garland of U. N. B. was high scorer for the visitors, with 12 points. Gorman was runner-up with nine.

The U. N. B. quintet showed strength comparable to the Saints only in the free throwing department. They made good on 15 free throws against 13 by the Saints.

The Saints raced into a 15-8 lead during the first quarter. At the half they were ahead 43-17. They led 72-29 at the end of the free scoring third quarter and they added 21 points in the last ten minutes to complete the rout.

Reardon divided his points among the four quarters. He had eight in the first, ten in the second, seven in the third and ten in the fourth.

Fast moving Gus Dorais held the spotlight with Reardon in the second quarter. Dorais scored 10 points in the second ten minutes on a combination of hook shots and one handed throws from the front of the basket.

Joe Mullally had a hot third quarter. Working with Reardon and Pete Dunphy Joe tossed in four baskets to account for eight of his thirteen points. Both Dunphy and Mullally set up Reardon consistently to help in the latter's high scoring spree.

Dunphy himself had his big moments in the last quarter. He raced in for a lay-up to score the 90th point for the Saints and followed this with a free throw for point 91.

Guards Clarence MacDonald, Bob Mooney and Cy McIsaac of the Saints turned in strong games. McIsaac scored his first basket of the game three seconds after the start of the second half.

St. Dunstan's took 107 shots and made 40 of them for a shooting average of 37.4 per cent. U. N. B. made 14 out of 59 for a percentage of 24.

Islanders Can Equal Record In Game Tonight

An opportunity to equal their all-time unbeaten record and to move within one point of the Halifax Atlantics will be offered the Islanders tonight when they clash with the Glace Bay Miners at the Forum.

The Islanders, who have been unbeaten in the last nine games need one more win in order to equal the 10 game winning streak they set at the beginning of the 1950-51 season. The local team's record for the last nine games is eight wins and one draw.

An Islanders win and a Halifax loss tonight would leave the Charlottetown and Halifax clubs separated by only a single point. The Atlantics meet the Sydney Millionaires tonight at Sydney.

The Islanders will have an additional reason for throwing a beating on the Macey men tonight. During Saturday's game at Glace Bay approximately 400 fans streamed on the ice during a player-fans dispute.

The outbreak started when an Islanders forward banged his stick on the boards near some fans. The fans went after the player and before the fracas was settled nearly all the players along with coach Chamberlain and trainer Riggs were reported engaged in a swinging duel with the fans.

Following the game police reinforcements were called to the Glace Bay Forum in the event of any further trouble. Approximately 40 fans lined up outside the Forum but they dispersed before the Islanders made their exit.

The Islanders did, however, get a little help from the Miners. Bargin' Bill Burega assisted the local players and even suggested a Glace Bay fan while Neil Amadio tipped off the Islanders in their dressing room about the lineup of fans outside the Forum.

The Miners had been on a winning streak before they stacked up against the Islanders on Saturday. Last Thursday night they defeated Halifax and the following evening they turned back Sydney 4-0.

Showing here tonight for the first time this season will be centreman Kenny Watson who starred with the Saint John Beavers last year.
