World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893.

THE Government of the Dominion of Canada has accepted the invitation of the Government of the United States to take part in the World's Columbian Exposition, to be held in Chicago from 1st May to 31st October, 1893. As it is important that a very full display of Canadian products be made on that occasion, a general invitation is extended to Canadian producers and manufacturers in agriculture, horticulture, products of forests, fisheries, minerals, machinery, manufactures, arts, etc., to assist in bringing together such a display of the natural resources and industrial products of Canada as will be a credit to the country.

An Executive Commissioner for Canada has been appointed, who will have the general charge of the exhibits and the allotment of space, and the several Provincial Governments have been invited to co-operate with the view of making the exhibition as complete and satisfactory as possible.

The Dominion Government will pay the transport of exhibits going and returning, and for the placing of articles sent.

Entries must be made not later than 31st July. The reception of articles at the Exposition buildings will commence 1st November, 1892, and all exhibits, excepting Live Stock, must be in place by 1st April, 1893.

Forms of application for space and general information can be obtained on applying by letter post free, to the undersigned.

Combination Sale.

ENTRIES must be made for this sale on or before the 15th day of this month. Only four days left. We hope to be able to announce one hundred entries at least. This is an experiment all horse-breeders should welcome. It is the beginning of a public horse mart—a place where owner and purchaser are brought face to face. Make this sale a success and you have gone a long way towards an annual horse sale as a permanent institution of one of the best horse-breeding places in America. If you offer enough horses to make the sale attractive, purchasers will come, at the pleasantest season of our year, gladly, we think, with the extra inducement of getting just the horse they want.

The entry fee is small. The horse fair will be held on grounds second to none in Canada for the purpose. All we want to see is a well-filled catalogue, and we believe our neighbors will gladly avail themselves of such an opportunity to purchase.

A Retrospect.

(Montreal Gazette.)

A year ago Sir John Macdonald died, and Canada was plunged into profound grief at the loss of her most brilliant and most successful statesman. In the brief interval of twelve months, party prejudices do not soften sufficiently to permit the historian to write of the personality and work of so eminent a figure in the national life of Canada as he; that task must be left to other and remoter days when the discussions of the time have been somewhat forgotten and the influences which prompt those discussions have passed away; but the patriotic spirit of the Old Chieftain still animates his party, and his high purposes are sought with unswerving courage by the men who were his colleagues, and upon whom the conduct of public affairs has devolved. When Sir John Macdonald was called away, he left his party with a small majority in the Commons, confronted by an Opposition strong in numbers, almost desperate with the disappointment of defeat, and resolved to break down the Ministry by a fierceness of onslaught unparalleled in recent parliamentary history. The session was protracted to an unusual length; scandals of every degree were attempted to be fastened on the Conservative leaders; the rank and file of the Opposition were cheered on with the promise of an early occupation of the Treasury benches, and the by-elections were awaited with eagerness to bring the promise to fulfilment. But if the Opposition were desperate in methods, the Ministerialists were resolute; resolute to keep firm the trust committed to them, to honor the lost leader in the maintenance of his cause, to hold unsullied the flag confided to their hands. In the records of the Conservative Party is written the praise of the Old Guard which stood around Sir John Macdonald in the dark days of 1874 to 1878, but no body of men has ever stood truer to a cause, shown more fidelity to a principle, or manifested less of selfishness than those who sustained the Government through the session of 1891.

The people have since vindicated the party, have paid new tribute to the policy evolved and executed by the Old Chief. The Conservative parliamentary majority of 25 is now a majority of 62. The scandals of a year ago have recoiled on the heads of their authors, who by the revelations of the courts were shown to have been literally steeped to the lips in corruption. The Liberal Government of Quebec has gone down under a cloud of disgrace. The fiscal policy by which the Opposition at Ottawa hoped to delude and mislead the people has been abandoned by its parents, and none are now so poor as to do it reverence. The Conservative Party, instead of breaking up as its opponents predicted when Sir John Macdonald died, is stronger, more self-reliant, more vigorous than ever, possessed of the confidence of the people, pursuing with skill and success the lines of a national policy, and directed in the House of Commons by a gentleman intellectually the peer of any who has ever sat in Parliament, of high honor, of patriotic instincts, and who has won the affection of his supporters in a not less degree than he deserves their confidence, and commands their admiration. To the sagacity, the experience, and the great ability of Sir John Abbott and Sir John Thompson the country owes no small debt of gratitude for the wise and prudent administration of public affairs during the past year, and the Conservative party owes profound thankfulness for much of the political successes achieved. When Sir John Macdonald's life work was ended he left a name that is an inspiration, a policy that is a talisman, and successors worthy of himself.

Canadian Horses Abroad.

The Montreal Star notes that the most conspicuous figure in the Windsor rotunda on the 1st inst. was that of Mr. W. Gordon Cumming, nephew of Sir Gordon Cumming, Bart. Mr. Gordon Cumming, who is now a Canadian rancher, stands fully six feet two inches, weighs apparently 225 pounds, and his low hat, towering above the silk tiles of common men, is a regulation western sombrero with a far-reaching rim. He has spent the last five years on the prairie minus an occasional trip to the old land. He is now returning from England, where he has been since February last. The ranch of which Mr Gordon Cumming is the manager is the "Quorn," 200,000 acres in area and 30 miles south of Calgary, N. W. T. It is devoted to a herd of English hunters, whose dams or grandams were a stable of 500 Irish mares imported by Mr. Gordon Cumming's company in 1887. "There will soon be more common horses in the Northwest," said he, "than the farmers can find market for. But high class horses will always be in demand and we expect to ship largely to England. I am here now to make terms with the railway and steamship companies for the shipment of the first consignment of hunters to the east and across the Atlantic. They will come to Montreal about the month of August. The first lot will not be large in numbers; but perhaps next year and thereafter we expect to send annually at least 500 animals."

Personal.

Sir Charles Tupper was introduced at a recent meeting in London as "a distinguished Colonial statesman, who might in the future be a great acquisition to a truly Imperial Parliament."

On May 24th, at Haddonfield, N. J., the Rev. C. A. Brewster was ordained deacon, and the Rev. R. C. Cobb, priest, by Bishop Scarborough (Anglican). Both were formerly Presbyterian ministers.

"We have thrashed the rascals" is the opening sentence in a private letter of Sir John Macdonald's, written just after the election of 1887, and recently printed by the Globe. Sir John had an expressive way of putting things.

Reports in regard to a projected reconciliation between Bismarck and the Kaiser are being persistently circulated throughout Europe. It is stated with some appearance of authority that the Kaiser, in deference to the representations of his more sagacious advisors, has consented to resume friendly relations with the aged empire maker, but that he feels that his imperial dignity demands that the overtures for reconciliation should come directly from Bismarck himself. The pride of the ex-Chancellor, however, is at least equal to that of his sovereign, whom he evidently regards as nothing but a self willed, incapable boy. Bismarck manifestly is not inclined to make the slightest move toward a reconciliation.

General Telegraphic News.

VIENNA, June 8.—Floods in the valley of the Danube are increasing alarmingly. The inhabitants of Vienna have been officially notified of the danger of inundation. Serious overflows are reported in the Inn Valley. The lakes of Salzkammergut and Ischl have overflowed their banks. Railway communication is interrupted.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 8.—The railroad to the Souris coal fields will be finished in about a month, and Winnipeg will then have an abundant supply of cheap coal, settling its fuel problem forever.

ST. PETERSBURG, June.—Within the last few weeks a number of very disastrous fires occurred in various parts of Russia, inflicting great danger and causing severe losses to workingmen who were the principal occupants of the buildings burned. The latest place to suffer is Potchinki, in the government of Nigi Novgorod. A fire there to-day destroyed 310 houses. The population of the town is about 7,000. The destruction of so many buildings caused much misery. Many occupants of houses lost everything they possessed and are dependent upon charity for food.

TORONTO, June 8.—Henry Cohen, a Jew, was fined $1 and costs by the police magistrate for working on Sunday last. His plea of excessive rush of business was not accepted by the bench. Louis Goldsmith, cigar maker, also charged with working on Sunday was fined $5 and costs or 30 days imprisonment. His excuse was that owing to his employes being Jews, and thus prevented by reason of their faith from working on Saturday, he allowed them to work on Sunday to make up time. But the court would accept no such plea.

A Hard Profession.

Old Dr. Johnson once said addressing a class of medical students, that the study of medicine was a most arduous undertaking; that the most comprehensive mind and the most industrious student could scarcely do more than explore the portals to medical knowledge during the brief time alloted to study before commencing practice, but that throughout his whole life the responsibilities of his profession should rest upon him like a night mare.

He should explore every avenue of natural knowledge, must become familiar with chemistry, natural philosophy and natural history, but, above all, he must learn the construction of his own frame, the means by which he lives, moves and has his being. He must understand the nature of all those influences by which health is broken down and restored and by what means disease, suffering and death may be averted. Dr Johnson further says that nothing contributes so much to the support of quackery as the present insufficiency of medical knowledge. Men do not, he says, easily abandon hope, but as readily put faith in ignorant pretenders as drowning men catch at straws.

"The good that men do in this life lives after them." During the lifetime of old Dr. Johnson he invented what is now known as Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, a standard family remedy of surpassing merit. This liniment is both for internal and external use, and it is safe to say that no single remedy ever discovered has done so much good as has this one. It is inexpensive, ready at a moment's notice night or day and may be used with absolute confidence in the thousand and one ailments that afflict humanity. In the cure of severe cramps or pains in the stomach or bowels, dysentry, diarrhœa, acute or chronic, this ailment is a sovereign remedy. In the case of chronic diarrhœa it is certainly worth its weight in gold. It has been known to cure cases of from ten to fifteen years standing after the sufferers had been given up.

FROM the beginning of its manufacture until now not a single ounce of any but pure Virginia leaf of the finest quality has been used in the "Myrtle Navy" tobacco. The manufacturers of it have a settled belief that the public cannot be misled on this point, and that any tampering with the quality of the brand would be a monetary loss to them. Thousands of dollars a year saved by mixing with an inferior leaf, would not repay them for a doubt on the part of the public as to the quality of their tobacco.

Russia has begun to export grain.

MAKES FLESH AND BLOOD.—When the system is all run down and there seems to be no hope of obtaining nourishment for the body by the ordinary process of food supply and digestion, when the body is sinking fast, then is the time to use Miller's Emulsion of pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. It always works wonders, because it is a flesh and blood maker and contains all the constituents for nourishment found in wheat, in fact, Miller's Emulsion is a perfect "staff of life," and has saved and cured thousands. In big bottles 50c. and $1 at Charlottetown drug stores.

MARCUS LITTLEFIELD.
Rheumatism of the Joints
AND
INHERITED HUMOR of the BLOOD
Banished by Skoda's,
AFTER PHYSICIANS HAD PRONOUNCED THEM INCURABLE!

MARCUS LITTLEFIELD LIVES AT WEST WINTERPORT, ME. A FARMER BY OCCUPATION, HE ENJOYS THE RESPECT OF ALL WHO KNOW HIM. IN CONVERSATION WITH A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE SKODA DISCOVERY CO., NOT LONG SINCE HE RELATED THE FOLLOWING STORY:

"Ever since I was born, I have been troubled at times, more or less, with a humor on my hands, face and neck. For fifteen years it has been on the increase, I have been gradually failing in health, and for three years past it has itched and burned so badly, that all the way I could get any rest at night, was to bathe in strong carbolic acid, and this only relieved me for a few hours. In addition to this, eight months ago, Rheumatism in my neck and shoulders set in, drawing my shoulders so out of place, that for three weeks I did not have my clothes off. Physicians said I could never get well. I was unable to do any work, and was a great sufferer. I doctored with several Physicians, including Specialists in Boston, and took nearly all the advertised sarsaparillas and blood purifiers, but received no benefit whatever. I had given up all hopes, and my friends thought I could live but a few months. I began the use of SKODA'S DISCOVERY and TABLETS, according to directions, and also used SKODA'S OINTMENT externally. After using THAN them but one week, there was a visible change in appearance. My skin that was literally covered with pimples and blotches began to clear up. My appetite became good, less pain in my shoulders, and I gained rapidly. I have now used less than two courses of these REMEDIES, and my Rheumatism has entirely disappeared. SHOULDERS THAT WERE DRAWN OUT OF PLACE AND WHICH THE DOCTORS SAID COULD NEVER BE GOT BACK AGAIN ARE AS GOOD AS NEW AND IN PERFECT POSITION. My skin is free from blotches and pimples. I have gained twenty pounds in flesh, can go into the woods at sunrise, and chop cord wood until dark, and not get tired, a thing I could never do before in all my life, and am able to work all the time. My friends are astonished at the results, and not more so than myself. They consider it almost miraculous." COLD
