In Memoriam

DONALD—In loving memory of our parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McDonald.

Today is the day of remembrance for many sad regrets. We shall always remember you in the rest of the world for-gets. I think of you in silence I of repeat your name, at would we give to hear your voice I see your faces again. Lovingly remembered by the family.

EWEN—In loving memory of our dear parents, Albert MacEwen who departed this life Oct. 15, 1945, and his wife, Sarah MacEwen who departed this life May 15, 1954. We give us wonderful parents, our memories will never grow old. I fashioned their smiles out of sunshine, I molded their hearts of pure gold. I needed two new stars in Heaven. I beautiful lights to shine, out of this world of sorrow, close those dear parents of ours. I sadly missed and always remembered by daughters, Helen Iarion, Doris and families.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank Doctors Murchi-son, Lee and Laidlaw, and the nurses and staff of the P. E. I. Hospital for their kindness to me. I was a patient there; also many kind friends who re-remembered me with cards, flow-ers, letters, treats and other things and those who helped in every way. Thank you all sincerely. Mary Ann Ford, North Milton.

In Memoriam

MRS. PANSY MARGARET FRASER

News of the passing of Mrs. Pansy Margaret Fraser, wife of Wesley Fraser, North Lake, came a great blow to the family, neighbors and friends. After un-dergoing surgery in the Souris hospital in February she returned to her home early in March, having made a satisfactory re-covery. On April 2nd, 1956, she was stricken with a brain hemor-ge, and passed away at her home. She was in her 41st year. Mrs. Fraser, the former Pansy Alice, was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacEwen of Bothwell. Besides her husband she is sur-ved by one daughter, Linda A. Euse, by her former marriage, a son Clarence, and three daughters, Heather, Janet and Ariene; two sisters, Bessie, Mrs. Marie Ching, and Hazel, Mrs. Layton Rose, both of Red Point; to brothers, Wesley Bruce, Both-ell, and Roy Bruce, North Riv-er; her step-mother, Mrs. Free-an Mossey, and two half-sisters, Ietha, Mrs. Robert Baker, Lake-ville, and Emily, Mrs. George Jarvis, Charlottetown. The funeral was held on April 6, from her late residence to the Baptist Church at Kingsboro. The service, "Let the Lower Lights be burning," was sung at the house. Music at the church included: "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," by E. H. Bell; "The Christian's Good-ly," (Go Bury Thy Sorrow), by Rev. H. R. Bell; and "Beyond the Sunset," by a trio, Rev. D. McEwan, William Jarvis and Keith MacGregor. "In the Sweet-ly and By," was sung at the residence. The services were conducted by Rev. Donald McClure, assisted by Rev. H. R. Bell. Interment was in the Kingsboro cemetery. The flower bearers were: Ar-thur Robertson, Cecil Rose, Roger Kennell, Elwood Ching, and West-ly Rose.

Card of Thanks

Wesley Fraser and family, and Linda Rose, wish to express their thanks to neighbors and friends who stood by them so faithfully, the passing of the wife and mother, Mrs. Pansy Fraser. Also, thanks to all those who sent flow-ers, cards and expressions of sympathy.

Supports Fluoridation

TORONTO (CP)—Public indiffer-ence to tooth decay is causing a generation of dental cripples in North America, Dr. L. S. Fosdick of the dental school of North-west-ern University, said Saturday. Dr. Fosdick said there are not enough dentists to keep pace with chil-dren's dental problems and the best solution is prevention by water fluoridation. Most families were not aware of dental illness un-til too late.
