Two Homes Destroyed At Montague

MONTAGUE — One home was completely destroyed and another gaped in two separate fires at Montague early Sunday morning.

The first fire which broke out shortly after midnight gutted the residence of Mrs. Minnie McQuinn and her three daughters. No one was at home when the flames were first noticed.

The second fire which was first noticed about 4 a.m., destroyed the vacant house which had been owned by the late Cecil Drake.

The cause of the fires has not been determined, either way before the alarms were given.

U.S. Steel Seen Edging Higher

CLEVELAND (AP) — United States steelmakers think September shipments probably will surpass August's by about 10 to 15 per cent, the magazine Steel says.

Barring a sharp break in the economy, finished steel shipments will be at least 16,000,000 tons in the third quarter and 18,000,000 tons in the fourth, the weekly journal of metalworking asserted.

"Total shipments for the year will be about 74,000,000 tons," said Steel. "That's less than most forecasters expected, but it's a substantial improvement over last year's figure (66,100,000 tons) and it's the highest shipments have been since 1957."

The magazine looks for production to advance for the sixth straight week as steelmakers keep pace with continued improvement in bookings. Output this week will be higher than the 1,650,000 ingot tons Steel estimated the industry poured last week. Output then was 4.6 per cent above the previous week's.

Steel price indexes No. 1 heavy melting grade held at $28 a gross ton for the second week.

Producers Meet Names Committees

HARTFORD, Ill. (AP) — The luckless job seeker walked out of the tannery office early shaking his head. Within the space of an hour he had been rejected by a nearby refinery as too old and by the tannery as too young.

It's the idea of R. H. Richards, 61, International Shoe vice-president in charge of subsidiary operations. He believes industry standards to benefit "when the old bugaboo of not hiring men over 45 years of age goes down the drain where it belongs."

The tannery has held to the strange hiring policy for five years now.

Much of the leather for Second World War military men was processed there and employment at the tannery, one of three operated by the firm, reached a peak of 1,200. After the war employment dropped to the least seniority, the tannery found itself with a disproportionate number of older employees.

N.Y. Stocks Inch Lower During Week

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market inched lower last week, stricken by what many called a spell of summer sickness.

Trading activity tumbled to the second lowest of the year for a non-holiday week. Many Street "regulars" were on vacation. Investor interest lagged in general.

The popular market averages showed relatively small losses. Each day it was the same story. A great majority of stocks moved by fractions of a point.

Business news, good and bad, had little impact on prices in most cases. The overall loss ran from 1.5 to 2.3 of the gains accumulated in the previous two weeks.

The market appeared to feel there would be no U.S. tax cut this year. Late in the week some of the July economic indicators such as retail and department store sales and personal income pointed upward, reinforcing the likelihood of no tax cut until next year.

Polish Persecution Charged By Roman Catholic Primate

WARSAW (AP)—Sérafín Cardinal Wyszyński, Roman Catholic primate of Poland, publicly accused state authorities Sunday of closing three convents and nurseries in violation of Poland's constitution.

A protest letter signed by the cardinal was read from Catholic pulpits throughout the Warsaw diocese. It was the first such public accusation in months and followed a relative lull in church-state relations.

The letter said local militiamen in the last few days illegally entered church premises and evicted nuns and children from nurseries in Otoczek and Wawer, towns near Warsaw.

In addition, the cardinal added, "sisters of the Holy Sacrament were thrown out of their own house" in downtown Warsaw, where they had "lived and cared for orphans since 1917."

CHURCH TRIED TO HELP. The cardinal said the church tried in vain to intervene with the proper authorities. He also said it was deplorable that the evictions were attended by "the so-called patriotic priests," a small sect of the Catholic clergyman openly backing the communist regime.

Cardinal Wyszyński said the evictions violated the law and
