

Churchill Describes Yalta Conference In His Memoirs

NEW YORK, (CP)—Sir Winston Churchill says Premier Stalin insisted that a Communist-dominated group be referred to as the Warsaw government, be used as the base. Sir Winston relates Britain had supported what was known as the London government, a Polish government in exile.

Feeling between the two Polish groups was bitter and Sir Winston says he and President Roosevelt pressed for a new Polish government representative of a majority of all the Poles.

Russia finally agreed to reorganize the Warsaw government, Sir Winston relates, "on a wider democratic basis, with the inclusion of democratic leaders from Poland itself, and also from those living abroad."

This reorganized government was to hold free elections as soon as possible. He quotes Stalin as saying elections in Poland would be held within a month.

Greek Fight

Sir Winston also tells how the Communist-led party, EAM, and its fighting force, ELAS, tried to seize Athens after the withdrawal of German occupation troops. He says the British forces in Greece in October, a civil war between Communist sympathizers and the police began early in December.

With street fighting raging in Athens, Churchill flew to Greece, arriving Christmas Day. He went to see Archbishop Damaskinos.

"It was agreed I should ask the King of Greece to make him regent," says Sir Winston. "He agreed to hold out forming a new government without any Communist members. We undertook to carry on the fighting in full vigor until either ELAS accepted a truce or the Athens area was clear of the Communists."

Back in London, Sir Winston and Foreign Secretary Eden told the King of Greece "if he did not agree the matter would be settled without him," and the King agreed.

A future government for Poland was discussed at seven of the

Langley-Luque Wedding

A wedding was solemnized in Kansas City, Mo., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wisdom on Sept. 5, between Ruby Luque of Ellington, Mo., and Ray Langley of Seattle and Moser Bay, Kodiak Island, Alaska. Mr. Ivan Langley Sr., the groom's brother, was best man and Mrs. Wisdom, a niece of the bride, was matron of honor.

The bride wore a navy suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage. The matron of honor wore a grey faille suit and pink carnation corsage.

The music was by Miss Hope Wisdom. A reception followed the double ring ceremony, performed by Rev. Arthur Ballard. The three-tiered cake, containing five wedding rings, was cut by Aileen Bowden and Bess Evans. Many beautiful presents and messages were received. The bride's book, attended by Mrs. Glenn Holmes, was signed by 57 guests.

The following day a family dinner was given at the Dougherty's in Topeka, Kan. The pair left by car for Lake Norfolk, the summer home of the Detroit Langleys, where they were welcomed with a chivari and small reception, many presents and good wishes.

They are at home in Arlington, Oregon.

Former Islander Dies In Washington, D. C.

(Special Dispatch to The Guardian)

WASHINGTON, D. C., (CP)—An 87-year-old native of Prince Edward Island died on Sunday, Nov. 1 here in Washington.

She was Mrs. Pierre J. Frein, the former Emma Blanche Macleod, who was born on a Prince Edward Island farm 87 years ago. Mrs. Frein died in Washington's Emergency Hospital following a seven-week illness. Funeral services were held here Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Mrs. Frein and her husband, Dr. Frein, previously lived 44 years in Seattle, coming to the United States Capital after he retired as head of the Romanic language department at the University of Washington.

The Prince Edward Island native attended Cornell University where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. She taught school in Hawaii and Hyannis, Mass., before her marriage in 1899. Afterward she lived four years at Stanford University where her husband taught.

In addition to her husband she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Alice P. Johnson of Washington, Capital Times correspondent for the Seattle Times, whose husband, Jesse C. Johnson, is director of the raw materials division of the Atomic Energy Commission, and one granddaughter.

Fleming-McCormack Wedding

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Dunstan's Basilica, Charlottetown, on Sept. 16, when Ella Mae McCormack, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McCormack, Charlottetown, became the bride of John D'Arcy Fleming, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Fleming of Hope River.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Justin McDonald who also celebrated the nuptial Mass.

The bride chose a pale blue gabardine suit with navy accessories and wore a corsage of red roses; she also carried a white rosary.

She was attended by her niece, Betty Trainor, who wore a navy blue checked suit with pale blue accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The groom was attended by Mr. Ira Murphy of Charlottetown.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Queen Hotel.

Later the couple left on a trip through the Maritimes and on return have taken up residence in Charlottetown.

Red Party In Hungary Split

VIENNA, (AP)—Major differences between Stalinist Communists and those approving the "new look" of Premier Geogi Malenkov appear to have split the Communist party and government of satellite Hungary.

The Hungarian regime openly admitted Friday that its new course of better and more consumer goods—a course modelled on the Malenkov design—has encountered resistance in key ministries and top spots within the party.

The resistance, it was indicated, is from old, hard-policy Communists who apparently do not approve the "be nice to the masses" line.

That line was announced in Hungary in July, soon after Moscow set the example. It was accompanied by a shakeup in the government in which Matyas Rakasi, Stalin's trusted servant in Hungary, was dropped as premier.

USHERS NEGLECTED?

HALLFAX, (CP)—Church ushers have been the "forgotten men" in many congregations, Dean Everett Hosman of Omaha, Neb., told a meeting of Halifax ushers from 32 different churches as he opened a three-day school for ushers. Dean Hosman heads the college of adult education at the University of Omaha.

ALEXANDRA W. I.

The annual meeting of the Alexandra W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Vernon MacLennan on Nov. 3. 16 members paid their membership fees.

Reports of school and sick committees were given. The election of officers for the coming year was as follows: President, Mrs. Harold Beaton; vice-president, Mrs. Clifford Sherren (re-elected); sec-

Mrs. Glendon Brehaut (re-elected); treasurer, Mrs. Benj. MacLennan; auditors, Mrs. Vernon MacLennan and Mrs. Nelson Robinson; directors, Mrs. George MacLennan and Mrs. Wallace Brehaut; Red Cross convener, Mrs. Ernest MacCabe and Miss Stevenson were appointed on school committee and Mrs. John MacMillan and Mrs. Nicholas Ploggerhoef were appointed on sick committee. It was decided to have a sale the latter part of November. Mrs. Benj. Wood invited members to her home for next meeting when roll call will be "Exchange of Christmas gifts". Lunch committee will be Mrs. George MacLennan, Mrs. Wallace Brehaut and Mrs. Ernest MacCabe. Mrs. Stevenson was appointed on program for next meeting.

Dulles Takes Gloomy View Of World Tension

By John M. Hightower

WASHINGTON, (AP)—State Secretary Dulles said Tuesday there is "reason to fear" the Communists are evading serious talks about any concrete subject involving global tensions in both Europe and the Far East.

While Dulles thus reflected some gloom over the outcome of East-West talks at his press conference in London, Sir Winston Churchill took a more optimistic view in addressing the House of Commons in London.

Churchill said the danger of war has lessened because the Russians, along with the rest of mankind, now fear the mass destruction of an atomic conflict.

The 78-year-old British leader has suggested top-level conferences with himself and President Eisenhower sitting down with Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov to seek a solution to world troubles.

Want Proof First

But Dulles and Eisenhower have made it clear they want Russia to give definite proof of Soviet good faith by deeds instead of words, and Dulles has lately been concerned with Russia's intentions as manifested by diplomatic exchanges.

A few hours after Dulles expressed skepticism about the willingness of Russia and Red China to negotiate East-West problems, it was known that the Russians have sent a new and lengthy note to the western powers dealing with one of the major sources of friction.

The note was reported to have once again rebuffed the western Big Three's proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers meeting at Lugano, Switzerland, next Monday to discuss the German question.

Canadians To Move Into New Home In Germany

OTTAWA, (CP)—The recently formed 1st Canadian Infantry Brigade will officially move into its new, $20,000,000 German home next Tuesday.

Elements of the brigade already have begun to take over the huge camp area near Soest in the British occupation zone of West Germany and the entire move will take several weeks. But next Tuesday the new base will be formally placed in Canadian hands.

The United Kingdom high commissioner for Germany, Sir Frederick Hoyer Millar, will turn over the camp to the Hon. T. C. Davis, Canadian ambassador to West Germany. The latter will then hand it over to Lt.-Gen. G. G. Simonds, chief of the general staff of the Canadian army.

Owned, financed, constructed and managed by the German government, the camp's buildings will be occupied by the Canadian army on a five-year lease, subject to renewal for any length of time agreed upon by both governments.

Canada, however, can terminate the lease on three months notice at any time after the first five years. Annual rent will amount to about $2,000,000, covering services, landscaping, administration and maintenance.

Representing this country's army contribution to NATO defence forces, the 1st Canadian Infantry Brigade now is in the process of replacing the 27th Brigade, homeland bound after two years service in Germany. It was stationed near Hannover, about 90 miles northeast of the new camp at Soest.

Can Bring Wives

For the first time, soldiers stationed at the new base will be able to bring their wives and children from Canada at government expense. It is expected that
