IN MEMORIAM

GARRETT - In fond remembrance of John W. Garrett, who passed away July 22, 1957. "Ever remembered, ever loved." Inserted by his wife and family.

BRISTOL

Mr. Ernest Rossiter has returned to his duties at the busy store after his recent check upon his health that showed him O.K. Mr. Leo Rossiter M.P.P. and Mr. Rossiter have returned home from a weeks vacation at Tighish Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvina Burns with two of their children Mel, Jr. and Mazie have returned from an extended visit to Toronto. "Was terloo and Kitchener, Ont. They visited Mr. Burns' two brothers and their wives and families. They also visited many centers in Ontario and Quebec on their three weeks vacation trip of several thousand miles.

Friends of Mr. Jonnie McAdam are sorry to learn of his recent accident near Scotchfort, when his truck left the highway while en route to the city. Mr. McAdam, suffered a dislocated hip and his truck was badly smashed in the crash. Mr. McAdams, brother Donald, has been a patient in Charlottetown Hospital for some time in the veterans' section.

Bristol lost its oldest resident, in Boston last week in the passing of Mrs. John A. Hughes, the former Eliza O'Brien. Mrs. Hughes left here seventy six years ago to reside in Boston, but has made scores of trips home and always called Bristol home. On a sister resides here, Mrs. James A. O'Brien, and one brother Fred in Boston. Fred, who was on a holiday visit to his old home, did not know of his sister's death till reaching home some days later.

Mr. William MacDonald, has sold his old home property here that has been vacant for some time. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald, will live in retirement in the city in future. Mr. MacDonald has been retired from the C.N.R. section men for three years now.

Mrs. Bernard MacDonald, will be in hospital at Charlottetown for some time yet.

Mr. James Campbell suffered a heart attack recently and has entered the hospital for treatment.

The continued illness of Mr. and Mrs. Lem Jay, Mr. Stewart, is very much regretted by their friends.

Miss Rachel Sinnott, who graduated from the new High School at Morell this summer, will follow her brothers and attend S.D.U. this fall. She is the youngest of a large family of Mr. and Mrs. P.R. Sinnott.

Mrs. O'Malley and her husband, who have resided at St. Peter's Bay for some years, while Mrs. O'Malley, was C.N.R. agent there and Mr. O'Malley was teaching school in this vicinity, have moved to the western part of the Island. Mrs. O'Malley will be C.N.R. Agent.

Mr. Frank Dunphy, who was a patient in Charlottetown Hospital for three months, has moved to Beach Grove residence, for older folks. He had boarded in the village for some years. Mr. Dunphy will be missed around here but with failing health, all are happy to see him in that fine government home where service is tops.

GAS ENDANGERS TOWN
RED BUD, Ill. (AP)—Most of the 2,000 residents of this town were evacuated Thursday for two hours when ammonia fumes from a broken line at a fertilizer plant spread through the area. Red Bud is 35 miles southeast of St. Louis.

"SABOTEURS" ACTIVE
LONDON (Reuters)—Fruit dealers arriving at London's strike-bound Covent Garden central market Friday found warehouses and trucks had been damaged by "saboteurs" during the night. A spokesman for the employers said the damage was done by men who hid in London and outlying districts. The strike was called to protest a new plan for handling supplies.
