WELCOME HOME.
O there's a warm welcome Awaiting the brave, Who risked their lives freely, Their country to save; Who stood at their post While the bullets did fly, Determined to conquer, To conquer or die.
The bright flags are waving, The city looks gay, For the heroes are coming, They're now on the way. We are anxiously waiting Again to behold Our true Island soldiers, Our heroes so bold.
Soon on their native land, Soon shall they greet Kindred so near, and dear— Ah! home is sweet. Welcome them royally, Beat, beat the drum Go forth to meet them, Yonder they come.
Mrs. A. R. Charlottetown.

TO COMPEL RESPECT.
The Ottawa Citizen remarks:— "Should the prohibitionists defeat Sir Wilfrid for his perfidy in the matter of their reform they will compel the respect of their enemies, and particularly of politicians on the look out for votes."
Yes, and that is the only way they can win the respect of anybody, even of themselves. That is just the argument of Mr. J. T. Bulmer's letter recently published in The Herald and several other leading papers, and it was quite unanswerable.—Halifax Herald.

For burns and scalds use Griffiths' Menthol Liniment. It takes out all pain instantly and produces that pleasant, cooling sensation. Always have a bottle handy.

PERSONAL.
This morning, Miss Maud Doiron, teacher in Queen Square School, received from South Africa an elegant ostrich feather, the gift of her cousin, Pte. Nevy Doiron.
We are pleased to learn that Dr. J. T. Jenkins will arrive home by the western express to-night. Doctor Jenkins has many friends in Prince Edward Island, and all will give him a hearty welcome.
Rev. John McInnis, of Halleck, Minn., arrived in Charlottetown last night. He will remain on the Island about three weeks. Mrs. McInnis has been in Charlottetown during the summer and autumn on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Coffin.
The passengers by the Princess today included Mr and Mrs A Lord, Judge Warburton, Mr Arthur Peters, M L A, Mr H V Palmer, Dr T Robbins, Mr J J O'Reilly, Mr Robert Small and many others who crossed to Pictou to meet the Islanders returning from South Africa. The Highland Brigade and Chief McLaren and Piper Ferguson crossed with the same object in view.

Kerosene Oil...
Kerosene oil is a burning question just now both with politicians and housekeepers. The former want to make political capital out of it, while the latter want to know where to get the best quality of oil for the least money. We have just received part of our fall stock direct by schooner from New York. It is called "PRATT'S ASTRAL" and is the highest grade of refined American Oil. We are now offering it for sale in four gallon tins for 22c per imperial gallon. Ask for Pratt's Astral, as there is no better Special low price by the cask.
