

BASKETBALL TEAM of '81-'82

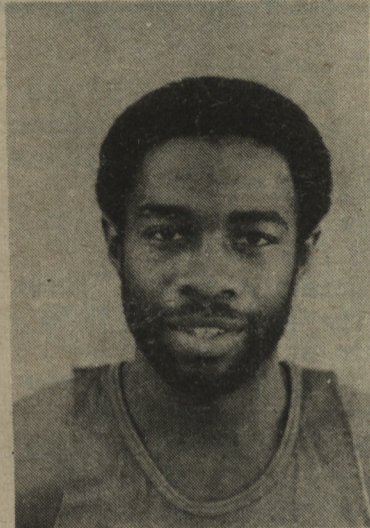

has been exciting to watch no exception. With the Nutbrown has accomplished, a very successful second the first semester, 0-3, they competed in a very played the Nation's top and lost a one point Dalhousie Tigers. The team have something very. The team is a symbol of and very refined

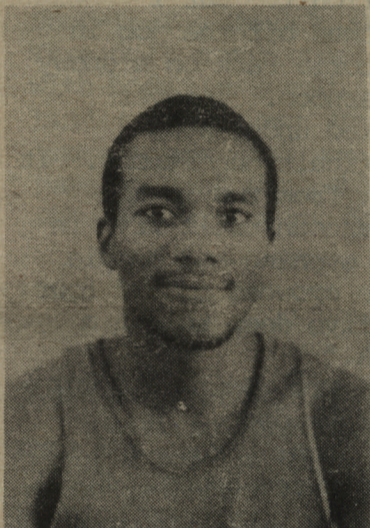

Panthers have regained Mond, Male Athlete, 1981. McLaughlin, and Guy glenear Christmas, Bill's put Nutbrown's team in

Bruce Campbell: A native from Moncton, New Brunswick, Bruce played his high school ball at Harrison Trimble High School. A 6'1", 170 pound ball player, Bruce is a senior arts student hoping to graduate and get rich quick. This 22 year old player, co-captain of the team, is regarded from the Boys from Boston as having a serious "J."

Aion Pettigrew: A 5'11" dude from Toronto, Ontario. Aion is a 21 year old, 165 lb. freshman who played his high school ball at George Harvey Secondary School. Aion's super quickness enables him to gain complete offense control on the court. Aion also has a surprising leaping ability for his size. A first year education major, Aion plans a career teaching physical education.

Andy Evelyn: The third tallest member of the squad, Andy comes to us from Scarborough, Ontario. Signing in at 6'4", 175 lbs., Andy's height is the strong characteristic which the Panther's need. A Freshman Arts and Science student, Andy's future plans are undecided.

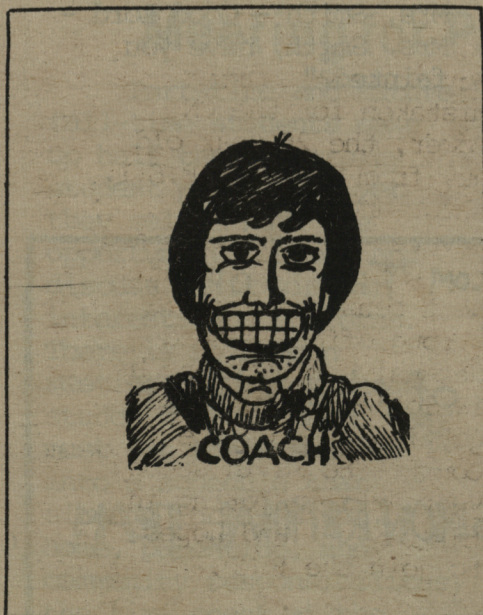

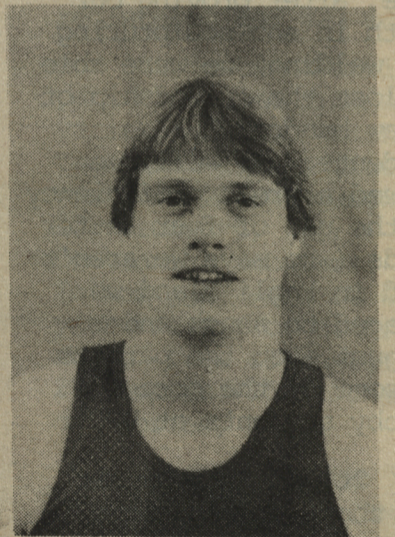

Ron Valentine: One of the three boys from Boston, Ron is a 6', 175 lb., 18 year old. He spent his time in high school playing for Boston English. Ron is a good jumper with outstanding leaping abilities. He's not yet a starter but Coach Nut-Brown says he's improving all the time. Ron is a first year history major hoping to become a disc jockey, musician, or photographer. Ron informs us he is a member of the "Boston Connection."

Tim McGarrigle: Last years Most Improved Player, Tim's home town is Sussex, N.B. The 6'1", 175 lb., player was a starter but came down with mono before Christmas. His excellent touch should make strong contributions when he gets back in shape. Tim, a second year education major, plans to teach.

Greg Thorne: This tall boy, 6'5", 195 lbs., from Titusville, N.B. is a freshman arts student. He is a good leader and plays a very strong defensive game. His future plans are to hopefully teach.

Coach Nutbrown: The coach of the Panthers last year, is probably league renowned for his quiet temperament on the court. Dave is from St. Stephen, N.B., where he coached the high school team. UPEI fans can be thankful the athletic department had Nutbrown for a full-time appointment; his dedication to the sport and fondness for the team prevails.
