

"CANADA'S WELCOME"—A MASQUE.

The History of Canada Allegorically Represented.

Their chorus being ended they moved off, and Canada re-entered and told her fears.

What means these sounds I hear on every side Through the dim woods? No brawny bear, No startled deer, or Indian tread is there.

Then did she hide behind a tree; and, to the sound of music, there entered a procession, emblematic of the history of Canada, having therein certain persons dressed in the costumes of those nations whose people have

From that great land which gave us rule and right, Whose guiding hand we held through gloom to light. Whose greatness, honor, friendships, fame we share, From England, England's daughter claims our care.

How shall we greet her? Sisters, say. Welcome! Welcome from heart and hand! Welcome, fair lady to our land. No stranger thou; no strange land this to thee;

From England comes, though seas our head-lands part, The kindly link that holds us to her heart; And Scotia's pride with England honor blends, And England—England honors him she sends.

How shall we greet him? Sisters, say. Welcome! Welcome, from heart and hand! Welcome, fair sir, to this land.

No stranger thou; no strange land this to thee; No stranger to our hearts henceforward be; Our royal sister from across the sea. Welcome! Welcome from heart and hand! Welcome! fair sir, to this our land!

Then did Canada turn to the representatives of the provinces and bid them give their greeting.

Sisters and Brothers By love and by vow, Ye that uphold This fair circlet of gold! That rests on my brow, Hither come, meet them, Welcome them, greet them, Say that you greet them, Say! say!

To which, with a mighty sweet harmony did they reply.

We should strew their path with roses, With roses white and red; We would set our fairest garlands Under foot and overhead;

For the year has slowly faded With the fading of the Fall, And our flowers too have faded, Leaves and flowers, one and all; And the land of Summer's favor Is the land of Winter's thrall.

Still, our hearts have never faded With the slender summer flowers; And the coldest chains of winter Cannot bind a love like ours, And the buds of true affection Still shall bloom in winter hours.

Then did one, representing Quebec, habited as one of the old French noblesse, having embroidered on her robes the fleurs de lys and lions of her escutcheon, and wearing on her head a mural crown, advance and sing.

I, Quebec, am come with greeting; With the grace of other days; Bringing to our happy meeting Quaint and curious bygone ways. Take me to your hearts, my sisters, Hold me dear and fair to see; For my past, through bloody vistas, Shows a famous history.

Visions of past years attend me, 'Neath the golden fleurs de lys; Forms no present time can lend me, Stately dame and grand marquis. Ghosts of noble heroes vanished, With salute of rusted steel, Din of cannon, long since vanished, Clink of spur on soldier's heel.

What is past is gone forever; Was there blood?—'twas bravely shed And your memories leave us never, Grim, and glorious, mighty dead. Welcome England's noble scions! In the language of romance:— Long may England's mighty lions Guard the fleurs de lys of France.

"THE ENAMORADO"

A DRAMA IN V. ACTS, BY HUNTER DUVAR. THE above interesting book is for sale at all the Bookstores on the Island. Col. Duvar is happy in having selected for the theme of his drama, one of the most romantic incidents of a romantic and soldierly time. The scene is laid in Spain, amid all the accessories of grave and gay, love and chivalry, poetry and song, with room for the display of many types of character,—knights and ladies, priests and soldiers, courtiers and peasants, cooks and clowns. Many lyrics in the author's best style are interspersed in the dialogue, which is, in general, quaint and sparkling. Price: Paper cover, 50 cents; in cloth, 75 cents. Summerside, Jan. 25, 1879—

CATARRH. Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy. T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:

DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long, I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different: the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered. Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
