Freetown and Vicinity

Mrs. Calvin Bishop of East Point recently visited in the village at the home of Mrs. Kussel Burns.

Mrs. Frank Deacon has returned from Red Rock, Ontario, where she had spent the summer months with her son, Dr. Allison Deacon and Mrs. Deacon.

Mrs. Elton Cairns received word recently of the serious illness of her brother-in-law, Mr. Frank Cowan of Brockton, Mass. Mrs. Cowan was formerly Beulah Burns of Lower Freetown. She and Mr. Cowan visited with relatives and friends in Freetown last year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Matheson and daughters Donna and Sandra of Bradalbane and Mrs. Matheson's mother, Mrs. John McKenna of Rose Valley, were recent visitors to Freetown where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edis-Dammareil.

Many from Freetown and vicinity attended the supper in Kensington on Thursday, Sept. 20th and stayed to take part in the street dancing where a most enjoyable evening was spent by all. Proceeds were in aid of community improvements.

Mrs. Brewer Auld and son Brewer left recently for Halifax, Nova Scotia, where they plan staying for the winter months. At the September meeting of the Birch Grove Women's Institute, Mrs. Auld was presented with a beautiful necklace as a parting gift from her sister members.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis have left for St. John, New Brunswick having been called there owing to the serious illness of their son-in-law, Mr. John Charlton. Mr. Charlton with his wife and daughter Janet, has made many visits to Freetown and friends here hope to hear of an early improvement in his condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Brown and sons, Sterling and Gordon, and daughter Betty, of East Southhampton, Nova Scotia, visited in the village a short time ago, with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Barlow Bird. Mr. Brown and Sterling are members of the Southampton Male Choir and Mr. Logan is also a member of the Southampton Male Quartette. The Choir and Quartette came over by chartered bus on September 2nd to sing at the 3 P. M. church service in the United Church at Wellington.

The September meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith of South Freetown. Quite a number of members were present also several visitors. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Wallace Reeves, the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Eldon Drummond and a very interesting programme was presented. After the business period a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Next meeting to be held at the home of Miss Rene Arbing—AB

The home of Mrs. Patrick Hamill, Lower Freetown, was the scene of a happy gathering recently, when a very large number of friends and relatives met to shower Mrs. Hamill's grand-daughter, Margaret Elaine, prior to her marriage on Sept. 12th to Mr. J. Plus Croken of Emerald. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the youthful bride as well as substantial sums of money. Excellent music was furnished for those who wished to dance and the remainder enjoyed a very pleasant social evening. A bounteous lunch was served by the hostesses and ladies present. All joined in extending good wishes to the bride and groom. Miss Hamill is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Redverse Hamill of Lower Freetown.

ANTARCTIC EXPLORER DIES

EAST ORANGE, N. J., Sept. 26 (AP)—Malcolm L. Douglas, Antarctic lecturer who accompanied Admiral Richard E. Byrd on his South Pole expedition, was found dead of carbon monoxide poisoning Saturday in his car in nearby Wallpack township and police listed the death as a suicide.

RAGWEED CAMPAIGN

FREDE/CTON, (CP) —Premier McNair announced Saturday a campaign to eliminate ragweed from New Brunswick and make the province a pollen-free area for hay fever sufferers. The eradication work will be a joint effort of the Departments of Public Works, Health and Social Services and Agriculture.

LONDON —(CP)—To catch a plane for New York, a passenger was rushed by automobile from one airport to another. He travelled 12 miles and took seat no. 12 on the plane which had been held 13 minutes waiting for his arrival.

Hampton and Vicinity

Miss Margaret MacQuarrie who is employed with the Travel Bureau, Charlottetown, spent the weekend at her home in Hampton.

Misses Joyce Ferguson and Ada Campbell were business visitors to Charlottetown on Saturday, Sept. 15th.

Mrs. James Ferguson left on Saturday, Sept. 22nd, to spend a few days with her friend, Mrs. William Hayes, Mount Edward Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle D. Leard, Central Bedouque, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. MacQuarrie.

Mr. Porter Bishop, Chipman, N. B., is spending a few weeks at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Farrow, Hampton.

Friends in Hampton of Mr. Harry Clark, Victoria, were sorry to learn that he has entered the Prince Edward Island Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. MacKenzie Dixon and infant son Kenneth Gordon, returned to their home in South Melville after a short visit with relatives in Millville.

Mr. John C. French left on Sunday, Sept. 16th, for a short visit with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Glover, Norboro.

Rev. and Mrs. L. S. Woolfrey and small son Frederick were visitors to Charlottetown on Saturday, Sept. 22nd.

Miss Kathleen Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, Desable, has left for Toronto, where she expects to spend the winter.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Hampton United Church held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Windsor Bell, South Melville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Inman, Hampton, and Mr. Chester Shaw, Desable, were among the large number in attendance at the MacDonald-Wright wedding in Centreville Church on Saturday, Sept. 22nd.

Congratulations are being extended to Mrs. W. A. MacQuarrie who will celebrate her 85th birthday on Sept. 29th. Mrs. MacQuarrie, who is well and busy, attended the baptism of her great-grand daughter, Pamela MacQuarrie, on Thursday, Sept. 20th.

Mr. Donald MacQuarrie arrived home on Saturday, Sept. 15th, after having spent the past two months in geological survey work in Newfoundland. Donald will resume his studies at King's College, Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Inman, Hampton, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Inman and son Paul, Charlottetown, left on Thursday, Sept. 20th, for a short motor tour through New Brunswick and along the Gaspe Coast. Enroute they will visit friends in Sussex and Campbellton, N. B.

Mr. Kaye Cameron, who has been employed in the Royal Bank of Canada, Charlottetown, left on Sunday, Sept. 16th by motor for Parrboro, N.S., where he has been transferred. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cameron, Charlottetown, and Mr. Mark and Miss Helen Cameron, Hampton, who returned on the evening ferry.

Sympathy is being extended to the daughters and relatives of the late Mr. Thomas Cameron who passed away at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lowther, Crapaud, on Sept. 8th, at the age of 91. Mr. Cameron lived most of his long life in Hampton where he was a prosperous farmer. After retirement he moved to Victoria and after the death of his wife, went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Eric Lowther, where he passed away.

Mrs. George Cannon entertained the Hampton Women's Institute on Monday evening, Sept. 17th. Roll call was answered by 17 members. One new member joined and four visitors were present. A strong protest against the increase in cost of electricity to rural districts was voiced and a resolution regarding this sent to the Utility Board. Plans were made for a dance and sale of lunches to be held soon. Two films were shown by Mr. Wilfred Rogerson which were much appreciated. After the singing of "God Save the King", lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge. AF
