Sport Echoes From Prince County

We have discovered that there is something wrong with the hockey rules. The brass hats of the hockey world will probably not make any additions or deletions to the rules because of this announcement but we feel better when we unburden ourselves of the great unassailable arguments that came to us now and then...

All of you have seen in hockey matches a big bruising player attack another player half his size and begin to pummel him with his fists. The little fellow, to prevent complete annihilation and to retain his self-respect, puts up his under-sized dukes and makes an attempt to trade punches with the bruiser. The referee separates them and what happens? In some cases, referees will give both of those boys five minutes for fighting. Sometimes a ref tags the fellow who started it five minutes and the other two.

The question is—what has the little fellow done, beyond showing the fans that he is not a complete party wailer? The only possible way he can avoid a penalty in a situation like this is to hide his head in his hands and try to crawl through a crack in the boards. If he attempted any such act he should then get a penalty for simulating our national winter sport. To attempt some sort of defence is the natural, manly thing to do, and does not rate a trip to the sin bin in our opinion.

Take the case of Phil Vitale and Pat Powers last Tuesday night for example. Maybe we've miscast Vitale a bit putting him in the role of the shrinking violet being attacked by Mr. Muscles, but in every other way the situation is the same. Powers jumped him from behind. He fought back naturally—and received a major which added to the major he deserved gave him an automatic 10 minute misconduct penalty. Will someone please tell me what Vitale should have done when Powers jumped him? Never mind. We'll answer that one ourselves.

When Mr. Vitale was crashed to the ice by Mr. Powers, he should have disentangled himself with as much dignity as possible, call his teammates into a conference, and then report to referee Bradshaw, branding Mr. Powers "an aggressor." Should Mr. Powers attack Mr. Vitale from behind a second time, then a second meeting of the Islanders should be convened when the imposition of sanctions could be discussed.

We're afraid the fans wouldn't like it that way. We know Phil Vitale wouldn't agree to it. If anyone attacks Phil from the rear or in front about all he can expect in the way of arbitration is to get busted in the schmozzle.

We'd like to offer congratulations to Neil MacDonald of Little Sands, the octogenarian who never misses a game of the "Big Four." We're proud to claim relationship (first cousin, once removed), with this veteran fan. Hockey must be in our blood, but when and if we reach eighty, we hope to see ours by means of television.

The "Island" line of the Horton Academy hockey team is doing pretty well. Horton beat Middleton 6 to 3, and Peter Pope got two goals. Mavnard Schurman two assists. Horton edged Kentville 3 to 1. Pope got two more goals. MacDonald a goal and an assist, and Schurman an assist.

Joe DiMaggio Signs With Yanks For $100,000

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—(AP)—New York Yankees Wednesday received their best piece of news since their World Series sweep of Philadelphia Phils last October: the signed contract of Joe DiMaggio, who will play this season for another $100,000.

As per custom, no salary figures were announced but general manager George Weiss said that the star centrefielder will earn as much as he made in each of the 1949 and 1950 seasons when his salary was a reported $100,000.

Weiss hoped that DiMaggio's signing would spur other Yankee regulars, who up to now have shown a reluctance to come into the fold. DiMaggio is only the fourth Yankee regular to sign for 1951.

Non-signers include such mainstays as Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer, Billy Johnson, Cliff Mages, Tommy Byrne, Vic Raschi and Joe Page.

The new contract continues DiMaggio as one of the two highest-paid players in the game. Ted Williams of Boston Red Sox is the only other player believed to be earning a salary of six figures.

The 36-year-old DiMaggio's current contract is for one year only and is a straight salary without any bonus clause.

Babe Ruth's largest one-year salary was $88,000. However, the Babe's take-home pay was much higher than DiMaggio's.

Ralph Kiner's $85,000 contract with Pittsburgh and Stan Musial's $80,000 pact with St. Louis Cardinals last year are the top figures in the National League.

DiMaggio, reached at his San Francisco home by telephone, said he was "very happy" over his new contract and added that he was in "wonderful" shape.

The Yankee Clipper in his 13th active season with the Yankees last year, finished with a .301 batting average after getting off to a horrible start. In the final two months of the season, Joe hit at a .373 clip.

He was among the leaders in home runs with 32 and runs batted in with 122. He collected 33 doubles, 10 triples and scored 114 runs.

GEORGETOWN SCHOOL GIRLS 4 MONTAGUE SCHOOL GIRLS 1

The Georgetown High School Girls Hockey team dished up a convincing 4-1 win over the visiting school girls team from Montague in the local rink on Saturday night. The game proved very interesting to a good attendance of fans, who witnessed the teams put on a good brand of hockey. Play was fast and at times quite rugged and future contests between those teams should provide plenty of thrills in all departments. Following a scoreless first period, each team potted a marker in the sandwich session. In the final stanza the local Amazons went all out and netted the twines for three pretty counters.

Billy Murphy was the referee, Charlie Martell was linesman.

Lineups:
Georgetown: Goal, Nellie King; defence, P. Johnson, P. Walker, D. Lairdy, I. Sampson; forwards, G. Fitzgerald, J. Martell, J. Sampson, A. Prosper, S. DeLory, J. Murphy.

Souris Wins Garrison League Game At Forum

In a rousing Garrison Hockey League contest played at Souris rink Wednesday night the Souris F. Troop (R.C.A.C.) squashed down the 21st Field Ambulance aggregation by a score of 9-4.

Banging home four goals without a reply in the opening session, Souris held a wide margin on the play, but were faced with stiffer opposition in the middle session when the R.C.A.M.C. boys outscored them 3-2 to hold the score at 7-3 at the end of that time.

Three more goals by Souris in the closing session, while the artillery pucksters the victory by a wide five-goal margin.

Forward E. Cahill of the Field Ambulance crew, suffered a broken collar bone in the first period after being checked into the boards during a rough session.
