BRAVES MAKE IT 6 STRAIGHT

White Sox Win Mound Duel 1-0; Cleveland Blanks Red Sox 5-0

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago's Jack Harshman hooked up in a double one-hit pitching battle with Baltimore's Connie Johnson and George Zuverink Thursday and won 1-0 as Nellie Fox pushed the White Sox run across with a first - inning double.

It was only the third win one-hitter since 1900 in the major leagues and gave Harshman, a 28-year - old southpaw who once played first base for the New York Giants, his fourth victory in eight decisions.

Early Wynn flipped his knuckler past Boston for a neat four-hitter as the Cleveland Indians won 5-0 and beat Tom Brewer for the first time since May 1, 1955, while junking his eight-game winning streak this year.

The only other AL game was a direct opposite, a 23-hit brawl that saw Kansas Ctiy belt Washington back into the cellar 15-6.

SIXTH FOR THE BRAVES

In the lone National League day game, first place Milwaukee won its sixth straight under new manager Fred Haney in a shattering 7-2 decision over the plunging Pittsburgh Pirates who now have lost six straight.

Johnson walked only three in his seven innings—but one was a game-opening pass to Jim Rivera who stole second, then raced home on Fox's double.

Harshman, who didn't become a pitcher until 1950, faced only 32 batters, striking out four and walking four. The only Oriole hit was Gus Triandos' seventh-inning double.

The Indians, who had lost to Brewer seven straight times, caught up with the 24-year-old pitchhander with four runs in the third on four singles, a walk and a wild pitch. Gene Woodling closed it out with a home run in the fourth. Brewer now is 9-2. Two of the hits off Wynn, now 7-4, were bunt singles by Jim Piersall. The victory gave the Tribe a sweep of the three-game set.

WHACK 15 HITS

The A's, who have won only seven of 26 at home, whacked the Senators for 15 hits, including two-run homers by Joe Demaestri and Gus Zernial. The Nats had homers from Karl Olson and Harmon Killebrew, who hit a grand-slammer.

Milwaukee rocked the Pirates with 13 hits, led by Del Rice, who had a triple, two doubles and a single in five trips, and Danny O'Connell, who had for RBIS with three hits in five trips. Bill Bruton homered and Hank Aaron and O'Connell also tripled.

BROOKLYN (AP)—Slump ridden Roy Campanella—who had hit only one home run in six weeks—drove in six runs with a pair Thursday night. The second homer tied the score as Brooklyn Dodgers scored four runs in the ninth with two out to batter the St. Louis Cardinals 9-8 and retain second place in the National League race.

Don Zimmer, subbing for shortstop Peewee Reese who was injured in the first inning, banged a single off the right field wall—his third hit of the night—to drive in the winning run.

Ironically, Campy had been demoted to eighth place in the Dodger batting order for Thursday night's game because of his puny .207 batting average.

Canadian Yacht Pickle 7th In Newport To Bermuda Race

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) The Canadian class A yacht Pickle crossed the finish line early Thursday to place seventh in its class in the biennial Newport, R.I.-Bermuda race.

The Pickle, out of Halifax, had an elapsed time of 82 hours, 17 minutes and 51 seconds and corrected, time of 77 hours, four minutes, 46 seconds.

Thursday Carleton Mitchell's class D yawl Finisterre out of Annapolis, Md., was declared the winner of the Bermuda Trophy for the best performance among 89 yachts entered in the 635-mile race.

Officials of the Royal Bermuda Yacht Club and the Cruising Club of America, sponsors of the race, still were checking the boats Thursday as they crossed the line after the roughest, stormiest passage in 20 years.

The committee corrected the finish time of two class B yachts, the White Lie, owned by Gilbert L. Wolfe, Mystic, Conn., and Fun, a sloop owned by Thomas H. Closs, Annapolis, Md. White Lie moved from 13th to second in the division, and Fun dropped from runnerup to tenth.

NINA WINS CLASS A

Class A title went to the New York schooner, Nina, owned by Decoursey Fales, while class B was taken by Carina, Richard S. Nye, Greenwich, Conn. Class C winner was Figaro, William T. Snaith, Westport, Conn.

Although strong winds and squalls brought down sails and rigging, Bolero, owned by Sven Salen, Stockholm, Sweden, broke the course record set in 1932 by Highland Light, from the U.S. Naval Academy.

A fleet of 89 yachts began the race from Newport last Satuday, and some of the slower craft may take many more hours to cross withdrawal of 33,500 troops from Head.

Frick Announces New Agreement With Minors

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball commissioner Ford Frick Thursday announced a new agreement with the four leagues of the Caribbean Confederation — Puerto Rico, Cuba, Venezuela and Panama—which is very similar to the pact under which they operated last winter.

Frick said there was a possibility of changes in the player limits of the leagues. Under the current agreement, no more than six major league players, including Caribbean-born players, are permitted to play with each Caribbean club.

These players must not have more than two years of big league experience and two must have had not more than 45 days big league experience in the majors. The Caribbean leagues want the rule changed to permit players with three years of big league experience.

Frick said leagues which have no agreements with organized baseball will not be permitted to use major league players next winter.

2 Americans Pay $600,000 For My Babu

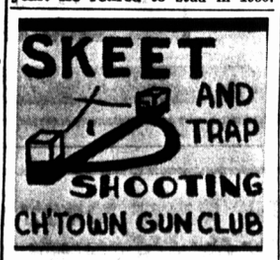
LONDON (AP) — Two American racehorse owners and breeders Thursday paid more than $600,000 for a year-old British sire My Babu, the Anglo-Irish Bloodstock Agency reported.

Frank More O'Farrall, chairman of the agency which acted as agents, said the buyers were John W. Hanes of New York and Leslie Combs II, of Spendthrift Farm, Lexington, Ky.

Combs headed the syndicate which bought the fabulous Nashua from the estate of William Woodward, Jr., for more than $1,250,000.

The Maharenee of Baroda was the owner of My Babu.

My Babu was the leading two-year-old of the 1947 British season and won the Two Thousand Guineas classic the following year. He retired to stud in 1950.



Shooting this week took place under mixed conditions but on the whole was generally good. Bad weather on shooting nights has prevented a great number of gunners from participating, but those who are shooting are finding the gunning both keen and competetive. A number of the newer gunners are showing a great deal of enthusiasm and are posting some very high scores.

Club president Glydon Willis will be leaving next week to represent the Ch'Town club at the Nova Scotia Championships being held at Dartmouth on Dominion day.

Following are the top scores posted this week.

FISHING RIGHTS

Sir, —In your Hunter's Corner of June 2nd Mr. Jenkins refers to a recent Game Act case which he prosecuted against me for fishing in a so-called private fishing pond at Bristol Lot 40. I was brought up before a magistrate charged with fishing in a private fishing pond and I had to defend myself in court. The real facts were that I was fishing from my own back yard, on my own land and in a pond that had been known as MacEwen's Mill Pond and which abutted my property. The charge against me was dismissed because the three Charlottetown gentlemen had not secured the approval of the Minister for their private pond for their own pleasure.

Hunter's Corner seems to think that the Charlottetown men should have the right to close me off from fishing on my own land and he has a lot to say of their rights. Incidentally he stated that under our property deed our holdings ended at the water's edge. This statement is not correct. He seems to overlook many of my rights.

I ask him to answer the following questions:

Have they the right to raise the water in MacEwen Pond, to flood my cellar and to cover at least 50 feet of my garden with water?

Have they the right to put a fence across my property and across the pond so that the young lads from Bristol would get their lines caught in it when they fished?

Have they the right to put brush over coils of wire in the pond near the railway bridge so that the same boys would get their lines caught in it?

Have they the right to change the course of the stream below the dam so that land in use is on the far side of the new stream and the owner not able to farm it?

Have they the right to dump an old bus on a neighbour's land when the sportsmen are through using it as a shelter when it will cost him at least $50.00 to move it away?

Have they the right in this free country to bar me from fishing in my own pond from my own land when they have no release of any kind from me to trespass on my land or to raise water to flood my land?

If the answers to these are in the affirmative and a Minister of the Crown will give his approval, then I say this is not Prince Edward Island, but communist Russia.

I am, Sir, etc.,
ROBERT N. Mac KINNON

Dale Long Tops Balloting

NEW YORK (AP)—Dale Long, Pittsburgh's slugging first baseman, qualified for the S. Rae Hickok award Thursday by winning the May competition in the "professional athlete of the year" balloting. Previous 1956 monthly winners were Bob Pettit, Eddie Arcaro, Paul Arizin and Jacki Burke.

If Archie Beats J. J. Parker, First "Title" Shot To Floyd

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Archie Moore said Thursday he will give Floyd Patterson "first shot" at the heavyweight title if he gains it through a match with James J. Parker in Toronto.

Moore, noting that he had been scheduled to meet the injured Patterson in an International Boxing Club bout to decide the heavyweight champion successor to retired Rocky Marciano, said: "I have as much right to fight Parker for the title as to fight anyone else for it.

"Floyd Patterson can have the first shot at my championship after I beat Parker."

An injury to Patterson's hand has held up the proposed Moore fight.

Moore, current light heavyweight champion who has long aspired to the heavyweight crown, said he will go to Toronto Tuesday to sign for the bout and return to train at nearby Lakeside.

Durelle Says He's Willing To Defend Title Against Wallace

MONCTON (CP)—Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., announced Thursday he would defend his Canadian light-heavyweight boxing title against Gordon Wallace of Brantford, Ont., in late July or early August.

Arriving by plane from London, Durelle said he would like to meet Wallace for both the Canadian and British Empire titles in a 15-round bout at the Stadium here.

Durelle, three-time winner over Wallace, still is displeased because Wallace and not himself fought Ron Barton of Britain for the title.

"I still think it should have been me," he said.

Wallace won the British Empire title Tuesday in London by beating Barton.

To lay both titles on the line the bout would have to have the sanction of the Canadian Boxing Federation and the British Boxing Board of Control.

WILL RETIRE AS CHAMP

Before meeting Wallace, however, Durelle has a bout lined up, probably for the end of this month, with Moses Ward of New York.

Durelle was annoyed over his loss to Arthur Howard of London on Tuesday.

"What do I have to do to win over there anyway," he pleaded.

A fishermen by trade, Durelle said "I'm going to meet Ward as a tune-up for Wallace and afterwards I will retire as the light-heavy champ of Canada and the British Empire."

"I'm not going back to England. They want me to fight Randy Turpin on July 23, but I told them I wasn't interested."

Leonard And Al Balding To Lead Off Canada Cup Matches

VIRGINIA WATER, England (AP)—A Canadian twosome—Al Balding of Toronto and Stan Leonard of Lachute, Que., and Vancouver—and an Egyptian team will lead off the Canada Cup golf matches Sunday.

Balding, who this year became first Canadian ever to win a major American golf tournament, and Leonard, who has earned nearly $6,000 on the U.S. golf circuit this season, will play with Egypt's Hassen Hassenine and Cherifi Said in the four-ball matches.

They will tee off at 12:30 p.m. and will be followed at 10-minute intervals by teams from 26 other countries.

The American team of Sam Snead and Ben Hogan will meet the English twosome of Harry Weetman and Ken Bousfield.

The 72-hole tournament is a team affair at stroke play with the lowest aggregate scores by men from the same nation determining the winning team.

John Jay Hopkins, millionaire industrialist from Washington who thinks getting foreigners together for a game of golf can solve most of the world's problems, pays the cheque for the Canada Cup.
