Where Quality Counts

Reading Room
House of Commons

There is hardly a department where honest quality means so much as in FURS

Of course there are plenty of cheap furs. You hear of them often—maybe see them sometimes.

Then there's a rarer variety.

Good Furs Cheap

That's the satisfactory kind and the only kind you will see HERE.

The furs we sell are satisfactory furs. They're honestly made of honest skins. They're made up by the most skilful and reliable furriers that we know of.

That they are correct in style goes without saying—they wouldn't be here if they weren't

Every article is carefully inspected before it leaves the factory and carefully inspected again before we put it into stock.

If it isn't honestly good we won't sell it, won't have it at all

We would like to show you how much goodness and style—your fur money can buy—will you give us a chance

RUSSIA EDGING TOWARDS INDIA

A Skirmish with Boers near the Orange River.

The Colonel of the Northumberland Fusiliers Killed—Reported Foundering of a British Transport—Censor has not allowed any other War news to be Forwarded.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A complete silence has again fallen upon affairs in South Africa. The British public must perforce be content with the brief stereotyped report which the censor will allow to filter through from Cape Town.

The troopship Bavarian left Queenstown last evening for the Cape, carrying the Connaught Rangers, 1st Battalion Royal Dublin Fusiliers, and a contingent of miscellaneous troops, altogether over 2000 men, and a large quantity of stores.

BERLIN, Nov. 11.—It is asserted that Major Von Reitzenstein, winner of the long-distance military ride from Berlin to Vienna, has gone to the Transvaal to join the Boers.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Orders for the mobilization of the necessary reserves for the supplementary division, announced by Lord Wolseley, were issued last evening. The men will join between Nov 12 and 20

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The War Office has received the following despatch from General Buller:—

Cape Town, Friday, 10 p. m. A reconnoitering party from the Orange River had a skirmish with the enemy to-day four miles east of Belmont. Col. Keith Falconer, of the Northumberland Fusiliers, was killed, and several officers wounded.

BREST, France, Nov. 11.—Rumors are in circulation that a British transport has foundered off the island of Ushant on the coast of Brittany.

HALFAX, Nov. 11.—A despatch from the War Office to Captain J. Taylor Wood, of this city, says his son, Lieut. C. C. Wood, of the North Lancashire regiment, was dangerously wounded in the head and chest in the skirmish near Belmont yesterday.

Lieutenant Wood is a graduate of the Kingston Military College, and is 23 years old. He has the distinction of being the first Canadian to shed blood in the present war.

SECOND EDITION.

DURBAN, Natal, Nov. 11.—A large force of men and guns have been landed here from the British first-class cruiser Terrible, and have started for the front.

PRETORIA, Nov. 11.—The bombardment and attack on Kimberly by the Boers started yesterday morning.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—It is officially announced that the troopship Yorkshires, Linsmore Castle and Aurania have arrived at Capetown with 3670 troops on board. The first two steamers immediately proceeded to Durban. It is supposed that the Aurania's troops will be landed at Cape Town.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 11.—Kimberly is said to be threatened with famine and the people of the place are reduced to eight ounces of food each per day.

GOVERNMENT POND

SIR.—Government Pond has not yet been flooded. We have had skating in November before now, and any of these evenings might bring the necessary frost. Perhaps when our Master of the Administration gets in his stock of skates he will have the pond gates opened and let the water in. It may be too late then, though!

JOHNNY SKATES.

THE QUARTER-BACK.

Scrags didn't look well. He was certainly off. The manager met him loafing on the campus and looking as blue as a thunder-cloud. "Look here," he said, "you've got to drop it."

"Drop what?" growled Snags. "If you're going to play on Saturday—and you've got to, mind you, you got to; the team would go to pieces without you—you'll have to stop this pink tea, young lady business."

"Don't talk nonsense," said Scrags, angrily. "I haven't been—"

"That's all right. I've seen fellows with your symptoms before. Just because a girl shows twelve teeth to some other fellow and only ten to you, or gives you some kind of a stand off, you start in to go off your feed, off your sleep, off your game, off condition. You're quarter-back on this team. Now, I'm going to tell you something I've never told you or anybody yet. When you're playing the game for what it's worth you make the best quarter-back I ever handled. That's right. There's no jolly about it. I'm confident that nothing in the country can touch you. Now, Scrags, old boy, drop it. Drop this girling business until after the season."

"You're out," said Scrags. "How?" asked the manager. "It's not that. It's Dyspepsia I've got." "What?" shouted the manager. "Dyspepsia! Why'n the devil didn't you tell me? Dyspepsia! Why I thought you were love-sick. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure Dyspepsia; but," he added facetiously, "there's no cure that I know of for the other."

LOCAL NOTICES.

Flow End Ties as popular as ever.—In the early part of the season a fair proportion of puffs and tecks were sold, but retailers have not disposed of them, particularly puffs have been slow sale, so that now the demand is largely for Imperials and English Squares. Batwing and other wide-end ties have been in greater demand than usual for this time of the year, which is owing to the high cut of waistcoats, and they will continue to sell all the season. Puffs are doing better to-day than two weeks ago. A puff is a winter scarf, and this shape will go better as the winter advances.

See our new mufflers.—Jas. Paton & Co.

Furs.—We make a specialty in ordering special garments for our customers. If in want of any kind of fur garments, give us your order and we will guarantee satisfaction—Weeks & Co., The People's Store

The first Methodist choir will meet for practice tonight in the basement at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Arthur Peters will preside over the tea and refreshment tables, and the very young ladies of St. Peter's congregation over the doll table in Kindergarten Hall on December 7th.

Every housekeeper will be interested in the samples of novelties of all kinds which Canadian and American manufacturers are sending to the bazaar to be held in the Kindergarten hall December 7th.

Call and see our new stock of fancy oak and mahogany-finished screens. Oak box and music racks. Prices right. See ad.—John Newson.

MEETING OF PARLIAMENT.

Tarte's Unpopularity Prevents an Election.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—It is settled that Parliament will meet either the last week in January or the first week in February. Any lingering idea that the Government had any notion of an appeal to the country this winter has been entirely dispelled by the events of the past month.

Mr. Tarte has developed into a veritable old man of the sea, and until the Government can do something to lessen the feeling existing in all parts of Canada against the Minister of Public Works there will be no appeal to the country.

BIG FIRE IN ST. JOHN.

$70,000 Property Destroyed.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

ST. JOHN, Nov. 11.—Last night a fire broke out in an old barn off Union Street, and before the fire apparatus arrived had been communicated to a big tannery of C. H. Peters & Sons. This was entirely destroyed with its contents, as well as the Peters homestead, occupied by Mr. John Peters, and another building alongside occupied by John Morisarty. The total value of the property destroyed is about $70,000. There is little insurance.

THE RUSSIANS ACTIVE.

Said to be Moving on the Afghan Frontier.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

BERLIN, Nov. 11.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger reports the report that the Russians are marching towards the Afghan frontier.
