FREETOWN W. L.
The June meeting of Birch Grove Women's Institute met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Truman Paynter with twenty members and three visitors present. The president, Mrs. Hubert McNeill was in charge of the meeting. The roll call was answered by the place of birth, and an interesting fact about the place. Reports of school committee and visiting committee were received and the treasurer reported $34.00 as proceeds of parties and afternoon teas held earlier in the year, also $34.00 as apron special. Correspondence received, was read and discussed. $10.00 was voted for the Manitoba relief fund, also a quilt is to be made and sent there. Plans were made for taking part in the programme at the district convention to be held in Bedeque, June 16th and delegates were appointed to attend. Plans were also made for improvement and repairs of Freetown Hall, and a sum of money was voted to help the expense. The programme consisted of a contest, "Know Your Island" put on by Mrs. Ralph R. Burns, an amusing reading, "Announcements by a Negro Preacher", by Mrs. Austin Scales, and "How many beans in the bottle" by Mrs. Basil Taylor. Visitors present gave reports from their institutes. The meeting closed with the National Anthem, after which lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by lunch committee. Next meeting to be at the home of Mrs. Austin Rogers.

Tyne Valley Notes

The Tyne Valley Women's Institute meeting was held at Ivan MacLean's on Tuesday evening June 6th.

The members of the Tyne Valley United Ladies Aid held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Horace Lidstone on Thursday, June 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Beattie and family were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Beattie's parents Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stewart.

Miss Phyllis Sharp who is employed in Halifax, Nova Scotia spent the week-end visiting her mother Mrs. Edna Sharp.

Miss Connie Sharp spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Sharp, East Bideford.

The members of the Tyne Valley Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Shrievie Millar on Thursday evening June 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmen MacNeil and small daughter Wendy of Halifax, Nova Scotia were visiting relatives in Tyne Valley over the week-end.

The friends Mr. Alfred Colwill are glad to see he has recovered sufficiently to return to his home after being a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

The many friends of Miss Emma MacArthur are glad to see that she has returned to her home in Tyne Valley after spending the winter months with her sister, Mrs. Archie Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan MacKay and Miss Millicent Stewart motored to Springhill, Nova Scotia last week-end. On their return they were accompanied by Mr. MacKay's parents who are spending a few days in Tyne Valley.

The sympathy of this community is extended to the family of Mrs. Alfred Phillips who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, O'Leary and was buried from the home of her son, Mr. W. G. Phillips, Arlington, on Sunday, June 4th.

Young Teacher Entertained Before Leaving For Japan

—On Friday evening a very large number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. George MacKay, Albany, to do honor to their niece, Miss Vodia MacKay, who is leaving shortly for Japan, where she will teach English in a junior college under the auspices of the Women's Mission Board of the United Church of Canada. Vodia, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacKay, Albany, completed three years work at Prince of Wales College, taught school for one year, and then entered Mount Allison University, graduating in May with her Bachelor of Arts degree. After all had assembled, an interesting program of games, contests, etc., was carried out under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Jones. Two vocal solos by Miss Deanna Bell, of DeSable and two piano solos by Master Arthur Callbeck, North Tryon, were very much enjoyed. At this point in the program the guest of honor was escorted to a prominent position by Mrs. Colin Waugh, a complimentary address was read by Miss Jean Boulter and a very substantial gift of money expressing the best wishes of her friends was presented by Miss Mabel Sherry. Vodia replied in a very pleasing manner, thanking her kind remembrance and for the very great pleasure in seeing them once more. After singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow", a general singing was enjoyed with Mr. Arthur MacKay at the piano. A bountiful lunch was served by a number of the ladies and the guests departed, each wishing Vodia "bon voyage" and a successful career in the Far East.

MREC Convention Held At Margate

The following officers were appointed for the coming year at a Sunday School convention held at Margate United Church Thursday, June 8th.
President, Robert Carruthers, Kensington.
Vice-president, Harry Linkletter, Linkletter Road.
Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. Colin Waugh, Wilmet Valley.
Executive: Geo. Mayne, Emerald, Lewis Cairns, Freetown, Harry Brown, Kensington, Wallace Bradshaw, Summerside, Murdoch MacLeod, Long River, Mrs. Kenneth MacLean, Lot 16, Mrs. Heath Mayhew, Margate, Mrs. Wendell Crozier, Hamilton, Mrs. William Ellis, Summerside, Mrs. Milton Melish, Summerside, Mrs. Wilbur Stavert, North Bedeque, Mrs. John Marchbank, Traveller's Rest, Mrs. J. C. Barrett, Belmont and all clergymen in the district.
The Margate Sunday School officers conducted the opening worship service at the afternoon session. Those taking part were Mr. Heath Mayhew, Mrs. Arthur Profit, Mrs. John Johnson and Miss Selma Johnson as organist. Mr. Carruthers, president, introduced Mr. Whitney Dalrymple, Boys' Work Secretary for the M. R. E. C. Mr. Dalrymple introduced briefly the theme of the convention, Ambassadors for Christ. During the business period the following nominating committee was named: Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Sharpe, Rev. Lewis Murray.
The Courtesy Committee was also appointed, Mr. Harry Brown, Mrs. Frank Deacon and Mrs. Lewis Cairns. During the roll call of schools, very encouraging reports were given by the various schools. Mr. Dalrymple then led a discussion on arrangement of churches for school groups. This proved very helpful and interesting. The afternoon session concluded with prayer by Rev. Mr. Murray.
The evening meeting opened with Robert Carruthers presiding. The worship service was arranged by the executive of the district. There was a choir in attendance. The program included two very fine duets by Mr. Andrew Johnson and Mr. Ernest Dunning. Mr. Dalrymple was introduced to the newcomers in the audience and then gave a review of the afternoon meeting and gave some information on the equipment and teaching aids that are available through the M. R. E. C. He also showed films which can be obtained for use in the Sunday Schools.
Rev. Lewis Murray then paid tribute to the Maritime Religious Education Council. He spoke in glowing terms of the work of the leaders, Mr. Ralph Young, Miss Ada Adams, Miss Marjorie MacBride, Mr. Dalrymple and others. Through vacation schools, leadership training schools, C. G. I. T. camps, a very important work is carried on by the M.R.E.C. Those present were given an opportunity to examine the many leaflets and books on display. After a few closing remarks by Mr. Dalrymple this very interesting convention was concluded with prayer by the leader.

Province for a couple of weeks, guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. O'Brien. He was accompanied by Monsignor Baker of Nanaimo, B.C., who spent a few days before leaving for his native Province of Quebec. Monsignor Baker was highly impressed by his first visit to the Garden of the Gulf. Needless to say, Msgr. Baker and Fr. O'Brien are receiving a warm welcome. The Reverend gentlemen are on the last lap of a journey which began in April and took them to Italy, France, Switzerland, England and Ireland.

Leading Riding Cultivator!

Easy Operating and Handling

The TURNER New 4 Cultivator combines extreme ease of operation with the widest possible range of adaptability to meet the requirements of row-crop cultivation. It always goes straight ahead, with no attention or guiding. With this freedom from continuous guiding, the operator does a better job and is less tired at the day's end.

This outstanding cultivator is easily handled on hilly or level ground. Slight pressure of the foot on either right or left treadle pivots the wheels (and axle) in the desired direction and shifts the gangs, edgewise, at the same time.

Easily mounted attachments are supplied for a complete cultivating job... Fertilizer, Disc Harrow and Scratcher. The Fertilizer attachment permits distributing of up to 1,000 lbs. of fertilizer per acre. Known the world over, the New 4 Cultivator is your best bet in riding cultivators. See it today!

After being out of production for the past two seasons, this CULTIVATOR is now available in limited quantities. To avoid disappointment, we urge you to book your order now from your distributor for the Maritimes.
