Heron-Coyle Vows Solemnized At Fort Augustus

St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, P.E.I., was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, October 19, when Margaret Helen, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Coyle, Dartmouth, N. S., became the bride of Louis Daniel Heron, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Heron, Webster's Corner, P.E.I. Rev. T. P. Butler performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial Mass.

The altar was decorated with baskets of gladioli and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows. Miss Eleanor MacDonald was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a strapless gown of lace and tulle over satin, topped by a short lace bolero fashioned with a scalloped edge. The sleeves were long, tapering to points over her hands. The gathered skirt featured an exquisite peplum of lace billowing out into a point over tulle. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion fell from a Juliet cap and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Austin McKenna, who wore a strapless gown of pink lace and tulle over taffeta with a lace bolero and headress to match. She carried a bouquet of mauve and white carnations.

The groomsmen were Mr. Ivan Heron, brother of the groom. Usher was Mr. Austin McKenna.

The mother of the bride chose a black dress with matching accessories and a fur neckpiece. Her corsage was of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a dress of Royal blue with blue accessories and a corsage of red roses.

A breakfast followed at the Queen Hotel where Rev. Butler proposed the toast to the bride.

For travelling on her wedding trip, Mrs. Heron wore a grey suit with aqua and black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

HONORED
A reception was held in Mr. and Mrs. Heron's honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Heron. The couple received many lovely gifts.

circumstances is to pull yourself together, where you are, and get psychiatric and spiritual help in coming out of the emotional bog which you call "love."

As for Zeke's jeopardy, there is no use trying to rescue him, until he is open to help and cooperative. And even then, he will pose a problem for specialists. He is too mixed-up, within himself, for you to reach or lift or guide him. M.H. Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write to her in care of this newspaper.

OBJECTIVE VIEW
As I see the picture, there are two problems here. One is your lack of personality, and terrified assumption of need to belong to Zeke or security. The other is Zeke's alcoholism and moral cussedness. Your primary duty in the cir-
