LETTER FROM MR. WALTER LOWE.

Sir,—I understand that Hon. D. A. McKinnon, and Mr. Irving, and the Leader of the Government, and their canvassers are circulating a report to the effect that the Government has settled with me regarding the Falconwood Asylum Annex, as some of the electors are justly indignant at the disgrace which has been cast upon our Province and the injury they have done to me by their action regarding the building of the asylum annex. In order that the electors may not be deceived by their false representations, I wish to state positively that neither the Government nor any person on its behalf has made any settlement with me regarding my contract. I offered the government to refer the matter to three disinterested arbitrators, or if they preferred a suit in court, I asked them to give me permission to sue. The Government have refused both.

About a year ago, I gave Mr. Donald Nicholson an order on the Government for $1,980 to settle an accommodation he gave me in the Bank of Nova Scotia for material I put on the Asylum ground. This was refused acceptance. Now the Government has paid the amount of the order with interest and costs incurred by Mr. Nicholson in trying to recover his money, amounting to about $300. The Government also admit that through their negligence and incompetency they have allowed 100,000 bricks placed on the asylum grounds by me to go to destruction, to say nothing about the other materials placed there by me, which have been allowed to rot and disappear. The destroyed bricks alone were worth $1,000; so that apart from all other material the government by its disgraceful action towards me have squandered the sum of $4,300 of the people's money in this one item for which they have no benefit.

I am satisfied that the remainder of my materials have suffered like depreciation, and the loss on other items will be fully as great as on this one.

I presume the electors are aware that I am not to blame for the stoppage of work on the Asylum Annex and loss to materials in connection with my contract. The Government refused from first to last to give me a written order to perform extra work, as my agreement with them required that I should receive before proceeding. The result has been that I have lost every dollar I invested in this transaction as well as all my property, real and personal, through the actions of a blundering and incompetent government.

I have always had faith in the sense of justice of my fellow-men, and I leave it to them now to say whether or not they will vote for men to support a Government which has deliberately robbed me, and refuses to give the simplest right which the humblest in the land is entitled to under British institutions, viz, a suit at law or arbitration, a right which was granted in a similar case a few days ago to the contractor for the Soulages Canal by His Excellency Lord Minto. This is not purely a business transaction, not political; and should be settled as such by business men of honor and integrity. I only want justice and nothing more.

WALTER LOWE.
Charlottetown, Nov. 20th, 1899.

A DIFFERENT CASE.

Sir,—Last night's Patriot seems to think that it is no worse for Sir Louis to be in Belfast and Murray Harbor campaign than for A. Martin, M. P. The two cases are not analogous at all. Sir Louis is being paid $7,000 per year, in addition to his sessional indemnity, to attend to the business of the Marine and Fisheries Department, and how can he attend to the duties that he is paid so handsomely for, and stump the Murray Harbor District at the same time? The Conservatives of Murray Harbor have no fear of Sir Louis if he would give up the $7,000 that is now so uselessly spent. They would have no objection to his stumping the district from now until the general election. But they decidedly object to paying Sir Louis or any other agitator $7,000 a year, out of the people's money for party purposes.

Mr. Martin, on the other hand, has no departmental duties to perform, and is quite free to spend his time wherever and however he sees fit. Besides, Mr. Martin does not call upon the taxpayers of this country to pay his travelling expenses and for suppers for his friends when he is on an election tour.

Sir Louis Davies should be told, if he does not know already, that he is the servant, not of the Liberal party alone but of the whole people, whose taxes go to pay his salary.

HELP NEEDED.

Sir,—At a meeting held at Murray Harbor South on the 16th ult., Mr. A. Peters, M. P. P. said: "Premier Farquharson is not a popular man,—I don't know why, but he is not a popular man,—and no one knows it better than himself, poor fellow. I support him not because he is any great friend of mine, but because he is a good Liberal and I am a good Liberal. But to give the devil his due, as the saying is, he is an economical man. For years the people have been crying out for an economical leader, and now we have got one." Mr. A. Peters is apparently not devotedly attached to Mr. Farquharson, and if Mr. Wise gets too wise for him and goes against him and if Mr. A. A. McLean and Mr. Prowse are elected—which is almost certain—Mr. Farquharson will be short of a band or two. Come again, Mr. Peters, the half has never yet been told.

ELECTOR.
Murray Harbor South, Nov 21st, 1899.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Chas. E. Stanfield, of Truro, N. S., is among the latest arrivals at the Queen Hotel.

Mr. W. N. Forbes, representing Stair, Son & Morrow, Halifax, is at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. Neil M. Quarrle, barrister-at-law, Summerside, is in the city. He is a guest at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. W. J. Farrand is here in the interests of the Canadian Drug Company. He is a guest at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. D. K. Currie, the well-known bookseller of Summerside, has recently extended his premises owing to his rapidly increasing business.

Lady Salisbury and Vice President Hobart, of the United States, are among those who have joined the great majority during the present week.

Rev. H. E. Gratz, Mr. Gratz and Mrs. Putnam, of Lower Onslow, are among the latest arrivals at the Queen Hotel. They are en route to Alberton, where Rev. Mr. Gratz is to be inducted pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The funeral of the late Sir William Dawson took place at Montreal on Tuesday and was very largely attended. The services were conducted by Bishop Bond, Rev. F. M. Dewey, the deceased's pastor, Rev. Principal McVicar, of the Presbyterian College, and Rev. Dr. Shaw, of the Methodist College. Mr. Dewey preaching a sermon on deceased's spiritual life. Interment took place at Mount Royal cemetery.

—If they would have it said, all over Canada, that the electors of Belfast and Murray Harbor prostituted their franchise, let them vote for Irving and McKinnon.

Local and Other Items.

THE DOUGLAS THOMAS.—The steam tug Douglas Thomas, arrived this morning to take the barge Grandee to Louisburg, C. B.

THE CACOUNA.—The steamer Cacouna left Montreal yesterday morning for Charlottetown, and will be due early on Saturday.

THE STANLEY.—The Stanley brought the Cape Tormentine buoy to Charlottetown last evening. It is said the steamer will be laid up in Georgetown for the winter.

ELLIOTT SAFE.—A telegram received yesterday from Jacksonville, states that the Elliott arrived here all well. She resumes her charters, and sails on Friday for the South.

THE HALIFAX'S LAST SAILING.—It is now thought that the Halifax will make her last trip from this port on the 5th December, sufficient freight being assured to permit of this late sailing.

MINING.—The shaft of the new colliery at Glace Bay is being sunk with great rapidity and in a very satisfactory manner. When the mine is in active operation, says a correspondent, it will employ 2,000 men.—St. John Sun.

NEW MONEY ORDER OFFICE.—The last supplement to the Postal Guide says that a money order office is opened at New Glasgow, Queen's Co., P. E. I. Private post cards must not exceed 6x3 1/2 inches.

THE BONAVISTA.—The Bonavista arrived from Montreal about six o'clock last evening, bringing a full cargo. She leaves on return via Sydney and St. John's, this afternoon. Her outward cargo included 2000 bags oats, 200 bags barley, 300 bags and 100 barrels vegetables, 30 cattle, 410 sheep, and 3 horses. On the trip down the Bonavista was detained by fog in the St. Lawrence.

AN INTERESTING CASE.—The Boston correspondent of the St. John Sun says: Willard H. Fraser, of Summerside, and Mary A. Fraser, formerly of the same place, have brought separate suits in the superior court here against the Home Savings Bank of Boston. Each claims the same fund, which is on deposit in the bank in the name of a deceased relative. The bank considers Willard H. Fraser's claim the better, and, upon its application to the court, Mr. Fraser has been made a party defendant. The case comes up December 3.

SOURIS SCHOOL.—An EXAMINER representative had the pleasure a few days ago of being shown through the new school at Souris. The building is in every way a credit to this bustling little town. It contains three rooms on the first floor and three on the second, all large, roomy and bright. Between two of the rooms on the second floor are sliding doors which allow of the two rooms being thrown into one, when examinations are being held or anything special is going on. It is the intention of the trustees to convert the whole third story into a large assembly hall at some future day. The building is heated with hot air. We were told that the school is making excellent progress. Mr. Howard Leslie is the principal, and Arthur Campbell, Miss McIntyre, Miss Dunphy and Miss Walsh have charge of the other rooms.

ECHOES FROM SOURIS.—Mr. John G. Scrimgeour has been in Souris for several days delivering fishing bounty checks.

We regret to learn that Captain W. H. Jackson has been confined to the house with a severe cold. Captain Jackson will probably be leaving shortly for his home in Boston and he will be very much missed in Souris. We understand that he intends taking with him some flour, ground from wheat grown this summer on his farm just outside Souris, to show his American friends.

A gentlemen's reading room, etc., has lately been started here and bids fair to be a grand success.

Mr. John O. Hyndman was here on Monday on insurance business. Mr. Alexander, an organizer for the Canadian Order of Foresters, is at present at the Cox Hotel on business in connection with that organization.

Rev. Mr. Prout, Mrs. Prout and child, of Grindstone, Magdalen Islands, who have been visiting the mainland, were passengers by the Lunenburg on Monday night returning home.
