Delightful Tea Hosted By Enthusiastic PVI Students

The table linen was snowy crisp, the silver tea services shone, the centerpiece arrangement of mums and daffodils was worthy of a professional florist, the tea was hot and freshly brewed and the food could only be described as luscious.

The hostesses? All 12 were teen-agers, Grade 10 economics students at the Provincial Vocational Institute, who entertained at the tea hour Friday afternoon. Guests were their mothers and a friend, wives of the Institute's administration staff, female members of the staff and schoolmates from the Institute's commercial class.

Guests were received by Marilyn Roper of Charlottetown and Claire Boates of O'Leary, and tea was poured by Darlene Whittlock, Helen MacDonald, Claire Daley and Paula Condon. Serving were Carol MacLaughlan, Marlene Birt, Anne MacEachern, Joyce Connolly, Jane Acorn and Nora Heald. In preparing for the tea, these girls demonstrated the skills they have learned throughout the year in the preparation of food and good nutrition, interior decorating and flower arranging personally development and grooming, home nursing and dressmaking.

Sewing is stressed in the course and the attractive outfits worn by the girls were their own creations. This portion of their studies includes instruction in careful fitting-of-garments, style sense and the study of textiles.

Mrs. Jack Cameron, instructor of the home economics department, is assisted by Mrs. Ambrose Weatherbie. It is the second year of a four year course for the girls, ending at the Junior matriculation level.

NOTICE OF HEARING

Proposal For Revision of Tolls

1. Notice of Public Hearing: Notice is hereby given that The St. Lawrence Seaway Authority will conduct a hearing on a proposed revision of the charges in the St. Lawrence Seaway Tariff of Tolls Schedule as established in 1959. The proposal is put forward by the Authority and the Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation of the United States of America following a study of estimated future traffic and a general review of the sufficiency of present tolls. The hearing will be held at the Supreme Court Building, Wellington Street, Ottawa, beginning at 10:00 a.m. on May 25, 1966, and continuing in daily session from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. (E.D.S.T.) until concluded, subject to being recessed from day to day or otherwise at the discretion of the Authority.

2. Subject Matter of Hearing: The subject of the hearing will be the rate of charges for transit of the Seaway. The Authority and the Corporation have agreed, for the purpose of the hearing, to propose a revision of charges, which will be subject thereafter to joint review to determine the extent to which the proposal will form the basis of recommendations to the Governments of Canada and of the United States of America. The proposed revisions would become effective at the opening of the 1967 navigation season for a period of 5 years and is as follows:

	Montreal to or from Lake Ontario	Lake Ontario to or from Lake Erie (Welland Canal)
(a) A charge per ton of cargo, as certified on ships' manifest or other documents, as follows:
(i) bulk cargo (restricted to listed commodities in lots of 100 tons or more)	.44	.02 (suspended)
(ii) general cargo	1.00	.05
(c) a charge per passenger	4.00	4.00
(d) subject to the preceding provisions of this item, minimum charges shall be:
(i) Pleasure Craft	1.00	24.00
(ii) Other Vessels	35.00	40.00

2. For partial transit of the Seaway: (a) Between Montreal and Lake Ontario, in either direction, 15 per cent per lock of the toll under item 1, with a charge of $3.00 per lock for pleasure craft transits and $5.00 per lock for the transit of other vessels. (b) Between Lake Ontario and Lake Erie (Welland Canal), in either direction, 50 per cent of the toll under item 1, provided that no toll will be assessed unless at least one lock is transited, with a minimum charge of $12.00 for pleasure craft transits and $20.00 for the transit of other vessels. No toll will be assessed for transits of Lock 1 of the Third Welland Canal at Port Dalhousie.

3. Welland Canal, lockage charge—applicable in lieu of Lake Ontario-Lake Erie charges per gross registered ton:

Vessel, per lock	1967	1968	1969	1970	1971
Cargo or Passenger	$ 20.	$ 40.	$ 60.	$ 80.	$ 100.

4. Presentation of Oral Testimony: Persons or organizations desiring to present oral testimony at the hearing shall submit their Notice of Appearance (in 0 legible copies) prior to May 15, 1966, to the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority, 396 Cooper Street, Ottawa 4, Ontario. (Attention: Secretary). The Notice of Appearance shall include the name and address of the party to be represented and of any person who will appear as a witness, an estimate of the time to be requested for oral presentation, and, if not accompanied by a written brief, it shall include a summary statement of the party's interest in the subject matter of the hearing and of his position to be taken.

5. Submission of Written Briefs: Persons or organizations who do not desire or will be unable to be heard orally may present views, data or argument on the subject matter of the hearing by filing written briefs (in 10 legible copies) with the Authority at Ottawa prior to May 25, 1966.

6. Supplementary Statements: Within 10 days after the close of the hearing, supplementary statements or arguments may be filed (in 10 legible copies) with the Authority.

7. Hearing Transcript: A transcript of the hearing will be made for the use of the Authority. Copies of the transcript and of written briefs will be available for sale to interested parties.

Many Orders Discussed At Annual Meet Of IODE

Wanda Wyatt of Summerside speaking on the work of the Order in the province. Miss Wyatt pointed out that the seven Island chapters had raised $4410.69 in 1964-65 and $4554.84 in 1965-66 for a total of almost $9,000 in the two years. She added that this money was spent on services and education and was certainly a worthwhile contribution to the community.

Miss Wyatt's address was given Saturday evening at a dinner held at the close of the day-long meeting. Guests at the dinner included Mrs. W. J. MacDonald, wife of the Lt. Governor who was unable to attend and Premier Walter R. Shaw and Mrs. Shaw.

Premier Shaw in his remarks said that he was much aware of the work being done by the IODE throughout the province and he said that the organization had managed to keep vital and strong in an age when so many organizations were in difficulty. He spoke also of the importance of making organizations challenging enough to bridge the gap between young and old so that new young members would be ready when the time came to take over.

A highlight of the dinner Saturday was the presentation of the annual chapter scrapbook award to the Abewick Chapter of Summerside. Premier Shaw made the presentation to Mrs. Eric MacKay, who accepted for the chapter's regent, Mrs. Claude Ives. The judges for the year were Mrs. Arthur Love, Mrs. W. R. Brennan, and Mrs. M. R. Pope.

During the evening two solos were sung by Mrs. D. K. Mac-
