

Would "extra" money make your summer vacation "extra" special? Then here's how to get it: make up a list of articles around your home which you no longer need. Outgrown children's playthings, for instance, or perhaps that old washing machine, an idle bike, sports equipment, or just about anything that others can use. Next, Dial 8506 and describe what you have to offer in a fast acting Guardian-Patriot Want Ad! P. E. I. folks are always on the lookout for second-hand articles in good condition. And because the Guardian - Patriot carries many of these in Want Ads they turn to its classified columns to fill their needs. If you have what they are after, they'll make quick contact and offer cash. No get busy now rounding up articles around the cellar and attic which you no longer need and offer them to thousands in these widely read columns. Here you'll reach many many local prospects

IN MEMORIAM

HORNE - In fond and loving memory of my dear sister, Mrs. Parker A. Horne who departed this life August 20th, 1957 at Richmond, Maine. Lovingly remembered by Rita McFarlane.

JOHNSTON - In loving memory of William J. Johnston, who passed away August 19th, 1952. A silent thought, a secret tear, keeps the memory ever near. Time takes away the edge of grief, But memory turns back every leaf. Sadly missed by wife and family.

ADAMS - In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Ella Maude Adams, who passed away August 19, 1956. We do not forget her, we love her too dearly. For her memory to fade from our lives like a dream. Our lips need not speak when our hearts mourn sincerely. For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen. Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by husband William and daughter Gladys, son-in-law, Oscar.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Handrahan Tignish, wishes to thank the Drs. and Sisters of the Western Hospital, Drs. and Nurses of the Prince County Hospital. All friends and kind neighbors who were so helpful in their recent sad bereavement.
