REV. DR. YOUNG

Guest Speaker At Summerside Church Yesterday

Rev. Dr. Samuel Young of Kansas City, general superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, delivered an inspirational message at a dinner meeting of the Brotherhood of the Summerside Church of the Nazarene held last evening at the Summerlea Restaurant and presided over by Mr. George Key, Sr., president.

Rev. D. R. Morrison, minister of the Summerside Church of the Nazarene welcomed the thirty-nine members and guests who were present and introduced the dignitaries seated at the head table, including E. H. Strong, Rev. J. H. MacGregor, district superintendent, Church of the Nazarene, Dr. Young and Mayor W.A. Currie.

Mayor Currie extended a cordial civic welcome to the gathering, many of whom are delegates to the Maritime Assembly of the Nazarene Church which is being held in Summerside this week.

Dr. Young's inspiring address centred on the theme "You can be a Christian anywhere" during which he related experiences of personal contacts with newly converted Christians in economically depressed parts of the world, during his travels as general superintendent of the church and of the "genius of the gospel in that it fits al walks of life; it can meet all men everywhere," he stated. But he continued, the Church is always in danger of losing its redemptive spirit and becoming something of a high class club.

Dr. Young said "I don't know anybody who needs religion more than men do," and stated that most of the inmates of jails are men and that probably the same applies to asylums.

The guest speaker said "You can be a Christian if you want to be," and he concluded with the words" when you Live the good and live the happy life, you'll follow Him."
