Shanty Fishing For Smelts Underway

One of Summerside's secondary industries, shanty smelt fishing, got under way on the harbor yesterday when several enterprising plovers moved their tarpaper covered houses out on the ice, rather thin ice. As the ice in the harbor thickens, however, more and more of these houses will dot the harbor and Bedeque Bay and by spring a hundred or more will have congregated and formed the annual shanty town industry.
Many of those who haul these temporary abodes to the harbor do so with a view of making some extra money during the winter months but many more do so merely for the sport and pastime. Among the latter are prominent business and professional men, who find that shanty town is an ideal escape route from the cares of business or mayhap a good place to retreat to when the little woman entertains her afternoon bridge club.—S

S'side Rinks Ready For Use

The weather man has provided ice in Summerside at last and winter sports will now be able to commence. The Crystal Rink will be open for skating on Saturday afternoon and evening and on Tuesday the first hockey match of the season will take place between the Crystals and the R. C. A. F.
The Kinsmen outdoor rink opened last night with a fair sheet of ice which should be better today as last night's skating would smooth off the rough spots. It is planned to have benefit skates to night (Friday) and again tomorrow night. This is a means to raise some money to help defray the expenses of operation.
The rink will be in operation every day that the weather permits from now on with free skating and hockey periods for the children in the afternoon.—S

Oil Truck Driver Has Close Call

Mr. Erskine Waite, driver for the Imperial Oil Company, Summerside, had a "narrow" escape from death or at least serious injury on Wednesday when his truck was crashed by a C. N. R. shunter at the Harvard Street crossing.
The accident occurred about noon and according to information received Mr. Waite had proceeded to allow the shunter to proceed east. Officials of the Imperial Oil state that he had then received the "go ahead" signal from the trainmen and as he was crossing over the shunter started backing and crashed his vehicle, pushing it down the tracks some forty feet.
Mr. Eric Sheen, manager of the Imperial Oil Co., Summerside, and Mr. Jack Nesbit of the Irving Oil Company, who witnessed the accident, succeeded in breaking open the door of the truck and getting the driver clear. Although he had received no serious injury he suffered from shock and bruises.
The truck was loaded with one thousand gallons of furnace oil, two thirds of which was lost when the truck rolled over on the side of the track. Although Imperial Oil officials would not estimate the damage it is believed to be about $6500 as the truck is a "complete write off"—S

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X E
L O N G F E L L O W
One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation
V B B Y X W M S U K X U D S E W L H V A Z K
G Z K V G Y S H S U D S E W L — M B B Q
Yesterday's Cryptogram: NOT ALWAYS RIGHT IN ALL MEN'S EYES, BUT FAITHFUL TO THE LIGHT WITHIN—HOLMES.
