CHAPTER XVII.

'I have heard,' said the colonel, 'that the name which your house still keeps...

'I have no doubt,' said Philip Stanburn, 'of the accuracy of tradition in this instance...

As the two men looked together on the stone from which their race had taken its name centuries ago...

Colonel Stanburn, though really, as we have said, quite as timid as Philip, had a certain amount of swagger in his manner...

Philip Stanburn's establishment was a very small one, and the men were always out in the woods...

When Philip rang his bell it was Mrs. Sutcliffe who answered in person. She had a theory that the kitchen girl ought to be kept out of Philip's way...

'Well, hang it,' said Philip, 'give us ham and eggs.' 'The ham's just finished, sir, but I darsay I may find some fresh eggs.'

'Such conversations with Mrs. Sutcliffe were of frequent occurrence when Philip was alone, and then they seemed natural enough...

'Well, then, give us some cold mutton. There's sure to be some cold mutton - we killed a sheep only last week.'

'Mrs. Sutcliffe disappeared, and returned after an absence of a few minutes. Please sir, there is no cold mutton - only a few bones, sir, that I meant to make some soup of for the dinner, sir, and then she added, 'I'd intended to kill a fowl for your dinner, sir, but it cannot be got ready all at once.'

'Well, hang it,' said Philip, 'give us ham and eggs.' 'The ham's just finished, sir, but I darsay I may find some fresh eggs.'

To the Electors of Queen's Co.

GENTLEMEN - You will soon be called upon to elect a Representative to fill the vacant seat in the Dominion House of Commons, caused by the acceptance by your late member, the Hon. David Laird...

When Mr. Laird and his associates agreed to support Mr. Mackenzie, it was on the distinct understanding that Prince Edward Island should have a seat in the Cabinet...

In this our people have been most unfairly treated. If returned I will endeavor to re-establish that legitimate influence in the Councils of the Dominion...

You will hear much about Free Trade versus Protection. I am a Free Trader on the broad principle, and will render my best assistance in endeavoring to establish the reciprocal Free Trade with the United States...

Our Island Railway has not been productive of that general benefit to us which I intended it should be. This in my opinion, is entirely owing to its present management...

I claim for this Province a fair participation in the proceeds of the public lands for the opening up of more extended communication with such portions of the colony as are now destitute of the necessary facilities for the development of their resources...

I have the honor to be, Your Obedt. Servt. JAMES C. POPE. October 30, 1876.

To the Electors of Queen's Co. GENTLEMEN - The appointment of the Hon. David Laird as the Lieutenant Governor of the North-West Territories...

The general policy of the McKenzie Administration, based, as I believe it to be, upon principles of honesty and justice meets with my cordial approval. I recognize in that policy a determination to govern this great Dominion on sound political and constitutional principles...

I am a free trader, and I am glad to know that free trade is a plank of the McKenzie platform. To us in these Maritime Provinces the scheme of Protection cautiously advanced by John A. Macdonald during the last session of the House of Commons, and now so earnestly advocated by him in his public speeches, is merely a scheme to take a certain amount of money from the pockets of the farmers and other consumers, and hand it over to the manufacturers...

It is unjust in the extreme, and will bear with peculiar hardship upon the people of this country. Mr. A. Macdonald calls this Protective Policy a "live issue," and urges his friends to rally round him in support of it. We free traders of this Maritime Provinces must also regard the importance of this live question, and be prepared to meet it. Our merchants and traders find it hard enough to pay the present high tariff rates. If our present tariff is increased into a Protective one, it will mean simply so much extra taxation placed upon our farmers, not to carry on the Government of the country or develop its resources, but to enrich a few influential manufacturers...

While, however, I agree with the general policy of the government on these great questions I am not satisfied to give that government the support, I shall content most strenuously and do all in my power to obtain for our Island that which I believe to be its rights, viz.: a representation in the Cabinet. I believe this will be more easily and ratably attained by a firm and dignified stand being taken by our representatives than by a childish declaration that we will unconditionally oppose any government that will not concede the demand.

I am also strongly opposed to any interference by the Dominion Government or House of Commons with the question of Education; and we justly feel compelled to remember that the famous Section XI of the North-West Act was not introduced into the Bill by the Government, but was an amendment annexed to the bill by the House of Commons, still I cannot, however, absolve the Government from all blame. I shall oppose, if elected by you, any such interference or legislation in the future, and shall insist on the Constitution of our country which gives which the local legislature exclusive right to legislate on the important question of education be preserved intact in spirit as well as in letter.

I shall do all in my power to obtain our just rights in the distribution of government patronage and public moneys, and shall speak and vote in the government of the great importance of carrying on in a liberal spirit, the improvement of our harbors by dredging and breakwaters; but I will resist the encroachment of the Dominion Government on the rights of the County by the sale of lands from the General Government grants in aid of local objects only, and with which both you and I know the General Government have nothing to do.

I am, gentlemen, Your obedient servant, WILLIAM WELSH. Charlotte town, Oct. 30, 1876.

CARDIGAN BRANCH OF THE NONPAREIL CARRIAGE FACTRY AND AGRICULTURAL WORKS! Good Work Triumphant!

NOTWITHSTANDING the Dull Times, the demand for my make of Carriages, Sleighs, Threshing Machines, Faners, &c., in this Country, has rendered it necessary, in order to supply the rapidly increasing demand, that I should extend my business into that Country. I have, therefore, at the request of a large number of my friends and patrons, opened a BRANCH FACTORY AT CARDIGAN BRIDGE, which is conducted by a competent mechanic, who served his time in the "Nonpareil," and has since worked for several years in the United States - a mechanic who knows his business, and has such an interest in the work as to allow nothing but a faithful job to pass. He and several competent workmen will attend to the wants of the public in that Country.

The stock used in the construction of the work will be of the best material, viz.: American Hickory, Oak, Ash, Elm, Bass, the best English refined; and Norway and Swedish iron, which will be used for the quiring extra strength and durability. Also, in connection with the said branch is a PAINTSHOP, which is conducted by a first-class carriage-painter, who will attend to the painting of new and second-hand work for the public.

N. B. - Persons wishing work done in the Carriage, Sleigh, or Farming Implement line, will please call, and they will be treated courteously and fairly dealt with. All kinds of REPAIRING, including Mowing Machines, done. Prices Moderate; Terms Cash.
