

THE DAILY EXAMINER. DECEMBER 12, 1889.

The Future of Canada.

COMMENTING upon an article in the Quarterly Review, by the Rev. William Harrison, lately of Upper Prince Street Church, in this city, the St. John Sun says:

"The first assumption of Mr. Harrison and of many writers on the subject, that the present relations of this Dominion cannot long remain as they are, is one which ought not to be taken as conceded in any wide sense by all parties. The practical statesmen who are more concerned than most people in watching the tendencies and opinions of the time, do not appear to regard a radical change of relationship as either necessary or imminent. From the conquest of the country until now changes of constitution which involved to some extent our relations with the Mother Country, have been called for and brought about. There are no indications of a greater disturbance in colonial relation than is implied in a continuance of the process of development which has been going on during the last half century."

Horse Notes.

Among the work horses at the Palo Alto farm in California is the Gelding Norway, that is by Gen. Benton and out of Norma, the dam of Norval, that made a record of 2.19 1/2 last summer. Gen. Benton was never a favorite with Senator Stanford.

Among the many wild-eyed stories that are going the rounds relative to the offers by rich people of fabulous prices for trotting stallions is one relative to Sunolo, a full brotner to Sunol, the filly whose mile in 2.10 1/2 has brought her to the front. The correspondent of an exchange solemnly asserts that not long ago the owner of Sunolo was approached by a "wealthy man who meant business," and that he priced him to this individual, naming as his price the neat sum of $100,000 cash. It is evident from this that the owner of Sunolo also means business. One hundred thousand dollars for a horse that has not shown any speed at the trot is a pretty fair price, even if the animal is the full brother of a phenomenon. Still, it doesn't cost a man anything to price a horse to another at $100,000. It would have been just as easy to have made the sum $1,000,000.

Near Hamilton, North Carolina; a few days ago, a three-year-old child of James Sherrod was in a yard where there was a colt. The colt caught the child by the back and ran off with it. The frightened father could do nothing but wait for the colt to release its hold on the child, but the colt continued to run. An attempt to shoot the colt might result in killing the child. Finally the colt jumped a ditch, when he dropped the child in the ditch. When Sherrod reached the child it was dead.

Obituary.

The residents of Little Pond mourn the loss of Mr. John Lawless, who passed away on the 7th inst., the result of an injury received a week before. While walking along the road on a dark and somewhat stormy night, he was accidentally run down by a carriage, receiving injuries which resulted in death. He leaves a widow and seven children to mourn the loss of a loving husband and kind parent. Deceased was an industrious and economical farmer, an inoffensive neighbor, and a man who was esteemed by all with whom he came in contact. May his soul rest in peace.—Com. [Herald please copy.]

The Morning Post, of Tuesday, says: England, as the holder of widely extended possessions on the American continent, should not ignore America's naval activity. The appearance of a United States squadron of new ships in European waters will be observed with much interest.

Gilbert and Sullivan's new opera, "The Gondoliers," was produced on the 8th inst., at the Savoy Theatre, London. The opera is lighter and "catchier" than "The Yeoman of the Guard." Gilbert's story is not the most ingenious he has written, but it is always droll and laughter-moving. Sullivan, also, has returned to his earlier and simpler style of composition.

One of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N. S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, for the past two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than and of her preparation of the kind I have ever used." Sold by all druggists, 50 cents and $1.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

The Epidemic Spreading.

PARIS, Dec. 11. The influenza epidemic in this city is spreading. The medical report of the prevalent epidemic shows 670 cases among the employees of the great dry goods store of Megevine du Louvre. These are cases of simple benign influenza which ordinarily last about four days. Complications arise in some cases which make it more serious. In other large stores it prevails to an extent equal to Louvre's. No special preventative is called for, but there is no cause for uneasiness.

Two Deputations.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11. A Toronto deputation waited upon the Minister of Customs and asked that the materials used in the manufacture of umbrellas be placed upon the free list.

A large deputation of Montreal ship-owners waited upon the Government to-day, and asked that money be granted at the coming session to take a new nautical survey of the gulf and river St. Lawrence, and that steps be taken to obtain reliable observation of tide and current.

Another Strike.

TACOMA, Dec. 11. There is a strike on the Cascade Division of the Northern Pacific Railway. No freight can pass. The entire traffic from Helena to Tacoma is practically suspended. The Company required the freight conductors to give bonds for the faithful performance of their duties. The conductors refused and the brakemen and switchmen combined with them to settle long standing grievances regarding wages.

Progressing Well.

LONDON, Dec. 11. The manager of the National Bank of Brazil, referring to the adverse English comments regarding the stability of the Republic, telegraphs that the comments are groundless. He says complete tranquility prevails throughout the country, and the people have entire confidence in the Government. Everything is progressing well.

The Poisoned Candy Case.

ST. JOHN, Dec. 11. Good progress was made in the McDonald trial to-day. H. W. Barker was on the stand at adjournment. The only new feature so far in his evidence was a description of the finding of the combs which were in the boxes in which the poisoned candy had been sent.

In the Toils.

LONDON, Dec. 11. Two men, named Turner and Clark, were arrested to-day on a charge of forgery and uttering Chilian and Alabama bonds. The arrests were made in connection with the steal of £22,000 from Baring Bros. & Co., in 1883.

A Strike Imminent.

LONDON, Dec. 11. The negotiations entered upon in the hope of preventing a general strike of gas workers, has failed, and a strike is now imminent, which may put all London which depends upon gas in total darkness.

Snowstorm.

COLOGNE, Dec. 11. There has been a great snow-storm throughout all Central Germany. On all the Thuringian railways, as well as on all the Rhine Province railways, travel is suspended.

After Divorce.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—10 a. m. Strong winds and gales, shifting to north-west and west; rain or sleet, followed by clearing weather.

Advice to Advertisers.

Read the following plans for advertising and then don't do it that way: Have your card in the hotel register by all means. Strangers stopping at a hotel for a night generally buy a cigar or two before they leave town.

Print in the blackest ink a great sprawling card on all wrapping paper. Ladies returning from a shopping tour like to be walking bulletins, and if the ink rubs off and spoils some of their finery no matter.

If an advertising canvasser wants your business advertised in a fancy frame at the depot, pay him about two hundred per cent. more than it is worth, and let him put it up in there. When a man has three-quarters of a second in which to catch a train he invariably stops to read depot advertisements.

Don't fail to advertise in every circus programme. It will help the circus to pay its bills.

A boy with a big placard on a pole is an interesting object on the streets, and lends a dignified air to your establishment.

Advertise in a calendar. People never look at a calendar to see what day it is. They merely glance hurriedly at it so as to be sure that your name is spelled without a "p."

News Notes.

A blizzard at Presburg, Hungary on Monday resulted in the loss of nine lives.

An English syndicate has purchased $6,000 acres of coal and mineral land in Marion County, Tenn., for $22,012,500, and will build a town.

The German postal list for 1890 will show that 9,750 newspapers are printed in Germany, 2,781 of which are printed in 30 other languages, and 6,978 in German.

Cotton grown in Egypt is regarded with great favor in Manchester, and it is said is likely to have a disastrous effect on the cotton trade of the United States.

The Toronto Mail's reference to "the scriptural injunction that cleanliness is next to godliness" may serve to create the impression that our contemporary is not so thoroughly versed in scripture as it professes to be.

The Czar, it is said, is going to abolish banishment to Siberia, largely because of Mr. George Kennan's famous letters in the Century Magazine. The New York Times recently complained that the Czar had excluded that excellent daily from Russia, and thereby deprived it of its Russian subscription list. From which fact it may be inferred that American journalism has been having a disturbing influence upon Russian affairs.

Personal.

Mr. A. A. Bartlett, of Charlottetown, was registered at the Royal Hotel, St. John, on the 9th.

Mr. Joseph Pope is still, and will for some time continue to act as private secretary to the Premier.

A despatch from Adelaide, Australia, reports that Henry Searle, the champion single sculler is dead.

Emperor William, it is said, left Constantinople truly convinced that the Sultan is practically insane. As his Sublime Majesty spent $750,000 in entertaining his visitors the Emperor has evidently good grounds for his belief.

Mr. Gladstone thinks that Beethoven is the greatest composer; that the best woman singers are those who are healthy, strong and inclined to obesity; that 20 per cent. of the London opera-goers care only for the singers, and take little interest in the works which are represented; that the pure fresh voice of a boy chorister is more pleasing and effecting than the voice of any female soprano.

The Emperor William of Germany has telegraphed his congratulations to Emin Pasha and H. M. Stanley, both of whom have replied expressing their gratitude for attentions received from his Imperial Majesty and from Germans wherever met.

V. A. Landry, proprietor of L'Evangeline, has removed that paper to Weymouth. Since he started two years ago it has been published at the Courier office, Digby. Mr. Landry, having also become proprietor of the Weymouth Times, both papers will be issued from the same office, and under his immediate supervision.

The new Chief Justice of Ireland is Mr. Peter O'Brien, late Attorney-General for that country. He may make an excellent Judge, but his appointment will not tend to conciliate the Irish people, among whom Mr. O'Brien is known as "Peter the Backer," from his zeal in securing convictions.

William K. Vanderbilt, who, the New York Sun says, has somehow been classed by the public as the head of the Vanderbilt family, though his brother is a more important financial figure, looks almost like a boy. He moves about town briskly and amiably, and his popularity among people of all sorts is very great. There is none of the ostentation about him that marks the height of his fortune. He is of medium height, ruddy-cheeked, bright-eyed, and has an endless fund of good humor. This characteristic came from the old Commodore and not from William H.
