He declined to say for what specific purpose the films were made.

Quebec Gov't Will Show Visit Film

LA DOMAINE, Que. (CP)—Lionel Bertrand, minister of tourism, fish and game, said here the Quebec government will show a "special film" of the Queen's Quebec City visit at a press conference Tuesday.

Mr. Bertrand did not elaborate on the subject in a speech to the outdoor writers of Canada, holding their annual meeting in this provincial government resort area 240 miles northwest of Montreal.

The press conference referred to in the speech is one called by Solicitor-General Claude Wagner in connection with alleged police brutality toward demonstrators during the Queen's visit.

Mr. Bertrand said the film will show "all the facts of the Queen's visit."

Mr. Bertrand made the remark in passing, while addressing to the writers Quebec hos-

Japs Frown On Chinese Bomb Test

TOKYO (AP)—The leader of Japan's socialists told the Chinese to stop their faces in Peking he did not like China's first atomic test. Press reports said the Chinese sat for a time in stunned silence.

The statement was made Saturday by Tomomi Narita, secretary-general of the party, at a banquet in Peking given to the visiting Japanese by the Japan China Friendship Association. Japan's socialists have been friendly with the Chinese. Narita was provoked into replying at the banquet when Liao Cheng-shih, chairman of the association, praised the test Friday as "a great achievement of the Chinese people," used newspaper Yomiuri's correspondent in Peking reported.

ROLLS FOR PARROT CHEDDLETON, Eng. and (CP)—David Scott-Moncrieff, said to have the world's biggest collection of Rolls-Royce automobiles, has offered to give one away as a reward to anybody who can find Charlie, his pet African grey parrot.
