New Glasgow Jr. Farmers Meet

At the annual meeting of New Glasgow and District Junior Farmers Group, the meeting was opened by the President Elbert Orr who called on the Secretary to read the minutes of the previous meeting. The minutes of the Directors Meeting of the 14th of October were read.

The group decided to have a social evening of November 24th and to have the Junior Farmers from East Prince and St. Georges there. Word was to be sent to Horace Coles to have him as pianist for a sing song on that night. The Secretary, Jean MacRae read the minutes of the last Annual Meeting.

Committee reports were given by the chairman of the committee, education Robert Rackham; membership Sterling MacRae; roll call Leith Dickleson; and recreation Charlie Carr. The Treasurer reported the group had $251.95.

The President Elbert Orr read the annual report of the New Glasgow and District Junior Farmers. This will be published at a later date.

From 15 nominations the following directors were elected for the coming year. These directors selected their own executive: President, Robert Rackham; Vice-President, Ralph Dickleson; Past President, Elbert Orr; Secretary, Jean MacRae; Treasurer, Melvin Larsen; Executive Secretary, Edith Rackham, William Andrew and Charles Carr.

Two new members joined, Alma Chandler and Danny Nesbitt, one Junior Farmers Great was sold.

The meeting was moved adjourned and a delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Beer drinkers in British Columbia may raise a double-size glass to toast the new year. The B.C. Hotel Association Tuesday voted in favor of the 20-cent beer glass. The dime glass will be retained.
