formers, look like a trio of Faveros when they get into mix-ups. Don Earby is still mighty dangerous if you let him wind-up. You have to fore-check this boy to keep him off the score sheet. He's a whirling dervish when he slips into high. "Colors" Schurman, coach of the team, has put himself back of the blue-line, and did a first-rate rear-guard chore against O'Leary. Garth Gay has given the team some added weight and authority. Young Bunny Gillis gave a good performance in the nets, and with some coaching should do.

It is not generally known that Joe Lambro, proprietor of a shoe-shine parlor on Spring Street in Summerside, ran the famous Boston Marathon on several occasions. He finished the gruelling grind twice, placing eighth and seventeenth. This race is a little over 26 miles, the distance which Phelippides, the Greek, ran from the battle field of Marathon to Athens to tell the Athenians of the great victory over the Persians. Phelippides dropped dead at the end of the run, but modern runners usually suffer no ill-effects.

Moncton In 2-1 Win Over Saint John At Sussex

SUSSEX, Jan. 1—A breakaway goal by Sam Kennedy at 7:26 of the third period provided Moncton Hawks with the advantage they needed for a 2-1 defeat of Saint John Beavers in a Maritime Major Hockey League game in the Kings County Stadium here last night.

Beavers, panned up in their own zone for more than a minute, swept down the ice in a gangling play in an attempt to get the puck inside the Moncton blue line, the shot hit a defenceman's shin and rebounded to the blue line where Kennedy picked it up and skated straight down the centre lane to beat Gordon Mabey.

But it was Lockhart, Moncton goalie, who was the real hero of the win. He kicked out a dozen shots that looked good for goals until he got stick, hand, pad or skate in front of the puck. He had no chance on the screened shot from Meldrum's stick which evened the score earlier in the third period.

A crowd of approximately 1,200 watched the first Big Six game ever played in Sussex.

Hughes Goes To Buffalo Team

Goal tender Phil Hughes of the Saint John Beavers has been called up to the Buffalo Flyers and left Saint John on Monday, it was learned last night. Beavers expect a suitable replacement for Hughes shortly.

Bitterly Fought Contest Gives Miners 9-6 Win Over Islanders Here

"Bud" Poile's Glace Bay Miners, playing the last half of the game under protest, took advantage of the third period breaks to defeat the Charlottetown Islanders 9-6 in a free scoring contest at the Forum on Monday night.

Winger John Bailey, one of the principals in a second period outbreak that delayed the game for nearly twenty minutes, shot the winning goal at the midway mark of the third session. About five minutes later he scored again to end matters for the night.

The game was another of the fast moving, bitterly fought contests between the two clubs and matters came to a head near the middle of the second period with a bruising fight between Phil Vitale and the Miners' Bailey.

The fight started after Vitale charged Wywrot into the boards at the north end of the rink. Bailey apparently said something to Vitale and the big fellow caught the Miners forward with a right uppercut to the head. In the ensuing struggle Bailey suffered a broken nose.

Police Prevent Trouble
As Bailey was making his way to the Miners' dressing room, he swung his stick menacingly towards a crowd of shouting fans. The Glace Bay players swarmed onto the ice but quick police action prevented any further trouble.

The Glace Bay team drew a misconduct penalty for leaving the players bench and coach "Bud" Poile disputed the referee's decision. He withdrew his team from the ice and delayed the game about twenty minutes before deciding to continue the contest under protest. The referees served a two-minute penalty on the Miners for delaying the game. Johnny Myketyk, Glace Bay defenceman, sat out the misconduct sentence while Ron Rohmer served the minor.

The game was clearly played the rest of the way save for two minor outbreaks in the last period. Conny Ecnomme and Don Windley drew minors for a brief skirmish. Before they left the penalty box they were joined by Bellingranger and Bloomer.

John Anderson, Bailey and Wywrot led the Glace Bay snipers with two goals each. Ron Rohmer, Len Haley and Windley scored singletons.

Trainer Leads Attack
Wes "Bucko" Trainor led the Islanders' attack by scoring two goals and assisting on another. "Buck" Whitlock, Bob Gray, Denis Smith and Bruno Favero each scored

Dinning To Remain With Millionaires

SYDNEY, N. S., Jan. 1 — (CP) — Coach Cliff Roach announced during the holiday that former mentor Bill Dinning will remain with Sydney Millionaires of the Maritime Major Hockey League as a defenceman.

Roach also said that Joe Levandoski, released earlier at his own request, will remain with the club for the remainder of the week to help Sydney over a manpower shortage.

On the other side of the picture, Roach said Bill Cupolo had decided against remaining in the league because of ill health. He will probably go to New Haven of the Eastern U. S. Amateur League.

Former Chicago Cubs Pitcher Killed

VICTORIA, Mex., Jan. 1 — (AP) — The local hospital reported Monday that Hiram Bithorn, former Chicago Cubs pitcher, died here Dec. 29 of a gunshot wound.

A hospital spokesman said Bithorn was shot in the stomach with a .45-calibre pistol bullet at El Mantle.

The spokesman said a town official of El Mantle is being held by police in connection with the shooting.
