THOU ART NOT HERE.

BY MRS. M. D. WILLIAMS.

Thou art not here, my earliest friend,
Thy counsel and thy aid to lend ;
And when the storm-cloud hovers o'er
My darksome path, thy voice no more
Can waken hope, or banish fear ;
Guide of my youth, thou art not here.

No more I see thy look of love,
Pure as the smiling stars above ;
That look which nerve my heart to bear
When on the verge of dark despair ;
But now, whene'er my soul is sad,
Thou art not here to make it glad.

Spring cometh, and its skies are clear,—
But thou my mother, art not here ;
Thou who didst train the creeping vine
Beneath my window how to twine,
Thou who didst rear the blossoms gay,
Henceforth forever art away

Thou art not here amid the flowers ;
I see thee not in twilight hours,
And yet I sometimes think I feel
Thy spirit's presence o'er me steal,
Pure as the breath of evening air
To calm my throbbing brow of care.

VARIETIES.

A Long Will.—Henry A. Hamilton was last week engaged recording in the books of the Probate Court of this country, one of the longest wills, perhaps, of record in this State, if not in the United States, The will is that of the late General James Taylor of Newport, Kentucky. It covers 21½ pages of royal octavo, closely (and we may add well) written. The fee for recording it amounted to $2180. It relates to proprty valued at $4,000,000, and gives freedom and property to more than twenty human beings and their posterity. As the testator was the owner of real estate in twenty-six countries of this State, the will has to be recorded in each of them.—Xenian(Ohio) Torchlight.

Vegetable Wax.—At a late regular meeting of the Farmers' Club of New York. Judge Scott read a report on the wax and tallow plant. The myrtle tallow. or candle berry, has long been known in America, and occasionally collected for medicinal purposes, but never used as candles to take the place of spermaceti or tallow. If the subject was properly taken up. The writer had little doubt vegetable wax would grow into a manufacture of national importance. The berry is from three to eight feet high. It yields a supply of twenty-five per cent, of wax. The wax is obtained by boiling the berries in water until the wax floats; it is then skimmed off. A specimen of the candle was exhibited.

An Admonition.—Recently, a five dollar note fell into our hands, on the back of which the following was endorsed :—"The last of $1000 spent in foolishness. Young men, beware. T. H." Sin is a hard master. It reduces many of its votaries to their last dollar. Nay, the wages of it is death, and this, as the quaint Dr. South remarks, is poor wages, which a man cannot live by.

Beauty of a Religious Life. The beauty of a religious life is one of its greatest recommendations. What does it possess? Peace to all mankind—it teaches us those arts which will render us beloved and respected ; which will contribute to our present comfort as well as our future happiness.— Its greatest ornament is charity—it inculcates nothing but love and simplicity of action—it teaches nothing but the purest spirit of delight ; in short, it is a system perfectly calculated to benefit the heart, improue the mind and enlighten the understanding.

Smiles.—Oh! what a sight there is in that word—smile—for it changes colours like a cameleon. There's a vacant smile, a cold smile, a satiric smile, a smile of hate, an affected smile, a smile of approbation, a friendly smile, but, above all, a smile of love. A woman has two smiles an angel might envy, the smile that accepts the lover before words are uttered, and the smile that lights on the first-born baby, and assures him of a mother's love—(Sam Slick's Wise Saws.

Education.—Tutors should treat their pupils with regard to such of their faulty habits as cannot easily be eradicated, as prudent physicians do their patients in chronical case; rather with gentle palliatives than harsh extirpatives, which, by means of the resistance given to them by the habit, may create such ferments as may utterly defeat their intention.

Neither a learning nor an education is of any other value than as it tends to improve the morals of men, and to make them wise and good.

A generous mind will choose to win youth to its duty by mildness and good usage, rather than by severity.

The Almighty by rewards and punishments, makes it our interest, as well as our duty, to obey Him; and can we propose ourselves, for the government of our children, a better example.

What makes a lawyer's position so perilous?—Because he has other men's deeds to answer for as well as his own.

When does a young lady try to win more than seven beaux at once. When she trys to fascinate (fasten eight.)

Very True.— A lady has remarkad that domestic troubles are often connected with disasters in china.

Why is a sharp-nosed woman like the great wall of china? Because, if crossed, you are apt to find a Tartar.

Never Failing Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not meve without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsbro', dated March 1st, 1852

To Professor Holloway,

Sir—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter, from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31, Bailey Street, in this town, to inform you, that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied by a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this, she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states that in a wonderful short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS —AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise.

We remain, Dear Sir,
Your's faithfully,
(Signed) WALKER & Co.
