Mackinnon-MacDonald Wedding

Potted plants adorned the chancel and sweet peas tied with bows of white ribbon marked the guest pews of St. Mary's Church, Indian River, for the marriage of Mary Catherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacDonald, Kensington, and Patricia Adolphus, Kensington, Andrew MacKinnon, Kensington, and the late Mr. MacKinnon of Pisquid, P.E.I., at 9 a.m. Monday, June 1, 1953.

Rev. Louis P. Callaghan celebrated the nuptial mass and performed the ceremony. Rev. Reginald MacDonald, former pastor at Indian River, was present in the sanctuary. Mrs. Edgar Hickey was organist and soloist.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father chose a floor-length gown of white nylon net over satin, fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt with overskirt featuring lace panels. Her tiny lace trimmed bolera was finished with Peter Pan collar frosted with seed pearls, and long fitted sleeves ending in tulle. A matching crown of net and lace. She carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses with lily of the valley and maiden-hair fern.

Miss Phyllis MacDonald, niece of the bridegroom and maid of honor, wore a daffodil yellow strapless gown in nylon net over satin with bouffant skirt caught with tiny rose buds and tiny matching bolera. Matching material fashioned her three-quarter length veil with crown similar to that of the bride, and mitts. An arm bouquet of pink carnations and lily of the valley completed her ensemble.

Miss Patricia MacDonald, as her sister's bridesmaid, was daintily gowned in pale green nylon net design similar to that of the maid of honor, with matching crown and veil and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Mr. Michael MacKinnon, Kensington, cousin of the bride was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Desmond Callaghan, Kensington, and Mr. John MacKinnon, Mt. Stewart, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. MacDonald chose a Royal blue with white accessories and a corsage of white roses for her daughter's wedding, while the mother of the bridegroom wore rayon and nylon faconne in pale lilac with a corsage of red roses.

The wedding breakfast and reception was held at Birch Hill Lodge, Summerside for 55 guests when the beautifully arranged bride's table featured a bride's cake and groom's cake artistically decorated. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Reginald MacDonald and responded to by the groom. Musical selections were furnished by Jean, Francis and Bertram MacKinnon, cousins of the bridegroom.

Out-of-town guests were Rev. Reginald MacDonald, Seven Mile Bay, Mrs. Hugh S. MacDonald, Charlottetown, Mrs. John David MacDonald, Pisquid West, Mrs. W. J. P. MacMillan, Charlottetown, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coffin, Jr., Mt. Stewart, Mr. Buddie MacDonald, Pisquid West, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon MacKinnon, Pisquid, Mr. John MacDonald, Jr., Pisquid, Mr. John MacKinnon, Mt. Stewart, Mr. Bertram MacKinnon, Mr. Francis MacKinnon, and Miss Jean MacKinnon, Pisquid, Mr. and Mrs. Wil-
