The following analyses (made by the Dominion Analyst) of these BAKING POWDERS sold in this market should put a stop to the unjust efforts of the Royal to mislead the public as to its being the only pure Powder. These impartial tests show that other Powders are as pure and wholesome:

Royal—Contains Alkaline Carbonates—a mixture consisting mainly of Bi-Carbonate of Soda and Cream of Tartar—adulterated with about 30 per cent of Starch.

Belfast District.

LIBERAL CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

A MEETING of Liberal Conservative Delegates from the various Polling Divisions of the above mentioned District, was held Monday, the 5th inst., in the Murray Harbor Road School House.

Alexander Martin, Esq., M. P. P., as Vice President of the Liberal Conservative Association of Belfast District, opened the meeting at 3 p. m.

The undersigned was requested to report the proceedings. It being moved, seconded and carried that he should act as Secretary to the meeting he consented.

The Vice President explained the political position which called for the presence of the Delegates of the Liberal Conservatives of the District, and stated the object of the meeting as being, "to choose two candidates to represent the Liberal Conservative interest in the approaching local election, and to consider such measures as shall tend to their successful candidature, and return, as representatives of the District.

The business of the meeting being stated, it was then moved by Wm. McPherson, Esq., and seconded by Charles McLeod, Esq., that Hon. James Nicholson take the chair. Motion carried.

The chairman at once proceeded to call upon the following Delegates: Pownall—Messrs. McTear, Moore and Bourke. Piquid—Messrs. P. O'Donnell and J. Fraser. Cherry Valley—Dr. Beers, Messrs. McGillvray and Grant. Vernon River—Messrs. George O'Neill, McKinnon and Clarke. Point Prim—Messrs. John Murchison and Charles McLeod. Eldon—Hon. James Nicholson, Messrs. John O'Connell and Alex. MacMillan. Grand View—Messrs. Alexander Ross, D. Stewart and J. Rose. Galedonia—Messrs. W. McPherson, J. Gillis and J. Macdonald. Wood Islands—Messrs. D. Crawford, M. H. McMillan and R. Dixon. Belle Creek—Messrs. R. McGregor, W. Ross and A. Cook. Messrs. F. Panting, M. Morrison, A. J. Nicholson, A. Ross, D. Campbell, J. A. Macdonald, A. McPherson, and others were present.

Agreed that each polling division cast three votes in case a vote of those present was called for.

The Chairman called the delegates to a choice of candidates. On motion of Dennis Clarke, Esq., seconded by Malcolm H. McMillan, Esq., Alexander Martin, Esq., was nominated to again represent Belfast District. Mover and seconder were heartily applauded during their remarks upon Mr. Martin's career as representative of the District, and his present nomination as a candidate at the forthcoming election was enthusiastically and unanimously carried.

On motion of John Grant, Esq., seconded by Duncan Crawford, Esq., William McLean, Esq., of Charlottetown, also a native of Belfast District, was nominated as a colleague for Alex. Martin, Esq., to contest the District, in the Liberal Conservative interest. Motion unanimously carried.

The Chairman then announced that Alexander Martin, Esq., and William McLean, Esq., would, by unanimous choice of the delegates representing the various polling divisions of the District, be the Liberal Conservative candidates at the election soon to take place.

Alex. Martin, Esq., M. P. P., returned hearty thanks for the re-nomination so unanimously given, assuring the delegates that "the spirit displayed at this representative meeting only required to be kept up to the last to insure success and triumph. He was very heartily applauded.

John Grant, C. McMillan, Wm. Ross, Geo. O'Neill, Edward Grant, H. Bourke, John Murchison, Malcolm McKinnon, A. A. Moore, John Fraser, Esqrs., and other gentlemen addressed the meeting. The various speeches were evidently satisfactory as they were warmly applauded.

Letters were read from D. A. McLeod, Esq., Eldon, Daniel McDonald, Esq., Vernon River Bridge, and others, excusing their absence, expressing sympathy with the cause, and acquiescence in the decisions of the delegates.

Several gentlemen then addressed the meeting upon topics of interest to the occasion. Duncan Crawford, Esq., ably seconded by George O'Neill, Esq., and other speakers urged upon the delegates and electors "union and earnest work." Discussion upon various subjects was indulged in, as regards the duties of members, requirements of the District, necessity for organization, &c., and the speeches of the gentlemen just named, as well as those of some others, resulted in measures being taken which will strengthen, in their opinion, the Liberal Conservative cause. It was quite evident that the gentlemen present were perfectly satisfied, on behalf of themselves and the districts which they represented, with the Government and Party at present in power.

The Chairman envisaged highly the conduct of the delegates, and was pleased with their unanimity in the choice of candidates. Referring to D. Crawford, Esq., he spoke of him as "a gentleman who was always on the alert, working for the District and the interests of the people, while their representative; and he hoped, although Mr. Crawford did not come forward at present, that the time would come when he would again represent them in the Local House. As regards the approaching contest, unanimity, earnest action, and faithfulness to the cause would not fail to return them two candidates, triumphantly. They had now made their choice, they had two men, the Liberal Conservative vote could return them, and if true to themselves, their two candidates would be returned, and take their seats as the true representatives of the District, in the House of Assembly."

Alexander Martin, Esq., M. P. P.—"not only thanked the delegates for his own nomination, but also on behalf of his colleague—William McLean, Esq.—whom they had nominated with him. He hardly thought it necessary to defend the present Government or their rule for the last seven years. The people had every opportunity of judging and determining for themselves. There had been a perpetual howl kept up against the Government during all the time they had been in office. The opponents of the Government belied and belittled it, and threw cold water over every patriotic effort made by the present Government. THE MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE KNEW THIS, AND CONSEQUENTLY THE MAJORITY SUPPORTED THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT; IT IS A FACT, THEY DO, AND THERE IS NO REASON WHY THEY SHOULD CHANGE. (Cheers.) He felt he was not called upon, before an intelligent audience of the best men in the County, to enter into every particular of the actions of the Government. The work of the Government was before them, and to-day that Convention—the best, without exception, which had met in the District for a long time—had expressed their satisfaction. This much, however, he wished the delegates to do: he determined in their course, make themselves well acquainted with the platform, principles and work of the Government. Let this be understood, and every honest elector, with ordinary intelligence, will be able to answer the lies, and rot, and stuff which the Opposition take a delight in circulating. Nothing better can be expected from them; and thus they cannot deny, for during the last seven years the electors of this Province have shown they have no confidence in the Opposition party, by keeping them out in the cold. The Government wishes to be well known and understood, feeling satisfied that the knowledge will enable the people to meet the talk and tactics of their unscrupulous opponents. All we desire is the truth, a thing which, as far as politics are concerned at least, the vote of the electors has decided the opponents of the Government cannot tell." After some further remarks upon "the duties required or expected from representatives," Mr. Martin resumed his seat amid loud applause.

After the usual votes of thanks, three cheers were given for the Conservative party, three cheers for the Government, three cheers for the Liberal-Conservative candidates for the District, and every man rose to his feet as three cheers were called for the Queen, which they heartily responded to. The meeting, which lasted over three hours, was then concluded.

JAMES M. DAVIS,
Secretary.

"They Met by Chance."

There was a somewhat mixed crowd at a masquerade ball given recently. Hopper was present, but Mrs. Hopper was not. Approaching a veiled man he playfully tapped her on the shoulder and said: "Fair saintess, I recognize thee by thy sylph-like form." To his amazement he recognized the voice of his cook, Biddy Muldoon. "Plaze sir, don't tell the old lady at home that ye met me here." "That's all O. K., Biddy, and don't tell the old lady you met me here. Ta-ta, fair saintess."
