Odds and Ends.

The artist (fervidly)—My art is my very life.

The friend (cynically)—You won't live long.

Evangeline—I wonder why Clara and Mamie are such good friends?

Musmee—They were born on the same day, and each knows the other's age.

Mr. N.—My dear, we will have some tight squeezing to get along.

Mrs. N.—How nice!

Gawge—Do you trust me darling?

Angelica—Implicitly, my love.

Gawge—Then lend me ten dollars.

Husband—Are you going to Miss Twickenham's tea?

Wife—No; I haven't anything to wear.

Husband—Why don't you wear the same gown you did at the last tea she gave?

Wife—I have too much respect for you.

People would say you were running down hill.

A Pleasing Sense

Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 25c bottles by all leading druggists. jl4 t th s

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 1yr

A LESSON IN TEMPERANCE.—The following story illustrating the evils of intoxicating liquors comes from Midgic and is vouched for by a gentleman who says a deacon told him. It appears that in spite of the vigilance of the Scott Act authorities a worthy lady of that place dispenses the prohibited elixer to the needy ones who have the necessary equivalent of cash. On a certain day last week trade was particularly brisk and the water in which the glasses were washed bore a pronounced alcoholic flavor towards the close of the day. Next morning the lady used this water in mixing food for her hens. Judge of her surprise a few minutes later at going to the barnyard and finding the rooster and four of the best hens lying in an attitude of death. Taking the apparently dead fowls inside she plucked the feathers off, and threw the earthly tenements behind the barn. Whether the plucking had a sobering effect or not is not known, but in an hour the birds regained consciousness and may now be seen strutting about gorgeously arrayed in full suits of clothes, made by the woman under a fit of penitence.—Sackville.

THE originator of Estey's Emulsion spent several years of his life in perfecting this preparation. Not a bottle of it was put on the market until he was satisfied that it was the best ever introduced for the cure of coughs, colds, bronchitis and all wasting diseases. Thousands of bottles have been sold, and he has never heard a complaint regarding it. jan2 1m d&w

When you borrow money you borrow trouble, but at the same time you sometimes increase the trouble of the fellow who lends it to you.

ESTEY'S Iron Tonic works like magic, reaching every part of the human body through the blood, giving to all renewed life and vigor. feb2 1m Drinking to a friend's health is bad medicine for you own.

ALL tobacco except the finest Virginia has a pungent effect upon the tongue and will smart it if the smoking is long continued. Some of them even will blister it, or at least destroy its outer skin at the point where the smoke impinges upon it. The "Myrtle Navy" is entirely free from this defect, which, together with its fine full flavor, makes it a great favorite with smokers. ....
