Financing Expected '65 Legislature Topic

Premier W. R. Shaw said yesterday he expects financing will be one of the main topics at the 1965 session of the Legislature.

"Our financial policies, as in the past, will no doubt be severely criticized by the opposition," he said, "but the government did not mind constructive criticism, "but in being critical the opposition does not come up with any concrete suggestions which could assist the province."

The premier said sufficient money to maintain an adequate standard of public services in the province is one of the greatest problems facing the government.

Additional revenues from the federal government were necessary, he said, as taxation in the province has reached the saturation point, while costs of services continue to rise.

Government departments are in the midst of preparing their estimates for the 1965-66 fiscal year and some are running into difficulties. They have been told not to exceed their spending of the present fiscal year but find this hard to do because of rising costs and additional federal-provincial cost-sharing programs.

Premier Shaw views with concern the movement of some provinces toward opting out of some cost sharing programs. "Provinces may opt out," he said, "taking huge amounts of money with them, thus weakening the central government. As a result, provinces that stay in the programs may find that there is less federal money to maintain their standard of services."

The premier suggested that provinces opting out should carefully consider where their actions may take them. "He said "they are going somewhere but they don't know what they might bump into along the way."

MRHS Paper Is Published

— The first estimate for the 1965-66 fiscal year was published last week. The paper contains information on all high school activities, sports, social items, poetry composed by the students and other items of interest.

The editor of "Hi-Lies" is Patricia Sinclair and assistant editor is Eric Ellsworth. Faculty advisors are Evelyn MacRae and Mrs. Carmina MacRae.

The paper is a mimeographed edition and the stencil cutting and preparation was done by the commerce class.

The newspaper staff plans to publish another paper soon and hopes to eventually have a regular edition of "Hi-Lies".

Boiler Bursts, Burns City Man

The explosion of a section of a heating boiler resulted in Leslie Graves of Charlottetown being taken to the Prince Edward Island Hospital suffering from burns caused by boiling water and steam.

The accident occurred shortly after 1 p.m. yesterday at the LePage Shoe Company on Gratton Street.

Fire Inspector Louis Ranshan, reported that Graves, an employee of Harrison James, plumbing and heating contractor, had only a short time before the explosion being carrying out repairs to the furnace.

Steam and water pressure caused a section of the boiler to explode without warning and young Graves was in the path of the shower of water, steam and red hot embers.

The embers started a minor fire in the basement, which was extinguished by city firemen before any serious damage resulted.

Balcer May Resign As Quebec PC Leader

OTTAWA (CP)—Leon Balcer said here he may resign his position as Quebec Conservative lieutenant to sit in the Commons as an Independent.

He said in a phone interview from his home in Trois-Rivières, Que., that he is actively considering such a move but first must raise the matter with his constituents.

Mr. Balcer said he will announce his decision before Feb. 16, when the Commons is scheduled to reconvene.

He declined to state his reason for considering such action or to discuss the matter further.

Mr. Balcer, 47-year-old former Conservative transport minister, split openly with Opposition leader John Diefenbaker on the flag issue in the Commons.

VOYED FOR CLOSURE

On Dec. 9 Mr. Balcer stunned most other Conservative MPs by inviting the Liberal government to apply closure to end the flag debate.

When the government did indeed apply closure last Monday, Mr. Balcer and three other Quebec Conservatives voted for it.

On the flag vote itself, Mr. Balcer led seven other Quebec ceer as a moderate French-Canadian leader with a national stature comparable to that of S. G. Georges - Etienne Cartier, chief lieutenant to Sir John A. Macdonald.

However, in ensuing months a deterioration in relations between Mr. Diefenbaker and Mr. Balcer became evident.

Mr. Balcer not only split openly with his leader on the flag, but took a noticeably different approach on such questions as federal-provincial relations and constitutional amendments.

EERIE AND HAIRY

PORTSMOUTH, England (CP)—The Tiller family here have reported the presence in their house of what may be a hairy ghost. Several times they report they have heard the sound of a whining brush being rattled in a metal mug. Stephen Tiller, 44, said: "I have twice seen a white apparition on the stairs. It made my hair stand on end."
