

INSURRECTION OF "REDS" IN PARIS.

One of the papers gives the following narrative of a counter revolution in Paris:—During the morning, many gatherings of people had taken place upon the square of the Hotel de Ville. A crowd of citizens, wearing for the most part the costume of the National Guards, and without arms, debouched upon the square by the neighbouring streets, calling loudly for "La Commune."

BAZAINE AND HIS ACCUSERS.

We give below the accusations brought against Bazaine, and his reply:—Colonel Valcourt, of the Metz staff, has presented to the Minister of War an official report about the army of Bazaine and the surrender of the fortress. The following is an exact extract:—"The reactionary conduct of Marshal Bazaine induced him to send a great number of agents through the camps and among the soldiers, telling them of the honorable capitulations throughout France, and especially that of Tours on the 18th, General Boyer, having returned from Versailles, announced officially to the council of marshals that not only Orleans but also Tours, Chartreuil, Bourges, St. Etienne, Rouen and Lille were in the hands of the Prussians; that no vestige of government existed any longer in France; that in all the important cities the most frightful disturbances existed en permanence, and that among other places Lille and Rouen, plundered by the Socialists, had called in garrisons of Prussians—in a word, it was necessary for the safety of France that the Emperor or Empress should conclude peace with King William, and that the army of the Rhine should, therefore, move towards the interior of the country to establish order and reinstate everywhere the imperial regime."

STANDARD PERIODICALS FOR 1870.

By the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., New York. Indispensable to all desirous of being well informed on the great subjects of the day. 1. The Edinburgh Review. This is the oldest of the series. In its main features it still follows in the path marked out by Brougham, Jeffrey, Sydney Smith, and Lord Holland, its original founders and first contributors. 2. The London Quarterly Review, which commences its 128th volume with the January number, was set on foot as a rival to the Edinburgh. It resolutely maintains its opposition in politics, and shows equal vigor in its literary department. 3. The Westminster Review has just closed its 92d volume. In point of literary ability this Review is fast rising to a level with its competitors. It is the advocate of political and religious liberalism. 4. The North British Review, now in its 51st volume, occupies a very high position in periodical literature. Passing beyond the narrow formalism of schools and parties, it appeals to a wider range of sympathies and a higher integrity of conviction. 5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, was commenced 52 years ago. Equalling the Quaterlies in its literary and scientific departments, it has won a wide reputation for the narratives and sketches which enliven its pages. Terms for 1870. T. HECKER: We heartily congratulate you upon the esteem which your periodical, "The Catholic World," has, through its erudition and perspicuity, acquired even among those who differ from us, etc. Letter from the Most Rev. Archbishop of New York. New York, Feb. 7, 1865. DEAR FATHER HECKER: I have read the Prospectus which you have kindly submitted to a new Catholic Magazine, to be entitled: "The Catholic World," which it is proposed publishing in this city, under your supervision; and I am happy to state there is nothing in its whole scope and spirit which has not my hearty approval. The want of some such periodical is widely and deeply felt, and I cannot doubt that the Catholic community at large will rejoice at the prospect of having this want, if not fully, at least in a great measure, supplied. With the privilege which you have of drawing on the intellectual wealth of Catholic Europe, and the liberal means placed at your disposal, there ought to be no such want as failure, in your vocabulary. Hoping that this laudable enterprise will meet with well-merited success, and under God's blessing, become fruitful in all the good which it proposes, I remain, Rev. Dear Sir, very truly, your friend and servant in Christ, JOHN, Archbishop of New York. "THE CATHOLIC WORLD" Forms a double-column octavo magazine of 144 pages each number, making two large volumes, or 1728 pages, each year, and is furnished to subscribers for $5 a year, invariably in advance. JOHN A. MACDONALD, Postmaster General, General Post Office, Charlottetown, 1st Oct. 1870. ALL CURES MADE EASY BY Holloway's Ointment. Bad Legs, Ulcerous Sores, Bad Breasts. No description of wound, sore or ulcer can resist the healing properties of this excellent Ointment. The worst case, if properly applied, will be cured; its appearance whenever this medicinal agent is applied; sound flesh springs up from the bottom of the wound, inflammation of the surrounding skin is arrested, and a complete and permanent cure quickly follows the use of the Ointment. Piles, Fistulas, and Internal Inflammation. These distressing and weakening diseases may with certainty be cured by the sufferer themselves, if they will use Holloway's Ointment, and closely attend to the printed instructions. It should be well rubbed upon the neighboring parts, when all obnoxious matter will be removed; a notice of broad and water may sometimes be applied at bed-time with advantage; the most scrupulous cleanliness must be observed. If those who read this paragraph will bring it under the notice of such of their acquaintances whom it may concern, they will render a service that will never be forgotten, as a cure is certain. Eruptions, Scald Heads, Ringworm and other Skin Diseases. A few fomentations with warm water, the utmost relief and speediest cure can be readily obtained in all complaints affecting the skin and joints, by the simultaneous use of the Ointment and Pills. But it must be remembered that nearly all skin diseases indicate the depravity of the blood and derangement of the liver and stomach; consequently, in many cases, time is required to purify the blood, which will be effected by a judicious use of the Pills. The general health will readily be improved, although the eruption may be driven out more freely than before, and which should be prevented; perseverance is necessary. On the appearance of any of these maladies the Ointment should be well rubbed at least three times a day upon the neck and upper part of the chest, so as to penetrate to the glands, and at the same time the Pills; this course will at once remove inflammation and ulceration. The worst cases will yield to this treatment by following the printed directions. Scrofula or King's Evil and Swelling of the Glands. This class of cases may be cured by Holloway's purifying Pills and Ointment, as their double action of purifying the blood and strengthening the system renders them more affable than any other remedy for all complaints of a scrofulous nature. As the blood is impure, the Ointment should be used in conjunction with the Pills, which will be arranged, require purifying medicine to bring about a cure. Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia. Nothing has the power of reducing inflammation and subduing pain in these complaints in the same degree as Holloway's cooling Ointment and purifying Pills. When used simultaneously they drive all inflammation and depravities from the system, subdue and remove all enlargement of the joints, and leave the sinews and muscles lax and uncontracted. A cure may also be effected, even when the worst circumstance, if the use of these medicines be persevered in. Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:— Bad Legs, Corns (Soft) Rheumatism, Bad Breasts, Cancers, Scalds, Burns, Contracted Joints, Yaws, Blisters, Eruptions, Skin-diseases, Blisters of the Face, Elephantiasis, Sore-throats, Sand-itches, Gout, Sore-throats, Scrofula, Glandular Sore-heads, Chilblains, Swellings, Tumors, Chancres, Ulcers, Ringworm, Wounds, Chapped Hands, Piles.
