

HAPPENINGS

The Rainbow Club held its monthly meeting at Sunset Lodge on Monday afternoon. The president, Mrs. P. Sharon, chaired the meeting.

Brig. D. Harwick thanked the club for supplying Mrs. Patrick's treats for the residents at the lodge and Brig. N. Owen reported on birthday gifts. The estimates for the stair rails were reported and approved.

Plans for the annual birthday supper to be held in April were finalized and Mrs. G. B. Balfour was appointed convener of the affair.

The meeting closed with a Mizpah benediction. Mrs. J. A. MacNair was accompanist for the afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie, Stems Ltd. Charlotteville, and Mrs. E. Hecke, Wick Star Laundry, Summerside, left by air Tuesday to attend the American Institute of Laundering and the National Institute of Dry Cleaners convention in Chicago.

Approximately 18,000 people are expected to attend this show and convention.

Mrs. McKenna and Mrs. Hickey commemorated their husbands on the trip.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Davison Kennington left on Sunday for Toronto on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. Cameron MacGregor, Graham's Road, were here to receive a telegram from Buckingham Palace expressing warm congratulations on the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding on March 13, from her Majesty, the Queen.

Mrs. Nettie Stewart is confined to a home with injuries received in a fall at her home on Saturday, March 10.

Mrs. James Marebanch, New Annapolis, is a patient in the Prince of Wales Hospital, Summerside, where she is receiving treatment.

Eight tables of progressive auction were in play on Wednesday evening, March 14, at the New London Hall. Mrs. William MacEwen won the high prize for ladies, and Douglas Cole the high prize for men.

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore, New Annapolis, was filled to capacity when friends and relatives gathered to honor their son Francis, and to welcome his bride the former Mary Carol Fyle of Stanley Bridge.

The music for the show was provided by Roydon Magford, ARCO, and the Hammond Organ was provided through the courtesy of Lowell Hichest, Island representative for Hammond Organ.

The clothes modeled at the show were suited to the wide variety of activities that inevitably form the teen-agers busy life. There were clothes for dress up, "Sunday best" wear, for sports, for casual wear, particularly for bed time, for both boys and girls.

FOR THE GIRLS One of the popular dress up outfits was modeled by Miss Janet MacDonald. It featured an aquamarine coat in dress length with a black velvet collar, long sleeves, and side pockets. The beautifully tailored coat was styled by Irving Posthum. Under her coat, Janet wore a skirt with silk dress shoes of matching material.

A shower of gifts was presented when John Rogers and Annie Lee Fyle attended the young couple, and a special music played by Miss Olive Dalziel. The well filled baskets were carried in by Isabel Moore and Gary Campbell, and the ribbons were cut by Mrs. M. J. MacNair.

THIS IS STILL nothing newer than wool to spring fashions and sporty styles. It was being fashionable when she chose this two-piece wool suit. The suit in the new home shade, features a short sleeved dress with jewellery collar and a matching jacket with grey cord trim. To complete her outfit Janet wore a grey basket-weave straw hat and black illusion sapphire pumps.

Spring was much in evidence at the YMCA on Monday and Tuesday evenings, as the Omega and Delta Bona Fide H.Y. clubs presented their annual "top and dollie" fashion show featuring the latest in spring and summer looks for the teenage girl and boy.

The show, which was convened by Diane MacLellan, president of the Delta club, was held in the YMCA gymnasium where both showings were held before large audiences.

The models were: Miss Jan Beesley, Miss Cameron, Miss Judith Garnham, Miss Brenda Howatt, Miss Janet MacDonald, Miss Enay MacKay, Miss Gloria MacKay, Miss Virginia MacNutt, Miss Freda Parkman, Miss Janet Williams, Miss Barbara Worth, Mr. Robert Burns, Mr. Donald Ling, Mr. Alan Ince, Mister David MacDonald, Master Ronald MacLellan, Mr. Alan Peters and Mr. Jim Phillips.

The girls' clothes were shown through the courtesy of Moore and MacLellan Ltd. and the boys' through the courtesy of Henderson and Culmore's. Shows were from LaPatis, make-up from Moore and MacLellan, decorations, Moore and MacLellan, arranged by Gerald MacDonald; lighting Shree Electric; and flowers, The Flower Cart, Jerry's Flower Shop, Tait's ful of cookies. The fire burns with that quiet which indicates the sticks have burned low. In dear, no one will listen; the black cat murrals stalking to the door.

"There was a squirrel in my dream," he said, "I was a spring for him, and then I wakened. Do you think dreams go contrary?" "They do say so."

"Then there'll be a squirrel here," he said, "I was a spring for the morning!" he grins. "Until tomorrow — Diary — Good-night."

Achievement Day Concludes WI Sewing Course On Friday, February 12th, an achievement afternoon was held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Inman bringing to a close, a very successful two weeks course in sewing on handcrafts.

Many of the ladies of the district took a day's rest from their daily work and spent the day modelling and displaying beautiful garments completed by the women of the district.

Several visitors were present for the occasion with Miss Theresa MacLeod, director of Women's Services, as special guest who spoke briefly on sewing and handcrafts and 4-H Club work.

Montreal Mother Wins National Baking Contest MONTREAL (CP) — Mrs. Collette Beer, petite, brunette mother of two pre-schoolers, won first prize in the 19th National Salon of Agriculture's tourtiere — baking contest for what she describes as a "French-Canadian pie with a twist."

Her husband Peter — singer and drummer in Montreal night club — is a Welsh immigrant with a passion for sage and onions. So Mrs. Beer regularly cooperates with her cooking. Her prize-winning pie was no exception.

Eastern Townships area of Quebec. Mrs. Beer's hobbies include reading cookbooks in different languages, taking evening courses in ceramics, and sewing. Her children are aged two and four.

Her recipe for tourtiere: One pound minced pork, 1 small onion, 1 clove of garlic, minced, 1 teaspoon 1/4, 1/2 teaspoon thyme, 1/2 teaspoon sage, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 1/2 cup water
