

Tigers Shade Pale Hose; Yanks, Red Sox Split Bill

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Ted Bowfield, a 22-year-old Boston Red Sox rookie from Penikese, B.C., held New York Yankees hitless through six innings Sunday as he won his first major-league ball game, 9-3.

Bowfield's effort gave the Sox a split with the Yankees, who won the opener of a double-header, 7-5.

And another Canadian had the hero's role at Detroit, where Reno Bertio, a Windsor, Ont. product, squeezed home the winning run in the 12th inning as Detroit Tigers beat Chicago White Sox 4-3 in the second game of a doubleheader that lasted more than seven hours. The White Sox won the opener 5-2.

In other American League games, Washington and Baltimore split, the Senators winning 6-2 and losing 6-1; and Cleveland and Kansas City split, the Indians winning 11-2 and losing 4-2.

Milwaukee Braves, the National League leaders, went on a hitting spree to defeat Philadelphia 8-7 and 14-3. The Braves now have a 6½-game lead over the San Francisco Giants who beat Los Angeles 12-8 in Sunday's only single game, a 28-hit slugfest. St. Louis and Chicago played giveaway, the Cubs snatching a 9-4 first-game win and the Cards taking the second 6-2 on five unearned runs. At Pittsburgh, the Pirates took two from Cincinnati, 3-2 and 4-3.

NO-HITTER UNTIL 7TH
Bowfield had a Yankee Stadium crowd of 35,778 on the edge of his seats as he retired Andy Carey on a routine grounder leading off the New York seventh.

Then Norm Siebern, a left-handed batter, broke the spell cast by the Canadian southpaw as he lashed a clean single to right field. Until then only five Yankees had reached base—four by walks and one on an error.

Bowfield escaped the seventh without further damage but he tired in the eighth when the first four Yankee batters hit safely to force his exit. Murray Wall ended the uprising after the Yankees had scored three runs. The Red Sox already had scored seven times to ensure Bowfield's victory.

The Yankees outdid the Red Sox 14-9 in the first game but it took two unearned runs in the eighth to win for them. The Red Sox had knocked out starter Don Larsen and reliever Ryan Duren with a four-run rally in the seventh that tied the score 5-5.

Bertio, who got into the Detroit game at third base after Billy Martin was hurt trying to steal home earlier, laid down a perfect bunt to break up the 12-inning affair. Three-hit pitching by Moore and Early Wynn carried the Sox to victory in the opener, in which Jim Rivera batted in four of the five Chicago runs.

ORIOLES FINALLY WIN
Lefty Bill O'Dell stopped Washington on five hits to give Baltimore a 6-1 second-game victory and end an 11-game Oriole losing streak. In the first contest, Washington's Pedro Ramos picked up his 11th win against 10 setbacks, although relief Ace Dick Hyde had to bail him out in the ninth.

Roger Maris cracked a two-run homer in the 10th inning and Dick Tomaneck turned in a brilliant relief chore to snap Kansas City's losing streak at six games. Cleveland had won the opener 11-2 on a 15-hit attack featuring homers by Larry Doby and Vic Power.

Milwaukee had to come from behind to win the opener at Philadelphia, Humberto Robinson picking up the win with 6-3 innings of brilliant relief pitching. Frank Torre and Hank Aaron led the attack. The Braves shelved Robin Roberts early in the second contest, and ran their hit total to 33 for the two games. Eddie Mathews hit his 1,000th major-league safety.

There were 28 hits, including seven home runs, in the slugfest at Los Angeles. San Francisco rookie Jim Davenport hit two home runs, and had three other safeties.

ERRATIC FIELDING
St. Louis committed four errors in the first game and the Cubs had five in the second in the Chicago double bill.

Chicago's Ernie Banks hit a homer in each game, to raise his league-leading total to 34. Larry Jackson evened his record at 9-9 by going the route for the Cards in the second game. The Pirates completed a four-game sweep over the Redlegs by winning a pair of one-run margins. Dick Stuart's fly ball drove home the winning run in the first game. Don Gross, fifth Pirate pitcher, was the winner in the opener, and reliever Roy Face won the second.

Saturday was Old Timers' Day at Yankee Stadium, where 65,000 saw the 1946 Boston Red Sox defeat the 1947 New York Yankees 3-0 in a two-inning game. Joe DiMaggio, as usual, got the loudest ovation. Boston won the regular game, 100-9-6. Elsewhere, Cleveland edged Kansas City 3-1, Baltimore pounded Washington 12-5 and Chicago tripped Detroit 9-2.

In the national Saturday, San Francisco beat Los Angeles 6-3; Philadelphia edged Milwaukee 5-4. St. Louis stopped Chicago 3-2 and Pittsburgh topped Cincinnati 5-2.

British Team Retains Trophy

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Britain's Curtis Cup veterans held the women's golf trophy for another two years Sunday after battling to a standoff a determined band of American challengers in the 10th international classic.

Former British champion Frances Stephens Smith, a young widow with a year-old daughter, gained a 4½ to 4½ tie for her team by repeating her 1956 victory over Polly Riley Saturday at the Brae Burn Country Club.

Mrs. Smith edged the U. S. Curtis Cup squad veteran 2 up in the 36-hole match which wound up the two-day competition.

Another key performance which enabled Britain to retain possession of the cup under rules governing ties in the biennial competition was turned in by Angela Bonallack, 21-year-old wife of the British Walker Cupper.

Mrs. Bonallack lost the first three holes and six of the first eight while winning only one but battled back to earn a 36-hole tie with Barbara McIntire, 23.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

September Sport Magazine has announced its all-time all star team of the American League, as selected by a "nation-wide panel of sportswriters and sportscasters."

Nobody could find too much fault with this selection. Man, what a team. Catcher - Bill Dickey; left handed pitcher - Lefty Grove; right handed Walter Johnson; first base Lou Gehrig; second base, Eddie Collins; third base, Jimmy Collins; shortstop Joe Cronin; left field Ty Cobb; right field Babe Ruth; centre field Joe Dimaggio.

Close voting was in evidence for most positions with Dimaggio winning over Tris Speaker 48 to 47. Highest vote getters were Ruth, 107; Grove, 105 and Cobb 104. Dickey held a 59-50 edge over Mickey Cochrane.

Floyd Patterson, heavyweight champion of the boxing world, puts his title on the line against one, Roy Harris on the night of August 18.

For Floyd, it shouldn't be too great a chore to make the defence of his crown a successful one. And if Patterson comes out on top, where does he go from there?

Zora Foley who knocked out the awkward Pete Rademacher a few weeks ago, seems like the logical chap for a crack at the heavyweight crown.

Zora may not have the ball of fire but he does possess the best knockout record of any of the contenders. What chance he would stand against Patterson is anybody's guess.

Foley is mainly a counter-puncher. He hasn't the aggressiveness of a champion, but some think a puncher like Patterson may bring some tiger out of Foley.

At any rate, he looks like the best of the lot of mediocre contenders. It should be his turn now.

Sportswriters for Milwaukee Braves were really handed choice copy when the Haney crew took four straight recently from the contending Giants, who had moved into the beer town with high hopes of putting Milwaukee out of first place.

The Giants never did get going and with each game their chances of being surprise pennant winners became more unlikely.

Parliament's Popularity In Tourist Field Is Problem

OTTAWA (CP) — Parliament's popularity as a tourist attraction is growing so great that perhaps eventually new curbs may have to be placed on visitors, Speaker Roland Michener suggested Saturday.

Tourists were currently flowing through Parliament at the rate of about 3,000 daily, he informed the Commons during discussion of his estimates. Total number of visitors last year rose by 50,000 to 350,000.

Frank McGee (PC—York Scarborough) suggested current daily visiting hours of 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. be extended.

Michener agreed if the rate continues to increase something might have to be done to add to the present guide system.

On the other hand, if the rising rate interfered with Parliament, then some restrictions might have to be imposed "if we become more popular."

HOW ABOUT CHAR'S?
Discussion also touched on the char staff and the Commons' non-functioning air cooling system.

H. W. Herridge (CCF — Kootenay West) pleaded for better treatment for the women who trudge into the building in the wee hours of the morning to clean offices before members arrive.

Some of these cleaning women, he said, had to leave home at 4:30 a.m. to get to their jobs on time. But because of regulations, they had to remain in the building until 8:30 a.m. even though they might have completed their work earlier. They should be allowed to get back to their homes and families just as soon as they finished their cleaning, he suggested.

Egan Chambers (PC—London Centre-St. George) urged the Commons numbering system be changed so members could find their "home" without getting lost. J. W. Pickersill (L—Sourthern Twillingate) supported him. Pickersill said he had been in the Parliament building for 20 years and still couldn't figure out the numbering system.

HAVE NEW SYSTEM
Mr. Michener said that the numbering system is being revised.

Paul Martin (L—Rosedale) complained of an ineffective air cooling system that had been installed in 1947. It hadn't been functioning during Ottawa's recent hot spell.

Violent Storm Suspends Play In Golf Tourney

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A violent storm forced suspension of the final round of the $35,000 Milwaukee open golf tournament Sunday with half the field on the course.

All fourth-round scores posted before the storm struck were wiped off the books and play will be resumed from scratch today, weather permitting.

Cary Middlecoff of Hollywood, Fla., held a three-stroke lead with a 15-under-par 197 as the final round got under way on the par 35-70 course.

Toronto's Jerry Magee was eliminated after the second round when he failed to make the low 85.
