Cuban Rebels To Free Passengers

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — The rebel high command Sunday announced a 30-hour cease-fire around Santiago de Cuba pending the release to the International Red Cross of 25 passengers seized during the hijacking of a Cubana airliner.

Rebel broadcasts said a truce with government troops would be effective at midnight Sunday a day night, halting shooting in the Alto Songo area 20 miles north of Santiago and along the road to Dos Caminos, 10 miles west of Santiago. The truce expires at 6 a.m. Tuesday.

All of the passengers to be freed are Cubans except one U.S. Navy airman. All were captured when rebels took over a DC-3 airliner at gunpoint last Tuesday and forced the pilot to land in rebel-held territory.

Rebels said they also hold 120 prisoners, some wounded, for delivery to Red Cross representatives. Rebel proclamations said sabotage and shooting attacks on highway and railway transport in Oriente would be intensified, with the object of paralyzing communications.
