LADIES COMPLETE COMPETITION—The Montague Ladies' Curling Club completed the inter-club competition on Saturday afternoon when Blanche Smith led her team to victory over that of skip Gertrude Power by a score of 10-5 to win the trophy. The winning team included Blanche Smith, skip, O. Poole, mate, C. Llewellyn, second, H. Inman, first. The runners-up were G. Power, skip, I. Sinclair, mate, L. MacDonald, second, L. Davis, first.

WELCOMING PARTY — Mr. Roy Gallant, station agent in Carleton Place, and Mrs. Gallant were the honored guests at a welcoming party held at their home on Monday evening when approximately 100 residents assembled to extend them a welcome to the community. An address was read by Mr. Peter Sullivan and a gift on behalf of the community was presented by Miss Anne Livingstone. The evening was spent in an enjoyable sing-song, after which a delicious lunch was served by the ladies.

Personals

Mrs. H. J. Larkin arrived in Montague last week from Boston to spend the next few months with Mr. and Mrs. G. Graham Bennett.

Messrs David Stewart, Glen Wigginton, Jack Whiteway, and Miss Donna MacLeod, students of P.W.C. and Miss Geraldine Sullivan, St. Dunstan's University spent the week-end at their respective homes in Montague.

Mrs. Stephen Landry, Georgetown, spent the week-end in Charlottetown.

Miss Marjory Gordon of Roseneath, who visited friends in Charlottetown for several days last week, returned to her home on Sunday.

Her many friends will regret to learn that Mrs. Gerald Johnston, Peters Road, is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. All wish her a speedy recovery.

Police Report

In the February Police Department report of Chief C. W. Arthur, arrests were noted with conviction more than half of which were drunk and incapable cases. Drunken driving accounted for three on which $300.00 in fines were paid. Two motor cars were stolen and recovered and 23 transients were given over-night accommodation in jail. Fourteen traffic tickets were issued for meter violations and six other violations were dealt with.

Voices Concern Over National Film Board Move

OTTAWA, (CP)—A Presbyterian clergyman Sunday suggested that the move of the National Film Board to Montreal may result in Roman Catholic propaganda creeping into the Board's films. Rev. Robert Good, minister of Eskine Presbyterian church, said in his sermon that "it is no accident" that the Board's production facilities are being moved into Quebec province from Ottawa. An eucalyptus by Pope Pius in 1936 "said it would be a good thing if the whole film industry was controlled by the Catholic church."

Discusses Plans For High School Curriculum

"The new High School now in process of construction is tangible evidence of the decision of the Board of School Trustees to provide adequate educational opportunity for the youth of this city," Mr. K. A. Parker, Superintendent of City Schools, told the Charlottetown Rotary Club in speaking at the Club's weekly luncheon yesterday.

Discusses Plans For High School Curriculum

"This worthy ideal can only be accomplished when there is common understanding and fullest cooperation in the educational effort. All groups of citizens must have fullest information about their schools, as well as be given opportunity to share in their activities."
