"SWEETHEARTS ON PARADE" AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

A melodious parcel of musical film fare, Republic's "Sweethearts On Parade," now playing at the Capitol Theatre, Summerside, catches the bright eyes of the colorful medicine shows of yesterday in magnificent Trucolor and presents a brilliant singing cast of stage and screen stars.

Heading the cast are famous stage and screen star Ray Middleton, noted singer Lucille Norman, Eileen Christy, Bill Shirley and Republic's peppery Cuban songstress Estelita. Each singer is a star in his or her own right and either is solo or group presentations, the result is thrilling. This robust and tuneful offering also has its share of action from the moment that Middleton's Medicine Show pulls into town with its gay trappings until it departs, having played its prominent role in an exciting tapestry of romance and suspenseful drama. "Sweethearts on Parade" is aptly titled for romance runs rampant in the picture. There is small-town singing aspirant Eileen Christy, who wants to join the Medicine Show and ultimately falls in love with Bill Shirley.

Hampton and Vicinity

The relatives and friends of the late Charles Ross, Roseberry, widely known highly respected, prince of good fellows whose death occurred in the P. E. I. Hospital deep sympathy is extended by all who knew him.

Congratulations are quite in order to the Crapaud Bantams, as winners of the Provincial Championship, and to Albany St. Pats as winners of the P. E. I. Intermediate "C" championship.

Sympathy profound goes out to relatives and friends of the late Mr. Donald MacPadyen, widely known and highly respected, retired farmer, of Augustine Cove, whose death occurred at Charlottetown, March 11.

Best wishes for much happiness are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Archibald Inman, following their marriage at Tryon United Church Manse, on March 13. Mrs. Inman was formerly Miss Audrey Jean Cudmore, of Hampton.

Province-wide sympathy goes out to the surviving relatives and friends of the two airmen killed in the recent car-truck collision near Kensington. Occasionally poor visibility and a slippery highway may be contributory to the cause, but these grievous incidents are deeply felt by the nearest of kin.

Albany St. Pats appear to be being recognized as an outstanding team, both as winners in games throughout a fairly wide area, and as prospective winners of the Frank Myers prize. In their play-off game with Little Sands team in Murray Harbor rink on February 12, the score was 8-3 in their favor, many fans motoring there to see this game.

Mrs. Baxter entertained the W. A. members on March 10, at the Manse, for their birthday and annual meeting. Following the disposal of regular business, plans were made for a concert, date and place to be announced through the press. Mrs. A. E. Best invited the members to her home for the April meeting. An enjoyable lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Cannon.

The burglarizing of Waddell Bros. store, Crapaud, with bright lights reflecting almost directly upon the window through which they gained entrance, close to the residence of a member of this firm, would seem to constitute a case of cool and experienced daring, similar to those of a few years ago, when stores, station warehouses, etc. were broken into and large quantities of goods removed by organized gangs of experienced robbers, a percentage of whom were apprehended by the efforts of the R. C. M. P.

Well attended church services throughout this pastoral charge, marked the commencement of the Lenten season. Attentive listeners to the message, setting forth: "The Great Temptation"; the interpretation of the First Commandment, illustrated in the case of the Prodigal Son. The great mission, to call all people to His service from different tasks, also joined with the junior and senior choirs in singing hymns of inspiration and familiarity for this service.

Letters to relatives and friends in this district from Mr. and Mrs. Boyd MacQuarrie, and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wood, have expressed their enjoyment of the hospitality of the people of that land of fruit, wine, and balmy sunny days—Florida. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Capwell, during their extended visit. Mrs. Capwell and her husband spent their summer holidays at the home of Mrs. Capwell's parents, here, annually, guest of Mrs. MacQuarrie, and the late Mr. W. A. MacQuarrie. Mr. Boyd MacQuarrie and Mrs. H. B. Wood, are brother and sister respectively, of Mrs. Capwell.

From far and near, a large concourse of relatives and friends, attended the funeral services for the late Mr. Donald MacPadyen, widely known and highly respected, former resident of Augustine Cove, held at the home of Mrs. Edward MacPadyen, on March 14. Rev. Mr. Archer conducted the services, and delivered the message suitably applicable to the bereaved and to all present. Hymns of endearment to the deceased, were sung, namely: "Unto the hills around do I lift up my longing Eyes," and "The Lord's My Shepherd". Pallbearers were nephews of the deceased. Interment in the Church Cemetery. To the widow, and family, deep sympathy is extended.

The March meeting of Hampton, W. I. convened at the home of Mrs. C. R. Dunford, with 12 members present. Following arrangements for a concert to be held in the Hall, date to be announced, school, sick, lunch committees were appointed, and work for Red Cross given out through the convent. It was voted to set up a "place name" display board at the approaches to Hampton Village for the benefit of tourists. Following reception of two new members, acceptance of the invitation of Mrs. J. H. Myers to her house for the April meeting of the Institute, a lunch committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Howard Myers, Mrs. Harold Ferguson and Mrs. G.
