

East Baltic

*Mr. Francis Campbell of the Fishermen's Loan Board office, Charlottetown, spent a recent week-end with his mother, Mrs. John C. Campbell and brothers in Red Point.

Mr. Alvin Robertson, Kingsboro, left recently to visit with his brothers in Ontario.

Some of the North Lake Fishermen have set nets and report small catches of herring so far.

The ladies of the surrounding districts are busy cleaning and painting, varnishing the interior of the Kingsboro Baptist Church.

Mrs. L. D. Rose, North Lake, is at present a patient in the Souris Hospital and her host of friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Master Melvin Bruce, North Lake, spent a recent week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Mossman, Vernon.

Miss Dora Bruce, North Lake, has resumed her duties as clerk at the store of Mrs. E. D. Fisher, North Lake, following her illness at her home for the past month.

Mr. Paul McEachern, Priest Pond, has recently suffered a stroke and his friends do sincerely wish Mr. McEachern a speedy recovery as he is one of Priest Pond's most highly respected and oldest citizens.

Mr. Elliot Bruce, East Baltic, is making a satisfactory recovery in the Souris Hospital, following his serious illness.

The Elmira and North Lake, residents are now enjoying the electric lights which were turned on April 21, and the East Baltic residents are now anxiously and persistently trying their best to have the power go through the East Baltic district.

Some of the children here are still absent from school as the severe cold and flu is still going around. Several other mild illnesses are reported among the grown ups.

Her host of friends and acquaintances do sincerely regret to hear of the continued illness of Mrs. William Fraser at her home in North Lake.

The weary trout anglers on April 24th report not too large a catch. Some had the usual story of fishermen luck while others had a nice haul of the precious beauties.

Mr. Marvon Johnstone, North Lake, spent the recent week-end with his family at Murray Harbour North.

Mr. George Conway, Mr. Philip Conway, North Lake, had a thrilling experience the past week when they were taking back a boat they had purchased in Charlottetown. Their engine developed serious trouble and they were forced to remain on the sea all night. It was a real gully night with not too much food or warm clothes aboard, but those husky boys survived the trip and made port the following evening, none the worse for their experience.

They Sailed The Ocean Blue

Mr. Fred Bennett, Morell, visited with his many friends at North Lake. He always receives a hearty welcome from his many old friends and neighbours as up until a few years ago he resided at North Lake.

The friends of Mr. Joseph Ford, South Lake, do sincerely regret to learn of his recent serious illness and a speedy recovery is extended to him from his numerous friends and acquaintances.

A successful bingo party was held in the Little Harbour School on April 22. It was largely attended and a good time enjoyed.

The sad news is that the Lobster Packing Plant at North Lake will not be in operation this Spring.

Looking back it is only a few years since two factories close together were running at top speed. Maybe another year canned fish sale will look brighter and things will be in operation again.

Some of the men who had full employment in the city on big jobs all fall and winter had to leave these jobs and return to get ready for the lobster fishing season.

Mr. Gus B. Campbell, Red Point, is out and about again following his recent illness.

Friends and relatives from far and near were shocked to learn that Mr. Thomas A. Poole had passed away at his home in Souris, April 17th in his 80th year. The late Mr. Poole had not been enjoying his usual good health for the past couple of years and he was lovingly taken care of by his wife and daughter Mary, who in their kind manner did all they could to make him comfortable during his bedfast illness. His passing will long be in the hearts of many as he was a kind, sincere neighbour and friend devoted to his home and loved ones and sincere sympathy is extended to his loving wife and daughters and sons in the great loss they just recently sustained.

Mr. Leslie Wadman, Little Harbour, is at present a patient in the Souris Hospital.

Mr. Emmanuel Sutherland visited with his life long friend, Mr. Elliot Bruce who is ill in the Souris Hospital.

All regret to learn that Mr. Robert Rose, North Lake, is again confined to his home through illness.

Miss Ariene Robertson, Kingsboro, has accepted a position with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Johnstone, North Lake.

Mr. James Robertson, Kingsboro, is out and about as usual, following his recent illness at his home in Kingsboro.

Mrs. Marion Mulloy left by plane for Cambridge, Mass., having been called home owing to the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. McDonald who passed away in the Sacred Heart Home, Charlottetown.

There are several school children in the various districts sick with the 'flu epidemic and some require medical attention.

Mr. Walter Cavanagh and daughter, New York, were recent visitors with Mr. Cavanagh's sister, Mrs. Cyrene McDonald, Greenvale.

Mrs. Peter McDonald, Souris, is a patient in the City Hospital, Charlottetown, as the result of an accident. Mrs. McDonald was struck by a car near the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Poole, Souris, while crossing Main Street.

Mr. Orville Jarvis, Bothwell, spent a pleasant evening with friends in East Baltic.

Irishtown Concert

—Irishtown Hall was filled to capacity on April 28 for a well arranged variety concert sponsored by St. Stephen's Church. The program opened with instrumental music by Mrs. Ralph Johnstone, Mr. Alvin Bernard and Mrs. Borden Campbell, followed by remarks by the chairman, the Rev. W. Eric Ingraham.

Other musical numbers were a piano solo by Erwin Brown, a mouth organ selection by Mr. Archie Paynter, accompanied by Mrs. George MacLeod, and an accordion selection by Mr. Paul Gallant.

Vocal duets were by Lois and Leta MacLeod; Winifred and Jean Brander, Sylvia and Georgia Murphy; Erwin and Grafton Brown. Walter Stewart was heard in a monologue, and Shirley Gallant and Joyce Harrington appeared in a step-dancing number. Vocal solos were rendered by Charles Cole and Vivian Duggan.

A dialogue with "courtin'" for it's theme was staged by Spring Valley. Mrs. Archie Paynter and Mrs. Archie Johnstone put on a dialogue "Truant Husbands" featuring a rather tense situation. A dialogue dealing with "Interviewing the Servant Girl" was contributed by Sea View players, while Burlington put on a dialogue number "Too Tired."

Last, but not least was a "Fashion Show" when the very latest styles were modelled to perfection by Margate's most accomplished models, the most of them, it must be admitted are more accustomed to overalls and windbreakers than the dress of the lovely ladies they so ably represented. — Bur.

RETAIL SALES DOWN

OTTAWA (CP) — Total retail sales in Canada dropped during February to $793,587,000 from $801,420,000 in the corresponding period last year, the bureau of statistics reported Wednesday.

CHANGING SCHOOL NAME
WINNIPEG (CP) — Winnipeg school board, after a month-long controversy decided Tuesday night to name its new school "Andrew Mynarski School" after one of Winnipeg's Victoria Cross winners. The decision was an about-face from the stand the board took last month when it rejected the name "Tweedsmuir."
EX-PUBLISHER DIES
ST. THOMAS, Ont. (CP) — Frederick W. Sutherland, 78, president of the Sutherland Press Ltd. and from 1906 to 1918 publisher of the St. Thomas Evening Journal, died Wednesday. He had suffered from a heart ailment for 20 years, but remained active in business until

DRAMA AWARDS

THE PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND DRAMA FESTIVAL ASSOCIATION wishes to announce that for this year they have thrown the scholarships open to all interested Drama Groups in Prince Edward Island.

There will be scholarships awarded to three persons on condition that they take the course in Drama held at Tatamagouche, Nova Scotia, in August. Each must then, on completion of the course, undertake to participate in Drama in their own area, either as a director, a player, or a backstage worker.

Awards will be made on the recommendation of the Drama Association Executive. Anyone desiring a scholarship shall make application in writing not later than June 1st, 1955 to:—
