Father Robin, Rev. George MacDonald, Rev. Joseph MacLeod, Rev. Floyd MacGough, Perry's Funeral Home, Sisters St. Mary's Convent, St. Mary's Church and all those who sent mass cards and messages of sympathy, the many friends and neighbours, who called and helped in so many ways, to all of you my sincere thanks. Donald J. MacDonald.

IN MEMORIAM ENGLISH - In loving memory of my dear father John Inglis who departed this life January 28th, 1928. But still the empty chair Reminds us of the face, the smile

OBITUARY Inserted by the family MRS. ELVIN L. MACLURE Emma Elizabeth Ling, wife of Elvin MacLure, North Milton died in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on December 7, 1965. With her sudden passing the Fairview, North Milton Baptist Church and Women's Missionary Society have lost a faithful member, and the people of the community will miss her cheerfulness and welcome in her home where she was a gracious host and extended to all who came true friendship and hospitality.

Mrs. MacLure was born at Brackley Beach, November 30, 1900, a daughter of the late William and Hannah (Seaman) Ling.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Doris (Mrs. Theo Seller) Wheatley River; two sisters, Gertrude, (Mrs. James Wares) Wheatley River; Mina (Mrs. Alder Dickieson), New Glasgow, and four grandchildren. Two brothers predeceased her, Arthur, killed in World War One, and Albert died in 1962.

Her remains were conveyed from the MacLean Funeral Home to the Fairview Baptist Church where services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. T.W. Howard, assisted by Rev. D.C. Powell and Rev. A.E. Piercey. Hymns were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "In The Sweet Bye and Bye"; the choir rendered "Wonderful Saviour" a favourite of the deceased, and Mrs. Eric Laird sang "Ours Jesus Care". Burial was in the adjoining church cemetery.

Those whom we love Go out of sight But never out of mind They are treasured in the hearts Of those they leave behind.

CARD OF THANKS The husband and family of the late Mrs. Elvin MacLure wish to express their sincere thanks to the doctors and nursing staff of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, to the MacLean Funeral Home, also kind neighbours, relatives and friends who sent floral tributes, memorials, cards and messages of sympathy, or helped in any way to lighten their burden.

OBITUARY Inserted by the family MRS. CHARLES F. MILLER The death occurred in Charlottetown on Monday, Dec. 20th of May Ansenetta Miller of Victoria, widow of the late Charles F. Miller. Born on August 22nd, 1869, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Grace Storey.

Her warm personality and good neighborhood will be remembered by her many friends and especially by the younger generation who were always welcome in her hospitable home.

Left to mourn the passing of a beloved mother, are six daughters and four sons: (Irene) Mrs. Russell Lowther, Truro, N.S.; (Pauline) Mrs. Joshua McCammond, Middletown, Conn.; (Helen) Mrs. James Benton, Hartford, Conn.; (Doris) Mrs. Whitfield Howatt, Truro, N.S.; (Juanita) Mrs. George Murray, Bedouque, P.E.I.; (Maymie) Mrs. Kenneth Whitty, New Glasgow, N.S.; Reid, New London, Conn.; Joseph, Charlottetown, P.E.I., and Hedley and Ralph of Victoria, P.E.I. Also surviving are 18 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. Four children, Raymond, Merion, Isabelle and Clayton predeceased her.

The funeral, which was held on Thursday, Dec. 23rd, in Victoria United Church was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Bryon Jones assisted by Rev. Ronald Cameron of Bedouque. In his message of comfort to the bereaved, Rev. Mr. Jones also exhorted the living to follow the precepts of loving service to God and to humanity as exemplified by the late Mrs. Miller during her life. Mr. Stephen MacLeod, her life, Mr. Stephen MacLeod, her life, sang "Sometime We'll Understand" and the congregational selections were "A Bide With Me" and "Peace Perfect Peace."

She was laid to rest in the Peoples Cemetery, Crapaud by the following pallbearers: George Cannon, Kenneth MacLean, Whitfield Howatt, George Murray, Kenneth Whitty and Gordon Miller.
