A WHALE OF A TIME

These daring children had a whale of a time playing on the back of a 38-foot, 18-ton black or picket whale which was stranded for two days near Panacea, Fla. The game of clambering aboard the air-breathing mammal broke up abruptly when the whale flipped his tail and tossed one child 10 feet into the air. The child landed in shallow water and was not hurt. The whale was towed to sea by the coast guard auxiliary where it disappeared.
