POLICE, HIGHWAY officials, demonstrated at Summerside and the Motor Vehicle Branch inspect the electronic speed meter which was available to Courts precision speed measurements free from the error of human observation.

New Electric Device To Aid In Traffic Problem

Yesterday at Summerside and Southport, the traffic personnel of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police gave a demonstration of the Electro-Matic Speed meter which will be used as method of measuring the rate at which a vehicle may be travelling on the highways. Premier Matheson and members of the Government, also Judge Walter E. Darby, was present at the Southport demonstration. The Speed Meter may be operated from the trunk or rear window of a stationary vehicle or independently from the side of the road. It registers the speed of all vehicles entering its beam and is accurate on all types of roads and bridges. It is not affected by atmospheric conditions or any of the gadgets which are reputed to render vehicles immune to radar such as ball bearings in the hub caps, silver foil streamers or static chains. It is far more accurate than car speedometers and therefore makes

Former Islander Dies In Regina

The following item is from a Regina paper of recent date: A resident in Regina for 41 years, J. V. (Vince) Carr, 61, of 876 McTavish street, died suddenly Tuesday in a Regina hospital. Born at Oyster Bed Bridge, P. E. I., Mr. Carr came to Regina in 1914. For many years he operated the business known as Peerless Motors, later being employed as a salesman for Neil Motors Ltd. For the past 11 years he was representative of the Continental Life Insurance company. Besides his wife, Mary, Mr. Carr is survived by three sons, Ted, 2410 Montague street; Jack, RCAF at Ottawa, and Gordon, with the navy at Halifax, N. S.; a daughter Mrs. R. J. Lepp, of Ajax, Ont., and 11 grandchildren. Also surviving are three brothers, Gordon and Howard, both of Oyster Bed Bridge and Percy, of Charlottetown, and a sister, Mrs. J. W. Carter, of Harrington, P. E. I. Funeral service will be at St. John United church at 3:30 p.m. Friday and burial will be in Riverside Memorial Park.

Alpha Y's Men's Club Meeting

The regular weekly meeting of the Alpha Y's Men's Club was held last evening in the banquet room of the Y. M. C. A. with chairman Bill Agnew and co-chairman Jock Sutherland presiding. Mr. Sutherland was also the guest speaker of the evening and gave a very informative talk on "Weather Forecasting". Plans were discussed for the district convalescence to be held at the "Y" Sunday, October 30. Also present was the regional director Bill Carson and Walter Cox led the group in song. The guest speaker was thanked by John MacNair and the meeting closed with the Queen.

Are Named To Library Board

At a meeting of the Executive Council held yesterday afternoon, Mr. P. S. Fielding and Mrs. Richard E. Dowd were named as Government representatives on the Board of Directors of the Prince Edward Island Library. Under the Prince Edward Island Libraries Act amended at the last session of the Legislature, it was provided that the Government appoint a permanent civil servant and one other representative. The City of Charlottetown are required to make two similar appointments. Miss Blanche Murray was appointed a laboratory aide in the Division of Laboratories, Department of Health and Welfare.

Prince Street Home School Ass'n Meeting

The October meeting of the Prince Street Home and School Association was held on Thursday. The very large and enthusiastic gathering of parents and teachers listened with great attention while Mr. K. A. Parker, Superintendent of City Schools, gave a very able and informative address on some of the reasons behind the new manner of making report cards, emphasizing the fact that although the child is in constant competition the report card will not now draw official recognition to that competition. This address was followed by a lively buzz session. After which the chairmen of the various groups reported their findings and had some pertinent questions, answered by Mr. Parker to the satisfaction of all. A vote of thanks, moved by Mr. Reg MacNutt, was extended to Mr. Parker on behalf of all present.

Newman Club Weekly Meeting

The weekly meeting of the Charlottetown Newman Club was held last night at the Knights of Columbus home. The meeting was called to order by the President and opened with a prayer. The secretary then read the minutes of the last meeting which were adopted as read. Father Clarence Roche, the club moderator, was then called upon to deliver a very enjoyable talk. Richard St. John led the group in a very informative discussion on jazz and classical music. The meeting closed with the Newman Club prayer and was followed by a Hallowe'en party, enjoyed by all.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Charles Graham, who passed away October 28, 1947.

October brings sad memories
Of a loved one gone to rest
But you will never be forgotten
By the ones who love you best.

God gave us strength to bear it
Courage to face the blow
But what it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.

Sadly missed by wife and family.

In loving memory of Benjamin Clow, Murray Harbor North, who departed this life October 28, 1951.

Every day, in some small way,
Memories of you come our way;
Though absent you are very near,
Still missed, still loved, and ever dear.

Ever remembered by the family.

AN INVITATION TO YOU

You are cordially invited to the first major showing of the famous Bates Bedspreads to be held on Prince Edward Island. This display, which opens today, is presented with the cooperation of Gordon MacKay Ltd. of Toronto, who represent Bates in Canada. Such well known spreads as Habitant, Classic, Colonial and George Washington are here for you to see as well as the popular price designs in many colors.

By courtesy of the Gordon MacKay Company a representative of that firm will be in our store on Friday afternoon and evening as well as on Saturday morning. He will have the complete range of Bates spreads samples to show you and he will gladly assist in helping you choose the correct spread for your bedrooms. All of the vast range of Bates colors and patterns will be here for you to see.

Phone 3188 if you would like an appointment or just drop in.

If you are a user of Bates spreads there is no need to describe their tremendous value and beauty. If you have not had the opportunity to use them may we say that they are washable, colorfast, wrinkle resistant and hard wearing. Styles for every type of bedroom are available, including many for the younger folks.

We hope you will accept our invitation.

Gordon MacKay
presents Bates BEDSPREADS
