THE YUCCA IN BLOOM.

A Rare Plant in Cleveland that Has Bloomed After Thirty Years.

A rare flower can be seen in the garden north of the fountain in the northwest section of the public square. It is a yucca gloriosa, commonly known as glorious Adam's needle, and it is stated this is the first time the plant has bloomed for thirty or forty years. Fears are entertained that the blossom may kill the plant, and an effort will be made to preserve it. An authority on botanical subjects says that the yucca can be seen to best advantage by moonlight while in bloom.

As the yucca grows old the lowermost foliage decays, leaving a thick bare stalk; in fact, giving the stalk quite an arborescent character. Its height is extremely variable; its age before flowering also varies from 5 to 15 years, and its subsequent intervals are quite uncertain.

The flowers are white and bell shaped, and are in a cluster at the end of a long stalk,—Plaindealer.

The Cane Work Basket.

A pretty idea most easily carried out is shown here in an arrangement of crossed canes, with a silken pouch for the bits of fancy work so unpopular at present. Bows tie the section where they join and add very much to the attractiveness of the whole.

LULLABIES.

A Class of Song That is Universally Popular With All Classes.

It is not given to all class of song to be universal, some countries are rich in one particular style, some in another, but we may safely affirm that the lullaby is indigenous to every soil. There are mothers and babies in all lands; and therefore, as a natural sequence, we find the lulling song or lullaby. From China to Peru, from Spitzbergen to South Africa, motherhood in its primitive form is ever one of the best sides of complex human nature. The little cannibal, the embryo fire-cater, the untutored Aino baby, all turn with something like a spark of affection toward her who gave him birth, and although we shall probably find more melody, more beautiful poetic imagery among the lullabies of European mothers, yet we must not fail to take into account the sincerity of such lines as these which the Chinese woman chants over her infant:

Snail, snail, come out and be fed,
Put out your horns and then your head.
And thy mamma will give the mutton,
For thou art doubly dear to me.

The Arab tawny treasure seems to be easiest sent into dreamland with the following bucolic verse:

Sleep, my baby, sleep;
Sleep a slumber hale.
Sweetly rest till morning light,
My little farmer boy, so bright.

And the little Zulu goes to:

Hush, thee, my baby,
Thy mother's o'er the mountains gone;
There she will dig the little garden patch,
And water she'll fetch from the river.

The ancient Romans had a number of lullabies. One began:

Lalla, lalla, lalla,
Aut dormi, aut lacta.
—Gentleman's Magazine.

Victoria's Big Hands.

The Queen of England has a large hand. She takes 7½ gloves. Her fingers are extremely short and out of proportion to the size of her hands. The Queen will wear nothing but black gloves. She commenced to wear one-button gloves at the beginning of her reign. To-day, when no shop-girl thinks anybody a real lady without six-button gloves, the Queen has only two to four. She refuses altogether to conform to the fashion. She wears only about two dozen pairs of gloves a year. Each pair costs 8s. 6d.; in fact the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Empress of India is decidedly economical in her glove bill. There are a great many fashionable women who think nothing of a glove bill if it only comes to $100 a year. Many women will spend $20 on gloves during the six weeks of the season by wearing two or three pairs a day.—Philadelphia Times.

Always the Favorite.

Although the rose was brought into greater prominence during the feud between the houses of York and Lancaster, which

Sent between the red rose and the white,
A thousand souls to death and deadly night,

the emblematic rose of England was part and parcel of ancient history in England long before. There is (or was) a wild rose which trailed and climbed over the cathedral walls at Hildesheim, with its roots in the crypt. This rose was said to have flourished long before Charlemagne laid the foundations of that glorious edifice. Roman warriors had roses depicted on their shields, and, indeed, for ages, and in every clime the "queen of the flowers" has been a universal favorite. It is a worthy emblem of "the rose and expectancy of this fair state," and long may it continue to be.—Home Journal.

"An ounce of prevention, &c. Do not neglect that cough! One bottle of Puttner's Emulsion (the cough medicine par excellence) taken now, may save you weeks of illness, and a long doctor's bill. Large bottle, only 50 cents.

The Elliott Case.

BRANTFORD, Sept. 4.—Many citizens of this city are willing to vouch for the truth of Frank Elliott's statement that he was cured of kidney disease of six years' standing by the use of Dodd's kidney pills. Everyone is astonished at the rapidity of thoroughness with which these pills do their work. As one who had tried them says: "A man feels, after using them, as though he had never enjoyed life before." The Rymal case, in which a paralytic was cured by Dodd's kidney pills, opened the eyes of the people in this vicinity to the virtues of this remedy.

They Do Not Despair.

An utter loss of hope is no not characteristic of consumptives, though no other form of disease is so fatal, unless its progress is arrested by use of Scott's Emulsion, which is Cod Liver Oil made as palatable as cream.

In the Valley of Death!

A Marvellous Escape!

A Member of a School Board Saved.

A Statement Endorsed by Two Prominent Clergymen!

MR. JOSEPH ROLSTON.

Mr. Joseph Rolston, of Nixon, Norfolk County, Ont., is a well-known farmer, and one of the most prominent men in that part of the country. As a member of the local school board, he is attentive and hard-working; as a church member he is earnest, devout and sincere; as a friend and neighbor he is kindly, courteous and beloved by all in the community.

For a considerable time Mr. Rolston was afflicted with dyspepsia, which became so severe that it produced nervous prostration and delirium. The sufferer's condition was extremely alarming, and relatives and friends were fearful of results. Four skillful physicians labored honestly and faithfully to bring back health and strength, but all their efforts were vain and fruitless.

Under the guidance and direction of a merciful Providence the use of Paine's Celery Compound was suggested to Mr. Rolston, and he was persuaded to give it a trial. Shortly after using the Compound a marvellous change was experienced; in a word, a complete cure was affected after the use of four bottles of nature's great life-giver.

Mr. Rolston, for the benefit of suffering humanity, writes as follows:—

"It gives me great pleasure to add my testimony ta your preparation known as Paine's Celery Compound, which is ever increasing in popularity. It is now a year past since I had a severe attack of nervous prostration caused by chronic dyspepsia, and for a year I could not sleep at night. This condition of sleeplessness brought on delirium. I was attended by four of the best doctors of the country, and took a great quantity of medicine, but all failed to do me any good. Having been persuaded to read your books I thought I would try your Paine's Celery Compound; and after I had used four bottls ethe nervousness and dyspepsia left me, and I have done more work since than for years past. I now enjoy excellent health and consider myself completely cured. I have highly recommended your Paine's Celery Compound to others, and I know of several persons who are now using it."

I know Mr. Rolston, as I visited him during his illness, and can testify to the above.

I am one of Mr. Rolston's nearest neighbors, and have been acquainted with him for many years. I can testify to his illness, and believe the above statements to be correct.

A SPLENDID RECORD.

A Provincial Industry Trebles Its Business in the Last Three Months.

Some three months ago this journal informed its readers that a new provincial industry, that of the Hawker Medicine Company, of St. John, had completed its first qurrter's business, and that it is book showed a development of trade and a record of sales that was not only gratifying but really astonishing.

Another three months has now elapsed and the company have balanced their accounts for the six months. The results show that in the last three months they have trebled the business of the first three: they have about doubled their working staff and work has been carried on in the packers room till 11 o'clock every night in order to fill orders promptly. From all parts of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and P. E. Island, from Newfoundland and parts of the United States, the orders have rolled in. The business is now firmly established. The experimental stage is past. Repeat orders come in constantly, showing that where once the remedies are introduced, they win permanent favors with the people, who know as soon as they have given any of them a trial that these standard remedies are all that they are claimed to be. Indeed, this last might readily be assumed without a trial, and judging solely from the character of the gentlemen who form the Hawker Medicine Co., as they are numbered among the leading citizens and most honorable and successful business men of St. John.

The Hawker Medicine company are now patenting their remedies in Great Britain and will presently extend their operations there, as well as more extensively to the United States. About the middle of this month Thomas Rankine, who so successfully introduced the Hawker remedies in Newfoundland last spring, will start and traverse the western part of Canada, from Montreal to Vancouver in the interests of the company. With such a record as that of their first six months now closed, the Hawker Medicine Co. are evidently destined to achieve a great success. They control standard remedies, which have received the endorsation of leading physicians in Canada and the United States, as well as the fervent praise of sorely afflicted people who have by their means been restored to health.

Their place of business is at 104 Prince William Street, St. John, N. B., where they have the most extensive and elaborately fitted up premises of the kind in the Lower Provinces. William Hawker, the original inventor of the remedies, has been a druggist in St. John for 30 years, and had long proved the value of the different remedies before the present company was organized. It is with pleasure that this journal records the company's wonderful success.

The Test of Time.

William Holder, sailmaker, St. John, writes: "This is to certify that for nearly a year I suffered with dyspepsia, indigestion and severe bilious headaches. I lost flesh and became very weak. I was recommended to use Hawker's Tonic and Pills, and am pleased to say that they completely cured me. I gained flesh very fast, and became hearty and stronger than I had ever been, and have never suffered since, now over one year." .....

W. H. ROGERS.

AMHERST, N. S., May 27, 1893.

THE GRODER DYSPEPSIA CURE CO.

GENTLEMEN:—I am 71 years of age. Have been afflicted with sick headache most all my life, which developed into Dyspepsia of a mild type about twenty years ago, and has continued to grow worse until during the past seven or eight years I have not been able to take a drink of cold water or milk, as they would produce severe pains and sometimes vomiting. I have been subject to severe pains in the chest, with dizziness, which have been more frequent during the past three or four years. My mouth was furred up in the mornings, accompanied with bad breath. My case was yearly growing worse.

During all this long period I have tried many popular medicines, as well as prescriptions from the regular medical practitioners, but without producing any improvment.

In the fall of '92 I concluded to try a bottle or two of your medicine and such were its effects that I continued it and now I can drink cold water or milk without any inconvenience. Those dizzy pains are all gone and my mouth is as sweet as a baby's. In short, your medicine has cured me and I am sure that all Dyspeptics can be cured by its use.

(Signed) W. H. ROGERS,
Late inspector of Fisheries for Nova Scotia.

2 YEARS OF SUFFERING.

LIFE A TORTURE.

Kendrick Outhouse, of Tiverton, N. S., says: For several years I suffered from severe attacks of biliousness, which came on periodically, about every ten days. I had awful headaches and the smell of anything cooking turned me sick. I became weak and nervous, and had no ambition or strength to work. I passed many sleepless nights, and for days could not retain food on my stomach. I suffered bitterly with piles and liver, and my life was a constant torture to me. I became so weak that my friends gave up all hopes of my recovery. My brother brought me a bottle of

HAWKER'S NERVE AND STOMACH TONIC, and a box of HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS.

I had not taken them long before I commenced to improve and in a short time I was completely cured. I grew strong and vigorous, my appetite returned, I slept well and in a few months had gained 30 pounds in weight. I have not suffered from piles or biliousness since, now 2 years, and am as strong and hearty as any man could wish to be. I firmly believe that
