HAPPENINGS

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Today the nine island ladies, winners of the "The Guardian - Patriot New York Tour Contest," and Mrs. J. Carruthers, who is accompanying them, left for a week-long tour of activities. The party left for New York by car early yesterday morning for Moncton, N.B., where they boarded the 12:25 p.m. TCA flight for New York.

They arrived in New York at Idlewild airport at 3:25 p.m. and then were off to the Governor Clinton Hotel, which will be their residence during their New York stay.

After a dinner in the hotel's Coral Room, the ladies and their groups of winners from similar contests held by various newspapers at a coffee party and singing and vicinity. Mr. John Arsenault acting as chairman for the evening, called on Rev. L.P. Callaghan who addressed the young couple bride and offered congratulations and best wishes. Mrs. John Arsenault made the presentation. Both Jimmie and Leona expressed their thanks. The remainder of the evening was spent pleasantly in social chat.

A special feature was music and step dancing by Mrs. Kennedy and her sister, Ma Irene Weatherie. Delicious refreshments were served.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connor, St. Mary's Road, was the scene of a happy gathering on September 28, 1962, when friends and relatives assembled to assist them in celebrating their twentieth wedding anniversary. The room was most attractive for the occasion with flowers and autumn leaves. The dining table was centred with a two tier wedding cake topped with "20" and flanked by lighted tapers.

The many beautiful gifts including a set of silver from four nieces were opened by the bride's sister, Mrs. Tena Madore, while the accompanying verses were read by Miss Pauline Madore. Mr. O'Connor on behalf of his bride, expressed his thanks to everyone.

MR. AND MRS. HENRI BLANCHARD

Return To Scene Of Wedding Marks Golden Anniversary

Returning to the parish church where they were married 50 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henri Blanchard of Charlottetown attended Mass with their family, relatives, and friends at Saint Anthony's Church, 124 Bloomfield on August 18 to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. They were married on August 27, 1912, by Rev. F.X. Gallant, and their attendants were Josephine Gallant, a sister of Mrs. Blanchard, and Urban Blanchard, a brother of Mr. Blanchard, both of whom are deceased.

Reverend Clarence Pire, the present pastor of Saint Anthony's parish, celebrated the anniversary Mass, and also officiated for the renewal of marriage vows. Present in the sanctuary were Reverends Patrick Walsh, Charles Gallant, Emmanuel Richard, Joseph LeClair, and Nazaire Gallant. The ushers were the Mass played several appropriate hymns. The altar and sanctuary were decorated with a profusion of chrysanthemum and anemones.

After the Mass, a reception and banquet was held in the parish hall which was decked with baskets of gladness. The guest tables were garlanded with vases of mixed garden floral arrangements. A three-tier anniversary cake occupied the centre of the head table at which were seated the celebrants, their sons, daughters, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law.

The master of ceremonies was Gilbert Gaudet, a lifelong friend of the celebrants, during the banquet several messages of good wishes were read. After the ceremonial cutting of the anniversary cake, a toast to the celebrants was proposed by a son, Francis C. Bona, and responded to by another son, J. Elmer Blanchard. Speaking on behalf of sons-in-law were Rev. Raymond Gallant, of the White Fathers, Moncton; Mr. Robert Gaudet, of the White Fathers, Moncton; Mr. Anthony Dolron, Detroit; Mrs. Alvin Gallant, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gallant, and Mr. Winston Gallant, all of Montreal; Felix Desroches and Joachim Desroches of Boston; and Bert Dolron of New York.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Sabbath Peace Ebbs And A Workday Week Dawns

And then the flow of yesterday's Sabbath-peace ebbed, and a new workday week washed in over the rye sands of this morning.

What a pleasant day yesterday! It took folks to their Churches, and for Sabbath-day's Journeys, to stop a while, it might be, with kin or with friends, to visit happily together, and leave both visitor and visited mutually refreshed at the parting. And grateful in the world, divided suspicious and ill, the good things of life and living can still be enjoyed. Still, as in those days when the Sunday company was entertained in the stiff atmosphere of the parlor, we can discuss the morning's services, and we can speak of the uplift and inspiration gained from the sermon, for, we think, has a sermon manner does not remain in the memory. And, as for the lesson may be taught in a gesture on the part of the speaker, in a devout expression of approval, in a text or a phrase even, or in faith of a prayer.

"This" the younger farmer offered as we homed from Church "is, you may say, the last Sunday of the leaves. By this time next week, the best of their colors will be gone. Instead, already, some of the trees are bare."

He eased the machine to a crest, as I approached the hilltop, so that we could look down over the mill and stream, and across to our homes on the

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McGinn and daughters, Deborah and Kim, have been spending their holidays at Kensington and Millville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy, nee Leona Weatherie, were entertained in honor of their recent marriage, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kennedy, Kensington, on Saturday evening. The occasion was celebrated by friends and neighbors of Kensington and vicinity. Mr. John Arsenault acting as chairman for the evening, called on Rev. L.P. ## CONST. AND MRS. GERALD H. SOMERS

Young Couple Are Wed Here Will Reside In Claresholm

A marriage of widespread interest took place Saturday morning, September 22 at Saint Peter's Church, Seven Mile Bay, when Kathleen Agnes Murphy of Augustine Cove and the stable Gerald Henry Somers of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police from Claresholm, Alberta. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy of Augustine Cove and the groom is the youngest son of Mr. Somers of Hamilton, Ontario. Baskets of flowers and posies ferns adorned the sanctuary, while white and red roses with satin ribbon marked the guest seats. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Reginald MacDonald, who also celebrated the nuptial. Mrs. Irene Peeters, sister of Mrs. Somers, as soloist, rendered appropriate hymns to the mass and the singing of the register, and was accompanied by Mrs. Irene Peeters, as organist.
