HAPPENINGS

The Clan MacLeod, is happy to announce that their representative to the clan parliament held at Dunvegan Castle, August 4th to 7th, was Donald Beverley MacLeod, eldest son of Mrs. MacLeod, Charlottetown and Orwell, and the late Mr. Ernest MacLeod.

Donald is serving as staff writer and supervisor of distribution for Paul Hance Productions, Inc. an industrial motion picture company in New York City. His present writing assignment concerns production of motion picture film reports for Bell Telephone laboratories on the TITAN and ICBM guided missile. In fulfilling this duty he periodically visits the Cape Canaveral air force missile test centre, Vandenberg air force base, California, space technology laboratories in Los Angeles, California, and the Martin Co., Denver, Colorado.

Having analyzed the technical progress at these locations Mr. MacLeod prepares a motion picture script describing the activities and supervises the motion picture photography, then directs the preparation of the final film report. These motion pictures are used for secret and highly classified briefings of high level air force officers, congressional staff and the president of the United States.

In a recent U. K. broadcast Prince Edward Island friends were pleased to hear a reference made to Dr. Cuthbert Simpson, Dean of Christ Church College, Oxford. The commentator was doing a broadcast of exchange students. He went on to describe how he had been sitting for half an hour in a most beautiful garden in Oxford in the company of the dean.

Dr. Simpson is a brother of Mrs. Harold L. Palmer and a brother-in-law of Mrs. H. M. Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McLeod have moved into their beautiful new home "Raasay" in Southport. This was the former home of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shaw.

Miss Nazia L. Dane, provincial president of the Business and Professional Clubs of Ontario, who recently in the company of her two teen age nephews Stephen and Michael Dane, British Columbia, visited this province, has an article in the July-August Business and Professional Woman's magazine.

This article is headed "Ontario Reports." There were eleven regional meetings and Miss Dane visited them all. Her report to the magazine was on common problems and outstanding projects and programmes.

Revitalization has been a main project in Ontario this year, the theme for regional meetings was "Membership—and Your Club in the Community." Some of the problems discussed were: How to attract members interested and actively participating in club programme and projects; what is a gainfully employed woman?

Many members felt the basic requirement for all was a thorough understanding of the aims and objectives of the Federation and a knowledge of accomplishments at the national, provincial and local levels.

Ontario is welcoming ideas from everyone and if there is anyone who can put across this revitalization project certainly this person is the brilliant and hard working Nazia L. Dane, provincial president.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, 51-year-old mayor of New Westminster, B.C., was the only woman mayor in British Columbia to be host in her own city to the Queen, British Columbia's other woman mayor, Mrs. Carrie Jane Gray of Prince George, was presented in Kamloops. Both women are members of B. and P. W. Clubs in their respective cities.

Taking leading parts in the workshop sponsored by Alberta Business and Professional Women's Clubs at Banff in mid-May were Miss Una MacLean, national first vice-president; Mrs. Margaret Ashdown, national United Nations' liaison chairman and Miss Isabel MacMillan, Alberta provincial president. Both Miss MacLean and Miss MacMillan have an Island background.

The christening took place at the Sunday morning service of the Victoria United Church, Victoria, of the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burda, New York City. Mrs. Burda was the former Miss Donalds MacLeod, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. MacLeod, Victoria. The baby is named for his father and his maternal grandfather and great-grandfather.

A love song, "Avenue of Love" written by a Calgarian, is the No. 1 winner of Liberty's $1,000.00 song-writing contest. It won over 14,000 entries submitted across Canada.

Among the top runners-up first came a gay folk-song, "The Wandering Barber of Halifax Harbor" by Edna M. Farnell of Halifax. Miss Farnell is a niece of Mrs. Ruby Farnell MacKay and the late Elmer Farnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reid and family and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Fitzsimmons left Thursday morning for their home in Pembroke, Ontario, after spending the past two weeks visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reid, Malpeque Road, and other members of the family.

On Saturday evening, June 27, the family and a few close friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Buntain, Rustico, to celebrate with them their 25th anniversary of their marriage. The dining room was suitably decorated for the occasion and the table centered with a nicely decorated wedding cake, which was later cut in traditional manner by the bride and groom.

Beautiful gifts were received including money, silver, electric appliances and linen. Both the bride and groom expressed their thanks and appreciation after which all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

After many snapshots had been taken a delicious lunch was served by Alberta and Sandra Buntain. A social evening was enjoyed, including music and singing, and as the guests departed all wished Victor and Lola many more years of happy married life.

The Canadian Doctor magazine for July has the following article in the section Professional Notes—Dr. Lewis C. Haslam, chief medical officer for Canadian Industries Limited, has been elected as a Fellow of the Industrial Medical Association "for outstanding work in the field of industrial medicine." Born in Springfield, P. E. I. in 1906, he was educated at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown and McGill University, from which he received his medical degree. He was consulting physician at C.I.L.'s Beloeuf, Que., works from 1932 and was appointed to his present position in July 1954. Dr. Haslam is a member of the American Industrial Medical Association, the Montreal Medico-Chirurgical Association, the Canadian Medical Association, and is a fellow of the Quebec Industrial Medical Association.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peck and daughter Helen of Sydney Mines, N.S., are in Charlottetown for the Old Home Week races. This is Mr. Peck's thirtieth trip to Prince Edward Island to witness the annual Charlottetown Exhibition and Old Home Week events. They are registered at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Miss Sadie MacKinnon of Ottawa has spent her holidays with relatives on the Island. On the return trip Miss MacKinnon was accompanied by her niece Elaine Reynolds who will visit with her grandmother for the rest of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacKinnon and family are on their annual holiday to Prince Edward Island.

The Misses Linda and Gloria Feehan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Feehan, Mount Stewart, returned by plane from New York City where they had a wonderful visit with their uncle and auntie, Mr. and Mrs. Pi-cone.

Mr. and Mrs. Celes McCarville and family left for their home in Hamilton, Ontario, after spending three weeks visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. George Larter of Chestnut St. and Mr. and Mrs. Ollie McCarville of Kinkora.

Miss Joan Johnson, returned to Hamilton Ont., after spending three weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Larter of Chestnut St., City.

The executive of the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada, Prince Edward Island Chapter, met at the home of the president, Mr. Harold Heartz on August

ELLEN'S DIARY

A Bride Called On Us She Was Pretty & Young

These days the children discover new treasures among the flowers.

"Do you know there are roses blooming behind other plants in the border-pink ones, buds large and pointed?" Mack queried today.

We had already welcomed them. They were reminding of an old garden gone now, where once upon a time also nasturtiums and hollyhocks grew in profusion. And in the orchard beside, come potato-harvest time, tasteful bittersweet apples ripened for youngsters to sample. Ours puzzle over choosing "the prettiest panny" in the flower bed, and hope the squirrel who visits us will leave the oak's acorns to them.

A bride was among the callers at Alderlea today. In her pretty dress and youth she was naturally a person of much interest to the femininity here. How attractive and smart these are as they move farther into their brand new and intriguing avenue of life.

"And did you not give her a word of advice?" we recalled one oldish woman of our girlhood comment to another after a bride's visit to the latter's home. A word of advice the other exclaimed, "And what think you it would be?" "You could have told her. . . " "The first stopped and smiled "one would scarcely know where to begin."

The other nodded "She'll have to learn her lessons the same as you and I did—she'll have to hoe her own row. And no two rows are alike. But I did wish her the years' blessings for she seems to be a nice lass."

So we would wish all brides. And for the shadowed days, those bound to come we fancy to city apartment, country cottage, or landed estate, we would wish them a heart above every trouble, sense too to see the sunshine gleaming warm and golden on the pathway beyond the gloom. This will be, if the weather be favorable, one of the big days of the Fair. In what numbers folks will converge on that spot!!! From far places of the Island, along distances, past contented summer-scenes, Alderlea, and the farms of this district will contribute their share and all will be pleased at the outing though a little sad that gala time which is the Old Home Week will be drawing so near to its close.

We think the sight of a Canada thistle blossoming in all its purple-hued glory in the orchard, or the heaps of wood in a pasture over the fields waiting to be stored will serve this very morning to remind our farmers that according to James "there's a certain limit to this kind of farming" and the farm will be calling to them to take up its more practical husbandry again. A stilly windless day this-by times lightly misty. . . An August day to live and love for its serenity, then count it away.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Bedeque Couple

Baskets of white lilies formed a charming setting in Bedeque United Church for the wedding of Alice Marina MacCallum daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacCallum, and George Campbell son of Mrs. Ralph Campbell and the late Ralph Campbell of Fernwood which took place at 3.30 p.m. on June 17th. The Reverend G. A. Cowper-Smith assisted by Dr. C. A. Britton performing the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Walter Craig, aunt of the bride, presided at the organ and accompanied Mr. Gordon MacCallum uncle of the bride who sang "The Wedding Prayer", after the bride entered the church and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

Guest pews were marked with white bows and bells centered with a pink flower. Ushering the guests were Mr. Ralph MacCallum brother of the bride, and Mr. Lorne Campbell brother of the groom.

The bride, entering the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage was lovely in her white portrait wedding gown, ballerina length, beautiful floral Naplac lace, very full skirt featuring sabrina neckline and sleeves coming to a point over the hands. A tiara trimmed with aquina and pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Norman MacFarlane sister of the bride as matron of honour was attired in a gown of blue nylon sheer over taffeta, the bodice shirred and folded forming a sabrina neckline in front and deep V neckline in back from which fell floating panels over the very full skirt. Miss Shirley MacArthur as bridesmaid was charming in an identical gown of pink. They wore white pill box style hats with matching veils and carried nosegays of white carnations.

Mr. Wesley Campbell, brother of the groom, was best man. A reception was held in the church hall for eighty guests. The bride's table, centered with a beautifully decorated wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom was flanked by white tapers and early summer flowers were used to decorate. Reverend G. A. Cowper-Smith proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded.

Dr. Britton in a few complimentary remarks expressed his good wishes to the bride and groom. Mr. Wesley Campbell read a telegram received from Mr. and Mrs. Neil Campbell, brother of the groom in Cranbrook, B.C. Mrs. Wendell Myers circulated the guest book.

Mrs. MacCallum chose for her daughter's wedding a navy street length dress with shell pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink feathered carnations.

Mrs. Campbell mother of the groom was attired in a blue street length dress with white accessories and pinned on a corsage of white feathered carnations.

Prior to her wedding Marina was tendered a shower in Summerside at the home of Miss Shirley MacArthur and at her home in Lower Bedeque where she was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Previous to her marriage the bride was employed at the Island Telephone Company. On return from their honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will make their home in Central Bedeque.
